

Polly and Her Pals

Biting Sarcasm That Doesn't Bite

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Eva Craven Wheeler, who is canvassing the state under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., favored us with an eloquent recital. She had a very good audience and kept them sometimes in a roar of laughter and sometimes in tears. If it were not for fear that I might perhaps "let the cat out of the wallet" I would try to tell something of what she said but she will have to be heard to be properly appreciated. Her lecture on "Father," was one of the best ever delivered in our town. After the lecture she asked for a contribution to help pay her expenses on the cars and stage coach, and then gave us a lesson on "How to raise a baby scientifically," or according to the book and that which have made Old Judge Sobersides laugh. The collection amounted to ten dollars and thirty-seven cents. If she comes back again she will surely have an overflowing house.

Who's stole my slippers, dawgone it! Who's stole my slippers? Wal' 'll be blowed! In case you wanna borrow anything else of mine, I s'pose you know where to find it! Oh yas, I been lookin' the place over I have. Whaddye think of the new nephew, Maggie? Oh he's kinda hoodish, but he's got a adorab' chin! Yas, ah! 'Thev's nuttin' the matter with his 'cheek' either!

ceived a check for $71.00 from Glass brothers Monday for labor during the threshing season. Pretty good for a boy. There ought not be a vote in Jackson county against the Ashland normal school or the university appropriation. Civilization and progress demands better schools. Lets not be found wanting. How those tightwads must have winced when they reflected that they have demanded a discount on county warrants and capitalists bidding a premium for road bonds. Please pass the smelling salts. Our splendid little store has begun business and will add stock as fast as possible. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers have the confidence and respect of the entire country roundabout and ought to do splendidly in their new undertaking. Let's boost for Beagle.
