

SMUGGLER CAUGHT THROUGH MAKING LOVE TO SEVERAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—If George Poole, alias Moore, and several other names had not been so susceptible to feminine beauty, federal officials here say they would probably not be getting ready to try him on the charge that he has superintended practically all the opium smuggling that has been going on up and down the Pacific coast and across the Canadian and Mexican borders, for some time past.

The authorities do not contend that Poole did all the actual smuggling, but they maintain that he was the head of a syndicate with branches in China, Mexico, Canada and many important American cities. They add that he made a fortune out of the business and that many of his alleged assistants did not do badly at it from a financial standpoint. The authorities expect to show that the syndicate included Thomas Murphy, alias Andrews, Charles Taylor, Chung Chow, a Chinese, and nine local customs inspectors, all under arrest, and a man known as Charles Benton, for whom they are still looking.

Poole, who professed to be a Mexican revolutionary agent, came here a year ago. He became acquainted with Miss Agnes Bernier, a pretty brunette, and was very attentive to her until he met Miss Maude Fay, after which he divided his attention for a time between the two women. Later he practically dropped their acquaintance for that of Miss Louise Lorraine, a singer. This annoyed Miss Bernier so much that when federal agents, who were trying to learn more of Poole, asked her concerning him she was quite willing to tell all that she knew. She had no knowledge of the offenses he was alleged to have committed, but she furnished such clues that the agents found out for themselves—or thought they did—what they wanted to learn.

When the time came to make an arrest, however, Poole turned up missing. In this dilemma the agents bethought themselves of watching Miss Lorraine's mail and soon intercepted a letter from Poole, written in Los Angeles, but stating that the writer would soon be in El Paso. In El Paso the agents kept a sharp lookout and in due season arrested Poole, attempting to cross the river into Mexico.

DIVER SEEKS BODY OF DROWNED YOUTH

GRANTS PASS, Oct. 22.—The search for the body of 11-year-old Harold Schilling, drowned in Rogue river near Grants Pass Monday has revealed no trace of the boy's body. Grapples and drags were used all Monday afternoon and Tuesday, and numerous charges of dynamite were exploded in the hope that the body might be dislodged from its resting place among the rocks at the river's bottom.

Peter Jensen, expert diver, is searching for the body today. Mr. Jensen is used to the waters of the Rogue, having been the diver employed at the time of the construction of the Golden Drift dam, and he believes that he will be successful in his search. The water where the body is supposed to rest is from 15 to 25 feet in depth, and the bottom is of boulders and ragged rocks, under which it is thought probable that the body has lodged. There are strong cross currents, making it impossible for a diver without a suit and weighted down to operate, though the two elder brothers of the drowned boy made many attempts Monday to reach the bottom by diving.

JOHNSON EAST TO AID BULL MOOSE

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California arrived here today en route to Massachusetts to campaign for Charles Bird, the progressive candidate for governor.

"The progressive party," said Governor Johnson, "is here to stay. The republicans and progressives can get together when the republicans adopt our platform, and not before." Johnson refused to comment on the Sulzer case, but said he thought President Wilson did right in admitting Mrs. Pankhurst to this country, although he added that he did not admire her type of suffragette.

TWO GREAT BILLIARD PLAYERS WHO WILL PLAY SEVERAL GAMES.

BENNIE ALLEN

"Bennie" Allen, of Kansas City, and Alfred De Oro, the Eastern crack, are two of the best pocket billiard players in the country. Already several match games have been arranged for these two stars.

RITCHIE TO RAISE LIGHTWEIGHT LIMIT

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Strong probability of a match between Willie Ritchie, the lightweight champion, and Packer McFarland of Chicago, was seen here today by New York fight fans, following Ritchie's announcement that he does not consider 133 pounds ringside the lightweight limit. The champion declared he believed he had the right to raise the weight to 145 pounds.

