ASK LIFE TERM FOR MIKE SPANOS

Attorney D. R. McCabe is circulating a petition asking Governor West to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence of Mike Spanos and Fred Seymour, sentenced to be hanged October 31 for the slaying of George DeLaskalou in this city a year ago.

ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Albert Lawrentz of Medford has sold his ranch on Trail creek to Mr. Bigham of Medford. Mr. Bigham has spent several summers with his niece, Miss Alice Kippis, on Trail and has a good many friends there.

where, but his annual visits to this vicinity are pleasing to a score of more old time friends and acquaintances.

F. V. Smith and Frank Carey of Alva, Oklahoma, returned to their homes last week for the purpose of winding up their personal affairs and emigrating to the Rogue river valley.

A Southern Pacific bridge crew, traveling in their own special cars, have been engaged in installing the new steel spans of the south trestle during the past week.

C. H. Bowman departed on Sunday evening for Salem, where he will receive treatment at a sanitarium for tuberculosis.

Development work upon the Ramsey canyon embarlode will again be taken up, in accordance with instructions recently received by manager Al Lewis.

A. J. Florsy, our efficient post master has had a neat wide board walk built along between his residence and the side walk.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Wolfer, father and mother of one of our leading citizens, E. S. Wolfer, came out from Hubbard, Ore., last Friday to visit their son.

George Phillips has just had a new wood shed put up on his place.

The school board has had drums and dampers put on the pipes leading from the stoves to the flues, thus saving fuel and heat as well.

Boggs and children of Medford, besides some others whose names I did not learn.

W. J. Mapes of Newport, Ore., came in with his wife Sunday evening and took rooms at the Sunny Side, they brought their effects along with them and expect to go into business here. He is an agate cutter and has brought his machine with him.

County Commissioner Can Leever was out last Thursday looking after the interest of the county.

Last week when our school and church bells began to ring and the various instruments to make a noise were brought into play, those who had not been reading up and were not posted as to coming event, began to run in every direction to try to find the cause of the alarm, finally some one asked his neighbor who was reading up, "Where is the fire," and in response said "In Panama," and then the mystery was solved.

I see in my Haglets in the Mail Tribune of the tenth last, that either the correspondent or the printer, probably the former, made quite a mistake in speaking of the apples on the Corbin orchard. It should have read that out of the three hundred and sixty-five boxes of Newtown apples sorted over that they were all of the Blue Ribbon variety except 40 boxes of Red Ribbon variety and a few culls.
