PRETTY POISONER TO BE PARDONED AFTER THREE YEARS

VENICE, Italy, Oct. 7.—Legal formalities were begun for securing the conditional release from the prisons at Trani of Countess Maria Tarnowska. In all probability she will be released on parole the latter part of the month. The beautiful Russian countess was sentenced in 1910 to eight years' imprisonment for having incited a youthful lover, Nicholas Namoff, to murder another of her sweethearts, Count Kamarovsky, that she might collect the $100,000 life insurance which he had taken out in her name. Of those eight years the countess has already served the two required in solitary confinement and an additional year in the prisons at Trani. Her department in that time has not only been so exemplary, but in many respects so extraordinary, that little doubt is felt she will be given the conditional liberty which the Italian law now makes possible. When the United Press correspondent called at the prisons at Trani with a special permit to see the countess, the prison authorities were deeply laudatory of their prisoner. "She will leave us an entirely different woman," they said. "She will leave us a woman of God." In the three years which the countess has now been in prison she is declared to have given herself entirely over to a religion with a fervor only equalled by that which she is declared to have formerly manifested in making men fall madly in love with her and then pitting them against each other till they destroyed themselves. When young Nicholas Namoff fell victim to her charms she is declared to have embraced repeatedly in his presence Count Kamarovsky, until her promiscuous and his own jealous fury led him to come from Vienna to this city and kill the count.

JURY NOW PROBING GIRL'S DISAPPEARANCE

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Oct. 7.—Determined to solve the mystery of the disappearance of little Catherine Winters last March, the grand jury today began a searching inquiry into the case, under special instructions from Judge Jackson. The mystery has been as baffling as the famous Charley Ross and Dorothy Arnold disappearances. Catherine Winters, on her way home from school, disappeared on the afternoon of March 20, as if the earth had suddenly opened and swallowed her. A nationwide search by county, state and federal detectives and sleuths from the best private agencies of the country failed absolutely to unearth the slightest clue to the child's whereabouts or the manner of her death—if that were her fate. However, County Prosecutor Evans recently unearthed what he believes are important clues which make him believe the child is still living. The child's pictures have been almost as widely printed as those of Dorothy Arnold. Military Notice. The Seventh company C. A. R. at its regular drill at the Armory this evening will be paid the balance of their state pay for camp service, men receiving same must appear in O. D. uniform. By order of A. W. DEANE, Captain Commanding. C. V. TENGWALD, First Sergeant. TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Two in family. Mrs. A. E. Reames.

WAITE WINNER OF HOMESTEAD AT SQUAW LAKE

By a decision of the general land office at Washington, D. C., news of which was received in this city this morning by Attorney R. E. Matley, Louis A. Waite is awarded a homestead on Squaw lake, which has been contested for the last three years by George Neuler and M. M. Welsh. The case has been in every court in Jackson county, to the land office at Roseburg, and is one of the famous land cases of this section. The ranch, which is valued at $7,500, was originally filed upon by George K. Waite, deceased, a pioneer of the valley, who was well and widely known. Death prevented him from perfecting his title to the land, and his brother, Louis A., took up the securing of the land, acting upon the basis that as an heir he was entitled to first and best consideration. Messrs. Neuler and Welsh maintained in defense that they had made improvements upon the land and that this nullified the heirship rights of Louis Waite. In the justice, circuit and supreme courts they were reversed, and in both appeals to the land office. Louis Waite is 78 years old, and is well known in the southwest, in his youth being connected with Colorado newspaper and mining interests, one chapter of his being a six months' chase of the renegade Indian "Apache Kid" through the desert wilds of Arizona. FINE REDUCED FOR PUGILISTIC ATTORNEY SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 7.—Superior Judge Lawlor today reduced to $10 the fine of $200 imposed by Police Judge Sullivan several weeks ago in the case of Charles Ramsey, an attorney, convicted of committing battery upon a newspaper photographer. Ramsey punched the camera man while the latter was attempting to take a picture of the Caminetti party during the Digges-Caminetti trial here. The prosecution joined in the plea for leniency. "CASCARETS" RELIEVE SICK, SOUR STOMACH Move Acids, Gases and Clogged-up Waste From Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Cure Indigestion Get a 10-cent box now. That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any. Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