There is no rule under which championship fights are held fixing the limit at 133 pounds ringside," Ritchie said today. "I think 135 pounds ringside or an hour before the fight would be a fair weight. "Battling Nelson made Joe Gans do 133 pounds. Joe made the weight but it left him a physical wreck. Wolgast also made me make that weight."

Friends of McFarland believe he can do 135 pounds one hour before a fight and it was believed certain that the stock yards marvel and the champion would be seen in a New York ring.

INTEREST INCREASING IN REVIVAL MEETING

The interest in the Christian revival increases from night to night. Last night Mr. Putman spoke on "A Friend to Christ," and promised a companion sermon for tonight on "A Brother to Christ." The speaker puts things in a new and interesting way, and with the chorus singing and solos there is not a moment's pause in the service from beginning to close, and before you realize it the benediction is pronounced and the meeting is over.

HENRY MILLER, NOTED STAR, WILL PLAY HERE OCTOBER 31

Henry Miller has started his tour of the west and the Pacific coast and booked at the Page theatre for October 31. That he will bring the New York cast and production of "The Rainbow" is a matter of congratulation for much has been heard here of the brilliant comedy which is said to be far the best vehicle this distinguished player has ever had. Its long run in New York at the Liberty followed by extended engagements in Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia, kept it from the road for two seasons and has given it increased interest.

Mr. Miller's coast tour starting at Minneapolis, will cover Winnipeg, Butte, Spokane, Seattle, Victoria, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Denver and only a half dozen single night engagements between. In the cast will be Ruth Chatterton, whose creation of the role of the daughter was one of the features in New York run, Louise Closser Hale, Marjorie Hope, Alice Baxter, Charles Hammond, Robert Stowe Gill, Conway Wingfield, Daniel Pennell and others.

WILSON SIGNS DEFICIENCY BILL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—President Wilson signed the urgent deficiency appropriation bill today. The measure contains provisions for abolishing the commerce court and removing from the civil service more than 1999 deputy revenue collectors, and also appropriates funds for the Panama canal and other government enterprises.

"BETTE RBABES" A FEATURE AT STAR THEATRE TODAY

The management of the Star theatre offers for today only "Better Babies," one of the best and most instructive pictures ever made, depicting the eugenic movement.

Oregon is known all over the United States for the advance stands it has taken along advance lines, and nothing we have done toward the development of Oregon, goes so far along this line as the eugenic work.

This picture represents the average father and mother who have possibly given small thought to the pre-natal influence of the child, to the raising of it, and their attention has been called to it, and they visit the educational bureau in which eugenics is taught in the city hall at Portland and there are shown the method of treating the baby, giving the bath, the modification of the milk, treating the milk, all done by professional people. This picture shows the rooms of the bureau. By the way, it is the only bureau of its kind in the United States, and when the national commissioner of education for the United States was in Portland he commented on the fact there should be such a bureau, and was much surprised to find we had such a bureau, and he is going to establish them all over the United States.

Manager Burkhardt has arranged for a showing of this film at 11 o'clock this morning for the special benefit of Medford's doctors. Also any nurses who were overlooked in the special invitation, are cordially invited to be present.

This picture will be shown today only, but will be run as many times as necessary so all may see it.

BURNS HELD FOR YOUTH'S MURDER

The coroner's inquest into the death of Jeff Coldson, a tramp beggar at Talent Sunday morning, returned a verdict late Tuesday afternoon that he came to his death by a gunshot wound inflicted from the hands of R. C. Burns, an unknown accomplice. Burns will be given the quickest trial on record in Jackson county, his case being called to the attention of the grand jury this week, and his trial set for the present term of court.

A dozen or so witnesses were called, and liquor played an important part in the killing. Many testified Burns and Coldson were intoxicated. The brutality of Burns in keeping back the story of the dying youth in the hospital, and his threat to shoot again if the victim screamed was told. He was positively identified.

