GIRL FROM MUMM'S COMING TO PAGE

At the Page on November 9 will be presented Sheehan & Beck's Parisian musical connection in three courses, "The Girl From Mumm's," which is conceded by press and public to be the cleverest musical comedy in years.

"The Girl From Mumm's" was written to entertain, both from a musical and a comedy standpoint. There is not a dull moment during the action of the play. The clever, witty dialogue, exuberantly funny situations and ludicrous climaxes are broken only by tuneful melodies, among which are "Captivating Cleo," "The Girl From Mumm's and Mine," "There's a Reason," "Teach Me," "On the Road to Philadelphia" and "Waltz of the Night," during which number the famous "doll-heart kiss" is introduced.

INDIGESTION, GAS OR SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Time It!—"Pape's Diapepsin" Makes Your Upset, Bloating Stomach Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.
