MANY FOOTBALL GAMES SATURDAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Football games scheduled for tomorrow throughout the east were not expected to affect the championship, but fans are not taking chances. Two of Harvard's regular players will be out of tomorrow's game with Cornell on account of injuries. They are Hitchcock and Mahan. Cornell was not expected to make a very strong showing against the crimson, and it was not believed the two regulars would be missed. The practice of the Harvard squad today was confined to twenty minutes easy scrimmaging, the coaches giving the men a letup on account of the large number of minor injuries. The Yale team engaged in its final scrimmage practice yesterday. The regulars put up an aggressive game, scoring five touchdowns on the scrubs. Dartmouth and Amherst also meet tomorrow. The Dartmouth eleven, which recently defeated Princeton 6 to 0, was in fine shape today and was a big favorite over Amherst. Princeton will meet Holy Cross, and the Tiger coaches were confident of victory.

M'NAIR LECTED AS ASHLAND COUNCILMAN

At the adjourned meeting of the city council held Tuesday evening, W. H. McNair was elected councilman to succeed E. C. Sherman, whose resignation was accepted at the time he left the city some weeks ago. The council transacted little other business, though they decided practically upon the tax levy for the coming year. This, however, has to be acted upon through an ordinance and is subject to possible change at the next regular meeting. The new traffic ordinance was considered somewhat and will probably be brought up at the next regular meeting.—Tidings.

FINDS BARN OWL EATING FRESHLY KILLED PIGEON

Grant Burroughs at the McAndrew farm owned Thursday morning. As he opened the door he was startled by something coming toward him, attracted, no doubt, by a lantern. He soon saw that it was a bird, and picking up a stable rooster killed the owl, which had evidently been in search of a breakfast, as a pigeon was found freshly killed. The taxidermist pronounced it a barn owl and says it is only the fourth one of the species he has seen in this region.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS. By A. C. Howlett.

County Commissioner Con Leaver was out the past week looking after the work on the county road. Howard Boudon of Butte Falls was with us the last of the week. Wm. Newstrom of Lake creek was with us one day last week, trying to dispose of some of his produce. Miss Mamie Sears of Butte Falls was a guest at the Sunny Side a few days ago. I omitted to state in my last that our three teachers in our school, Professor Buchanan, Miss Mabel Huff and Miss Ethel Sillinger, all attended the teachers' institute at Grants Pass and report having had a very interesting time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dunham of Klamath Falls have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Clay Cole. Mr. Cole is the engineer on the P. & E. railroad and a resident of Eagle Point.

J. N. Soudelback of Newport, Ore., is here. He is a friend of W. I. Mapes.

Charles E. Lange, a blight expert, is out in this section cleaning up some of the orchards. F. W. Shapleigh and father-in-law Mr. W. B. Watson of Medford, were out here for dinner and supper Sunday and when Mr. Shapleigh registered he wrote F. W. Shapleigh and family. I noticed that there were two ladies and a little child with them and when they returned, I— you know that I am always asking questions—asked him which one of the ladies was his wife and he then told me that one of them was his cashier in his hardware store in Medford and that the other was a neighbor, that his wife and mother-in-law were in Portland.

Mrs. J. B. Jackson returned from Yakima, Wash., where she has been for the past two months and she and her son, Frank, daughter, Miss Gertrude, and Mr. Jerome Belting all took dinner at the Sunny Side Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knighton and wife, also took dinner here.

John Pelton and wife of Roseburg came in the first of the week from Fort Klamath and spent a few hours at the Sunny Side on their way to Ashland to visit Mrs. Pelton's mother, intending to motor to Roseburg the next day. Since my last Mr. Cameron of Derby, Mrs. Spicer, the teacher of Persist and C. E. Johnson, teacher of Laurel Hill district, were guests with us.

Mrs. John Ashpole of Medford has been out visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ashpole and while here the two ladies spent the evening with Mrs. Howlett. Mr. Oatman, the boss apple sorter, and Thomas Vestal were here for dinner Sunday, they have got through apple picking on the Corbin orchard and the most of the men have gone to other places to work. Mr. Oatman reports that Mr. Corbin will ship 9000 boxes of apples this season.

Next Saturday is the day that we are to vote on the school tax question in Eagle Point district and it is important that every one who is interested in the subject of school tax turn out. And the following Tuesday, Nov. 4, we are to vote on the question whether we are to have a wet or dry town. Let everybody turn out and vote their sentiments.

Stopped Night Sweats and Banished Cough. If you are suffering with a continued cough, cold or Long Trouble which does not yield to any treatment, it might be of the greatest value to you to investigate what is known as E. J. Stewart's medicine for many similar sufferings. Many who have investigated and used it have voluntarily declared that it was the means of saving their lives. Read this case:— "Gentlemen: For four years I was troubled with a cough, which gradually became worse. I had night sweats and pains in my chest. I was losing my appetite and had become thin and weak. I could not attend to my household duties. A physician pronounced my disease Long Trouble. Not being satisfied, I was examined by the physicians of the Poly-clinic Hospital. They also confirmed my trouble, and I was ordered away for treatment. My nephew would not allow me to go until I had tried E. J. Stewart's Alternative. Before I had taken the medicine three weeks I had marked relief, slight sweats ceased, pain in the breast relieved, cough became loose and easy, fever left me, and I commenced getting well. My health became normal. I am in excellent health now, and have been for twelve months. (Signed) MARY WASSON, Care Ed. Green, 1722 S. 17th St., Phila. (Above advertisement used on request.) E. J. Stewart's Alternative has been proven by many years' use to be most efficacious for many Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Rhi-norrhoea, Croup and in expelling the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet, telling of recoveries, and write to E. J. Stewart Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

"The Lost Millionaire." Very seldom is there found a photoplay so enjoyable from beginning to end as "The Lost Millionaire," a two-part Vitagraph photo-drama which will be presented at the Isis Theatre Friday and Saturday, when it will be the feature of an always good program.

The millionaire Robert Redwin sends his agent Carter to purchase some coal lands in the south. Carter goes and looks over the ground, locates new mines and falls madly in love with Josephine Blake who owns the desirable property. He plans to get a large price from Redwin for the land, having secretly arranged before hand to marry Jo. However the plans are muddled up by an injury sustained by Redwin which temporarily deranges his mind and among other things he entirely forgets his identity. He wanders about the country until finally, penniless and in rags, he is rescued by Jo and her father and taken home with them. Redwin falls in love with Jo and proposes to her. She reciprocates the love and they plan to marry. Through his conversation with Jo, Redwin learns who he is, and in order to test Josephine's love he makes her wealthy by the purchase of her property while he himself feigns poverty. The test turns out satisfactorily and they go to New York to be married. Here Redwin explains his wealth to his wife and she becomes reconciled to new conditions.

"The Lost Millionaire" is a photoplay which holds the interest from beginning to end and is chock full of tense and dramatic incidents. It will repay all photo-play goers to see it.