REES BETS HE CAN WHIP ANDERSON

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 22.—Rees, the Los Angeles lightweight, was so certain today of his ability to defeat Bud Anderson of Medford in their ten round bout here next Wednesday that he offered to bet $500 on himself at ringside odds. The southern boxer has been fighting in fine form of late, has trained faithfully for this contest, and many of the short end players will string with him.

Anderson is training for the bout at San Rafael. Reports from his camp today were that the Medford lad appeared strong and rugged.

You can bake bread that is delicious—that is temptingly light and white. Bread that is wholesome—and always good.

The success of your baking depends upon the flour you use. The best baking success comes to those who use a flour that never fails to "make good."

Drifted Snow Flour

has always satisfied—it always will because we make hourly tests in our laboratory to insure a uniform goodness. "Drifted Snow" means better bread—better biscuits and better pastry. It is the "all purpose" flour.

If any sack of "Drifted Snow" fails to satisfy, you will be charged nothing for what you have used and your grocer will pay you back the full price of the flour.

We couldn't make such a guarantee if the flour was not perfect.

Call on your grocer for Drifted Snow Flour and try it for your next baking.

TEACHERS FAVOR RE-ESTABLISHMENT ASHLAND NORMAL

Jackson and Josephine county teachers attending the institute at Grants Pass have gone on record as favoring the re-establishment of the Ashland normal in the following resolutions:

"Whereas, the Josephine and Jackson County Teachers' Institute has annually declared in most unmistakable tones for the re-opening of the Southern Oregon state normal school; and

"Whereas, the legislature has by practically a unanimous vote recommended to the people at the coming election in November, 1914, millage bill whereby the appropriation is taken out of the legislature, and therefore out of politics;

"Be it resolved, that the Josephine and Jackson County Teachers' Institute give said bill its hearty support until the measure is finally adopted into law, and that a special committee of five be appointed to draft a suitable address getting forth to the citizens of Oregon why said measure should be carried."

The following resolution was also adopted and wired to Portland to the Congress of Mothers in session there:

"Be it hereby resolved by the teachers of Josephine and Jackson counties, in institute assembled at Grants Pass, that we extend greetings to the Congress of Mothers assembled in Portland. Be it further resolved, that we recognize in the work of these women a great benefit to humanity to which we lend our endorsement and support. Be it further resolved, that we ask their support of the measure now pending before the people of Oregon providing for the state's support of the Southern Oregon normal school."

State Senator Lester Dead WARRENTON, Ore., Oct. 22.—State Senator Charles F. Lester is dead today at the age of 51.

You will enjoy the whiteness and lightness of bread made with

Cottolene

Although less Cottolene is needed than either butter or lard, yet Cottolene is so much richer that foods shortened with it are always exceptionally tender.

It makes all foods more digestible; Cottolene is more wholesome, more easily assimilated by the human system.

Bake bread as you always do, using a third less Cottolene than other shortenings, and add a pinch more of salt. You will be glad the day you began using Cottolene.

Gets Right Twist On Rheumatism

Makes Short Work of Cleaning Out Your Entire System—Aches and Pains Go Fast.

In S. S. S. You Get a Twist on Rheumatism That Settles It.

Many a rheumatic sufferer has been to the drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and been handed something claimed to be "Just as good." Truly, to ask for bread and be given a stone is still in practice. If you are troubled with rheumatism in any form be sure to use S. S. S. and note its wonderful influence.

S. S. S. has the peculiar action of soaking through the integument directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every auxiliary becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of its impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work the one end of expelling out every irritating, every poisonous atom of poison. It discharges by irrigation all accumulations in the joints, causes acid accretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and soothes those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such restraining and often baffling rheumatic pains. And best of all this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. If you have dragged yourself until your stomach is nearly paralyzed, you will be astonished to find that S. S. S. gives no sensation but goes right to work. This is because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and ask for S. S. S.

You may depend upon it that the store that sells you what you ask for is a good place to trade. Write to the Swift Specific Co., 204 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book on Rheumatism.
