

BURNS GIVES LAST CENT TO HELP BURY MAN HE KILLED

F. C. Burns, indicted Thursday by the grand jury for the murder of Jeff Coldson, a 19-year-old tramp beggar at Talent last Sunday has given his last dime, to keep the body of the man he is accused of slaying from a grave in the Potters' Field. It is a money order for $35. Prosecutor Kelly says it is the most striking instance of sincere benevolence that ever came under his notice. Burns was arraigned this morning and plead not guilty.

Burns at best faces a long prison term, and at worst the hangman's noose. A stone wall of evidence surrounds him, and the money that he gave to bury his vagrant friend represents a long denial of tobacco and other prison delicacies. When the county officials, showed signs of refusing to accept the money he offered he begged them to take it. "I'll always feel better if you do," he told them. It has developed that Burns, Coldson, and an unknown tramp had been drinking pure alcohol before the shooting.

INDICTED ONES ENTER NOT GUILTY PLEAS IN COURT

Earl Potter, the Ashland youth accused of accomplishing the ruin of his own sister, was indicted by the grand jury Thursday, and when arraigned this morning entered a plea of not guilty. The case when brought before the jury is expected to provide sensational features, with a number of witnesses from Ashland to be called. The sister recently returned from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Owin Kneutzen of the Steamboat district, indicted for assault with attempt to commit mayhem, entered a plea of not guilty. Mrs. Kneutzen is accused of breaking the arm of Mrs. Blivens during a quarrel over an irrigation ditch.

Virgil Odin, indicted Thursday for incest; C. E. Land, for assault with a deadly weapon, and C. M. Patterson for larceny by bailer, were arraigned this morning, but were given until tomorrow to decide upon their plea.

Musical Act Makes Hit

The best act ever at the Star theater was the verdict of the packed house that greeted Doolittle and Steele at their opening last night. The act is indeed a novelty and entirely different from the average vaudeville act. They play any number of instruments and close with an electrical number that is a winner. They are on the program for tonight and tomorrow only.

The photoplays for today are very good featuring a two reeler entitled "The Wall of Money," an elaborate feature production. The other numbers are the ever popular Animated Weekly and a very clever and laughable comedy.

A Fake Hobo Church

COTTOLENE
CONTAINS NO HOG FAT
USE 1/3 LESS

Here is what Marion Harland said in 1906 about Cottolene

"Many years ago, I discontinued the use of lard in my kitchen and substituted for it, as an experiment, Cottolene, then comparatively a new product. Since my first trial of it I can truly say that it has given complete satisfaction. I honestly believe it to be the very best thing of its kind ever offered to the American housekeeper."

MARION HARLAND.

Cottolene makes biscuits that are tender when they are cold—that is a sure test of a good shortening. Try it yourself. Make the biscuits like this:
