A Surprise for Aunt Maggie

KLAMATH STOPS ALL ROAD WORK

KLAMATH FALLS, Oct. 18.—No more work will be done on county roads this season, and possibly no more work will be done next year unless the proposed bond issue is passed by the people.

The reason ascribed is that the money available in the road fund of the county is nearly exhausted and that work must be stopped until more money becomes available.

That the action of those who would repudiate the county's indebtedness has caused yesterday's action on the part of the county court is evident.

COUGHLAN ORCHARD AT EAGLE POINT SOLD

W. A. Landlaw of Portland has purchased the Eagle Point orchard of Dr. Coughlan, adjoining the Tronson orchard.

PHOENIX

Mrs. Leonard of Medford was the guest of Mrs. C. C. Scott and Miss Hopper of North Phoenix on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graffis of North Phoenix left Thursday morning to spend a few days at Klamath.

Hiram Woodford of Meriin and Mrs. Edith Rhodes of Grants Pass were recently united in marriage and will make their home in Meriin.

Mrs. A. M. Rhodes is visiting relatives and friends at Selma, Or.

Charles Sherman, who used to live on the desert just northeast of town and has been in Mexico for some time, returned to our town last Monday, the 13th.

Mrs. Henry Childreth, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Trant, on Elk creek, returned home on the 13th.

Asel Hubbard, one of Medford's prominent business men, was out last Tuesday interviewing our business men.

I am glad to be able to announce that Miss Elsie Greb, who was operated on for adenoids and her tonsils in Medford, has fully recovered.

George Wolfer and wife, who have been here visiting their son and family, returned to their home in Hubbard, Or., last Thursday.

Henry French and wife were doing business in our town last week. Henry has been engaged hauling wood for quite a number of families here.

J. F. Dilsworth of Prospect stopped with us Wednesday night on his way to Central Point.

John Greb and wife were interviewing our business men during the week. He reports that he has raised a fine crop of corn this season between his fruit trees. He is one of our best farmers.

Grant Aldler of Medford, who owns what is known as the Ryan farm, west of town, has been engaged husking corn.

Jerry Bishop of Phoenix and a stranger, who was with him, stopped here for dinner Thursday on their way up to the old Edsall place, near Rutte Falls.

J. H. Cooley, one of Medford's lumber merchants, was at the Sany-side Thursday eve for supper.

Thursday evening the Eagle Point school gave a box social in the school building. There was a very good attendance and the young and old combined in making it a very pleasant and profitable time.

The receipts of the evening for boxes was $41.15, besides $2 contributed the next morning. The proceeds is to be spent to purchase playthings for the benefit of the children on the play grounds.

We have a live set of teachers this term and they know how to make school attractive to the children. If there is anything left after buying the fixtures for the playgrounds the money will be applied toward purchasing an organ for the upper room.

Mr. Dozier, one of the old engineers on the P. & E., has charge of the engine while Mr. Clay Cole is taking a lay-off.

A. J. Flores, our accommodating postmaster, is having his dwelling house wired for electric lights.

James Trusty, a brother-in-law of Henry Childreth, has been visiting his relatives on Elk creek and in Eagle Point.

Miss Maud Newbury and Miss Schol Fish visited Mrs. J. Rader a few days this week.

Lester Van Dyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Van Dyke left Wednesday on an extended stay in Imperial valley, California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graffis of North Phoenix left Thursday morning to spend a few days at Klamath.

Hiram Woodford of Meriin and Mrs. Edith Rhodes of Grants Pass were recently united in marriage and will make their home in Meriin.

A. M. Rhodes of West Phoenix, is well known in this vicinity.

Mrs. A. M. Rhodes is visiting relatives and friends at Selma, Or.

Myron J. Norris is erecting a handsome two-story house on his ranch in West Phoenix.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. N. P. Cope next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Van Dyke entertained thirty-five of their friends at their home in North Phoenix Tuesday evening in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

Their immediate family now consists of three sons, three daughters, one daughter by marriage and one grandchild, all of whom were present at the celebration.

They were generously remembered by their friends with beautiful gifts in silver. A beautiful repast was served near midnight and the company departed in the early hours of the morning, wishing their host and hostess many happy returns of their wedding day.

FAMOUS "MUTT" AND "JEFF" SCARF PINS FREE

Tobacco Dealers Supplying Smokers With This Pleasing Novelty

In connection with the sale of Omar Cigarettes in this city, local dealers are giving free, for a few days, to each purchaser of a single package of Omar, a gold-plated "Mutt" and "Jeff" scarf pin.

The gift of these scarf pins through local dealers is made to ensure a wide trial of Omar Cigarettes, because of the belief on the part of the manufacturers that smokers generally will like and continue using this brand.
