

JOHN LIND CABLES HUERTA WILL RESIGN DIPLOMATS CLAMOR FOR INTERVENTION

WILSON PLACES FAITH IN RUMOR OF RESIGNATION

Mexican Situation More of a Puzzle Than Ever—Army Reported on a Verge of Revolt—Huerta Fears Assassination.

Mexican Deputies Arraigned on Charges of Sedition and Rebellion—Diaz Refuses Government Boat.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The Mexican situation was a puzzle today. It was hard to tell whether it had changed for the better or worse. John Lind cabled from Vera Cruz that he believed Provisional President Huerta was about to retire. There were rumors that he actually had retired. A third report was that he had offered his resignation to the cabinet, which had refused to accept it.

The administration did not know which story to accept as true, so it accepted none of them—merely waited. It was known, however, that President Wilson inclined to put most faith in Lind's version.

Clamor for Intervention American Charge d'Affaires Nelson O'Shaughnessy of the American legation in Mexico City wired that the diplomats there, with the exception of the English representative, were clamoring for the United States to intervene. The president opposed this but many of his friends said he would have to come to it.

The army was reported on the verge of revolt. Huerta was said to have surrounded himself with guards, in momentary fear of assassination. The prominent Mexicans who favor his resignation could not agree on his successor.

Former Ambassador to Mexico Henry Lane Wilson made a speech in which he said the United States will have to recognize Huerta or intervene—which, he added, would be all very well for Mexico but bad for Americans' "morals and pocket-books."

Deputies Arraigned Seventy-four of the 119 members of the Mexican chamber of deputies, recently arrested by Huerta, were arraigned on charges of rebellion, sedition and insulting public officers.

Pelix Diaz, who wants to be president, arrived in Havana on his way from Europe to Vera Cruz. Huerta had a gunboat waiting to take him across the gulf. It was believed he would be virtually a prisoner on it. Diaz declined to take the gunboat, saying he preferred to travel by the steamship Corcoravado. His friends feared, however, that he would be assassinated in Vera Cruz.

RICHMOND, Cal., Oct. 18.—Said Ali Kahn, who repudiated his confession made at Calexico, where he was arrested and yesterday broke down and admitted killing Rosa Domingo, a Portuguese factory girl at Stege, refused today to discuss his confession and seems to be resigned to his prospective fate.

The preliminary examination has been set for Wednesday. Munsu Khan, said Ali's friend, will be held as an accessory to the murder. Charles Riley, a teamster, who was questioned by the police as to the Hindu's movements, was released today from custody.

DOCTOR ASSERTS POISON FOUND IN ADMIRAL'S STOMACH

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Oct. 18.—Denial of allegations that Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton was insane when he died or that he was an habitual drug user was voiced from the witness stand here today by Dr. Joseph Frame of Rockland, at the trial of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, charged with the admiral's murder. After outlining various visits to the Eaton home, Dr. Frame testified that Mrs. Eaton told him she thought her husband was insane and should be committed to any asylum.

The witness testified that he frequently discussed poisons with Mrs. Eaton, and that she voiced fear of the admiral giving her poison. Dr. Frame removed Admiral Eaton's stomach, intestines and brain, shortly after his death, and found traces, he said, of poisoning. Miss Bessie Collamore followed Dr. Frame to the stand. She testified that Mrs. Eaton asked her to testify that Admiral Eaton's conduct toward her was improper. Mrs. Eaton laughed loudly several times during Miss Collamore's testimony.

HUERTA JUST AS MUCH RIGHT TO OFFICE AS WILSON

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 18.—"The government of Provisional President Huerta of Mexico is just as legal as the government of Roosevelt, when he succeeded to the presidency after the assassination of President McKinley," declared Henry Lane Wilson, former United States ambassador to Mexico, in an address on the Mexican situation, delivered at a banquet tendered him here last night.

"President Wilson could recognize Huerta and still save his face, as he has been trying to do ever since," Wilson continued. "If President Wilson does not get behind the Huerta government chaos is going to come and we will have to go down and take care of the country. We would have to supervise the election and then the new president would be labeled the 'gringo president.' As soon as our soldiers had left the country the Mexicans would get out their knives and we should have to go back again. That would mean controlling the country and all the countries to the Panama canal. Intervention would be all right if we stayed there all the time, but it would be bad for our morals and our pocketbooks."

