

BYBEE BRIDGE TO BE COMPLETED BY NOVEMBER 5

Superintendent E. E. Dyer of the construction force at the Bybee bridge states the bridge will be completed by Nov. 5. In a letter to County Judge Tou Vello, he says:

"I have been up against a hard proposition on account of the shape the job was in when I was called back to take charge and also the shape the steel was in. I have worked every available man possible on the job and since the first of the month I have been working two shifts (10 hours each) on riveting. At present I have 14 men at work and as fast as possible I have been adding to the force.

Riveting on the 200 foot span will be finished tomorrow night. The entire job will be finished as far as riveting on or before next Tuesday. Lower work on 200 foot span, painted two coats and partly decked.

"We will commence tearing out false work Sunday. This will release the approach timber which were tied up and will be able to commence on the wooden approach next Monday. We will have the bridge finished on or before the 5th of Nov."

ESCAPED CONVICTS LOCATED ON FARM

FOLSOM PRISON, Cal., Oct. 25.—Information received at the state prison today indicated that Norman C. Hair, 17, Wm. E. Roder, burglar, and Thomas Samuels, also a burglar, convicts who made a bold break for liberty late yesterday afternoon, are in hiding near Miller's ranch, near Rattlesnake bar.

Poses were immediately despatched to the scene by Warden Ohnston who returned to the prison to take personal charge of the manhunt.

"We don't anticipate any trouble in capturing the men," said Ohnston, "as we don't believe they will show fight."

DICK DONALD SAYS REESE WILL BE EASY

In a letter to friends in this city, Manager Dick Donald writes that Bud Anderson will dispose of Louie Reese in short order when they meet at Oakland next Wednesday. Dick is trying to hook up with a match with Avevedo the second week in November, and is keeping the wires hot trying to arrange a go with Harlem Tommy Murphy for the middle of December.

Bud is surrounded with a number of good trainers, among them "Bubbles" Robinson, a colored kid, and is working out in fine shape. Large crowds come out daily to see him at work, among them a number of old Medfordites who live in Frisco.

AGED PEDESTRIAN PASSES THROUGH CITY

Dan O'Leary of Portland reached Medford at noon today on a hike to San Francisco, 36 hours ahead of schedule. O'Leary is 70 years old, and ranks next to Weston, as one of the world's great walkers. In his youth he engaged in a contest with Weston, that brought that pedestrian his start to fame.

O'Leary left Portland last Sunday, and expects to reach San Francisco November 6. He will rest in this city tomorrow, leaving bright and early Monday. O'Leary is grey and wrinkled, yet is as lively as a high school boy. He has newspaper clippings galore telling of his walks.

FINAL NOTICE FOR DELINQUENT ASSESSMENT

The city council at a special meeting Friday decided to give all owners of property upon which delinquent paving and sewer assessments rests final notice that the law would be enforced unless payment was made. The law enables the confiscation of the property. A peculiar feature of the delinquent list is that a large percentage of those who have refused to pay are considered financially well off. In a number of instances they signed petitions for the improvements that they now balk at paying their proportionate share.

Henry Miller in "The Rainbow"

HENRY MILLER IN GREATEST PLAY "THE RAINBOW"

The big seating capacity of the Liberty Theater in New York proved inadequate for the accommodation of the record-breaking audiences attracted by Henry Miller's big hit, "The Rainbow," which enjoyed a run that continued nearly six months. Mr. Miller has produced a great many brilliant successes, but no play in which he has appeared since he became a star has ever struck the big note of popular appeal that is sounded in "The Rainbow."

The Thomas play is certain to be Henry Miller's starring vehicle for three years or more. He will be seen at the Page Friday, Oct. 31.

The one secret of "The Rainbow's" extraordinary success, undoubtedly lies in the singular charm and beauty woven into the scenes of the play in which the father and his little girl are the chief characters. The hearts of an audience are deeply guarded his little maid against the influence of the people who had seen his closest friends before the sunny morning of May, when his unknown daughter walked into his bachelor apartments and brought a big wholesome interest into his lonely life. These beautifully written and exquisitely played scenes tug at the heartstrings of auditors and bring men and women back to the theater a second, third and fourth time to see the story of "The Rainbow" unfolded by Mr. Miller and his superb supporting company.

GRANTS PASS COUPLE BEFORE GRAND JURY

Herman Eggers and Mrs. William Stock, both of Grants Pass, will appear before the grand jury next week to answer charges of alleged immorality. It is alleged the pair have been cohabiting in this city as man and wife. The woman is the mother of seven children and the testimony is said to show depravity. Both were before Prosecuting Kelly Friday, their stories not jibing in important details.

LIGHT TRADING SALES ON STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Unusually light trading prevailed in the stock market today. Steel dropped 1/2 on the first few transactions, after opening up unchanged. Pennsylvania dropped a point, and practically all of the active issues were fractionally lower.

Later National Biscuit rose 1/4, but trading remained light throughout the half day session. Bonds were irregular. The market closed steady.