FEDERAL COURT IN FALL SESSION AT MOOSE HALL

The federal court for the fall term for the Southern Oregon district convened this afternoon at two o'clock in the Moose hall, with Judge Wolverton presiding. District Attorney Clarence L. Reames will represent the government. U. S. Clerk A. N. Cannon, U. S. Marshal J. J. Montague, and Deputy Marshal McClain, all of Portland also are in attendance, arriving this morning. Two civil cases occupy the attention of the court. One is the civil suit of Bonney vs. Hickey and involves the ownership of a stallion. Nothing but a point of law will be decided, and no jury will be called for this case. The other case is the damage suit against the California-Oregon Electric company. Ernest Forman of Jacksonville will plead guilty this afternoon to refusing to answer a subpoena. It is expected that the sessions of the court will be concluded by Friday. A jury will be impaneled this afternoon for the hearing of the cases. The case of United States vs. Keaton, a civil action to recover damages for timber trespass has been postponed until December 9, on application of the defense. Check the Symptoms of Lung Trouble One of the many reasons why Lung Trouble is so difficult to fight is because the disease is often of a very baffling nature. The patient may look well, but is really in fast fading strength, he may cough night and day, fever and chills, these symptoms should be checked as quickly as possible. Eckman's Alternative is successful in checking fever and night sweats and it has brought about many complete recoveries. Read this case: "I was writing you this letter, thinking that doctors may know what your Alternative has done for me, since I was a very young woman, I was a sufferer from Bronchitis. I tried doctor after doctor, getting little or no benefit. Finally I had night sweats, weak spells and lost rapidly in weight and my doctor told me if they were not checked I would have Lung Trouble. Miss Mary Korbman, who is a friend of mine, recommended after taking your Alternative and lo and behold I try it. I am now, after two years, perfectly well, strong and healthy." (Lambert, Mrs. Rosa Voeltzel, Alameda, Cal.) Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many cases, but to be most effective for severe Tubercular Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Branchial Asthma, Strabismus, Croup and in expelling the system of poisons, it is the best. For further information, ask for booklet "Relief of Lung Trouble," written by Dr. Eckman, Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

What is the Matter with Your Stomach? By Samuel Hopkins Adams In October Ladies' Home Journal on page 98 Mr. Adams says: "Some of the most pronounced cases of nausea and nervous dyspepsia" are found where the stomach itself is perfectly sound and are due to eye strain. If you suffer from stomach disorders, better have your eyes examined. I specialize on eye strain and can give you positive advice in these matters. DR. RICKERT Suite 1-2 Over Deuel's Medford, Ore.

German Coffee Cake Made Without Yeast By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. There is no warm bread quite as appropriate for Sunday morning breakfast as German Coffee Cake, yet it is seldom made by housewives who do not bake their own bread. If K. C. Double Dutch Baking Powder is used it will be just as good as if raised with yeast and it will have the further advantage of being fresh and light. Save this recipe and try it next Sunday. K. C. German Coffee Cake Two and one-half cups sifted flour; 1 level teaspoonful salt; 2 table-spoonfuls sugar; 1 egg; 2 table-spoonfuls margarine; 1 egg; milk.

Sift dry ingredients together, beat the egg, add milk and butter to the egg to make one and one-quarter cups and all together well mixed, pour in a stiff batter. Pour into greased pan and spread evenly. Bake two hours with melted butter. Sprinkle sugar and ground cinnamon over the top. Bake in moderate oven. Dutch Apple Cake or Prune Kuchen can be made with this same batter by covering the top with pared and sliced apples, or cooked prunes with the pie removed, skin sides down. Dressing with sugar and cinnamon the same as for Coffee Cake. "The Cook's Book" contains 90 just such delicious recipes. You can receive a copy free by sending the colored certificate packed by 25-cent cans of K. C. Baking Powder to the James Mfg. Co., Chicago, being sure to write your name and address plainly.