BAT NELSON OUT OF RING FOREVER

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Battling Nelson, former lightweight champion, is in Chicago today with a broken right hand, sustained in his fight with Ad Wolgast at Milwaukee last Monday night. He reiterated his intention of retiring.

"My fight with Wolgast convinced me that I still have the stamina, but my hands are worn out," said Nelson today. "Bonesetter Reese of Yonkers-town, O., told me yesterday they will not hold out any more. So you see there is nothing left for me to do but quit the ring."

SULZER MAY NOT SEEK VINDICATION WITH THE BALLOT

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Governor Sulzer had not definitely decided today whether to seek vindication at the polls this fall. He said he was considering two offers—one of the progressive nomination to congress; the other the same party's nomination to the assembly. Sulzer will leave the executive mansion tomorrow, escorted to the railroad station by a brass band. He said he might change his mind, however, about going to the Adirondacks. He will attend a banquet in his honor tonight, at which he will receive a loving cup inscribed: "To William Sulzer, victim of corrupt bossism," and make his first speech since his removal from the governorship.

BISHOPS POSTPONE ACTION ON DIVORCE AND ON SOCIALISM

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The houses of bishops and deputies at the Episcopal church convention adopted concurrent resolutions today authorizing an exhaustive study of Eugenics, socialism and divorce. Reports will be made on all three subjects at the St. Louis convention in 1916. By these the churches future attitude toward the three propositions will be largely determined. It was the most important step taken thus far since the convention opened. The Rev. E. L. Parsons of Berkeley, Cal., introduced a resolution in the house of deputies providing for a committee to report in 1916 concerning the advisability of having the presiding bishop elected instead of holding his position by right of seniority. The resolution was placed on the calendar immediately, which meant that it was practically tabled.

ADVERTISING MAN SHOT DOWN BY WRONGED WOMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 18.—J. D. Van Baalen, an advertising man, was shot and fatally wounded today by a woman who gave her name as Miss Leah Alexander. The shooting occurred in Van Baalen's office in the Chronicle building. It was witnessed by James Sanders, Carl M. Anderson and G. Bibbard, who called Traffic Policeman Levy from the street outside. Levy found Van Baalen lying in his office doorway and asked who shot him. "That woman in there," groaned Van Baalen. Levy entered and asked the woman if she had fired the shots. She admitted it promptly. Van Baalen was taken to the emergency hospital, dying, and the woman to police headquarters. She told Chief of Police White that Van Baalen took her to Cuba six months ago, promising to marry her, but afterward threw her off. She said she had called on him repeatedly and asked him to marry her and finally, losing her temper, drew a revolver and shot him.

MRS. PANKHURST ORDERED BACK AS UNDESIRABLE

Immigration Officials Refuse Admittance to Suffragette Leader Who at Once Threatens Hunger Strike, But Later Changes Her Mind.

Grills Examiners for Calling Her Efforts in Behalf of Women as "Moral Turpitude."

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Immigration officials at Ellis Island were thrown into a panic this afternoon when Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette leader, announced her intention to go on a hunger strike after she had been ordered deported as an undesirable. Then Mrs. Pankhurst changed her mind and the officials breathed easier.

Responding to a telephone message to Washington, immigration officials told Attorney Reeves, representing Mrs. Pankhurst, that the suffragette leader would be released tomorrow on bonds. Mrs. Pankhurst smiled when she received the news and said she would like something to eat. Then she disposed of a slice of roast beef and "trimmings."

Grills Inquiry Board After the inquiry board had finished interrogating Mrs. Pankhurst she turned on its members.

"If what I have done in my fight for English women is called moral turpitude," she shouted, "then your revolutionary warriors and the men who spilled the tea in Boston harbor were guilty of the same crime." Then she launched into a denunciation of the methods employed by the board. "All right," she shouted, "if you can stand it I can. But I warn you here and now that I shall not eat a morsel while I am detained here." Ten minutes later Mrs. Pankhurst changed her mind, greatly to the relief of the board members.

Alleges Prejudice Mrs. Pankhurst added that she thought her case was prejudiced. "My examiners had a list of type-written questions ready to read to me," she explained, in support of this opinion. "I protested that the United States did not exclude Parnell, O'Connell, Redmond and other Irishmen who came here to ask contributions in a cause which the present ruling class in England opposes, and that is all I am doing. But the board paid no attention."

The board of inquiry consisted of L. C. Steward, A. F. Shell and S. A. Finner. The proceedings were secret. Mrs. Pankhurst was not represented by an attorney.
