"HIGH COST OF LIVING" IS A MISNOMER WHEN APPLIED TO TOBACCO

Mascot a Great Factor in Keeping Down the Cost of Tobacco Smoking

In reference to tobacco, the "high cost of living" problem, which is at present occupying the minds of the American public, finds no foothold—especially since the advent of Mascot tobacco. As an instance, the manufacturers of Mascot claim that in selling it for 5c they are giving to the smoking public just as much in quantity and quality as is provided by the famous 10c Burley tobaccos.

In addition to this, they argue that their method of packing Mascot in moisture proof pouches is an ideal method, both in point of convenience and ability to retain the original freshness of the tobacco. To quote them: "Mascot is really a 10c proposition at a 5c expenditure."

To support these arguments, and to induce the smokers of this city to find out for themselves that their claims are justified, the makers of Mascot have arranged with local dealers to give free, for a few days only, a handsome "Mascot Dog" scarf pin to each purchaser of a 5c pouch of Mascot.

These scarf pins are sure to be in great demand.

Popular Vaudeville Again at Page. Next Wednesday evening, vaudeville will be on the boards again at the Page and the only change made is that the bill is selected from the three leading vaudeville circuits running in Portland, the Orpheum, Pantages and Sullivan-Considine are represented on the bill, and every act carefully selected by Manager Gordon.

There are five good acts on the bill including the big headliners in Portland last week, namely, the Clayton and Drew players, representing the laughing hit of the season, "Othello Outdone." There are five people in this company, and carry their own special stage setting and effects. Dave Gardner singing his own songs. Mr. Gardner writes his own songs. "Some One Was Made for Some One," "The Mormon Truce," and "Almighty Dollar," three of the most popular songs that have been produced during the last year. They are copyrighted by him but no published until he has sang them over the entire Orpheum circuit. Sanctuaries, the wizard of the accordion, is another good act, his playing is little short of marvelous.

The Lowes perform wonderful feats with the harlot.

O'Brien and Lear in characterization. They made a big hit in Portland last week at the Epurens. The Pagescope will show a splendid one reel comedy picture. The theater will be well heated and ventilated and a good show guaranteed.

TWO INDICTMENTS BY GRAND JURY

Two indictments were returned by the new grand jury impaneled this morning, to complete unfinished probing left by the Inquisitorial body that adjourned Friday.

Herman Eggers and Mrs. William Stock, both of Grants Pass, alleged to have lived in this city in unlawful cohabitation, were indicted upon an immorality charge. Mrs. Stock is the mother of seven children.

The new jury also corrected a slight error in the true bill returned last Friday against A. G. Fuller of Grants Pass charged with a statutory offense. The date was left off the old indictment, and this was rectified.

The new grand jury is composed as follows: Henry L. Gregory, Central Point, foreman; Martin Perry, Ashland; Raymond Phillips, Buncum; Fred Luy, Wellen; Chris Keegan, Jacksonville; R. B. Wilson, Griffin creek; and Ross Kline of Medford.

WORLD'S TOUR GAMES BASEBALL CLASSICS

The result of the games between the White Sox and the Giants on their present tour makes us wonder why people paid good railroad fare to New York and then gave to ticket speculators any price they asked for admission to the Polo grounds. The article of baseball these globe-circling tourists are bringing right to your very door is every bit as classic as we saw during the recent world's series. If anything, the Giants are stronger by some per cent in adding Lobert, Doolan and McGee to their team. The present lineup would have given the Athletics a far stiffer tussle for the honors than the bunch McGraw commanded in the late National league disaster.
