ing fine effect, and special arrangements are being made by the leader for this week. The preaching is practical and to the point. You are invited. Come.

PHOENIX

Mrs. J. E. Roberts attended the Rehabil convention at Eagle Point Thursday.

Mrs. Blackwood has been quite sick, but is improving.

Walter Staudiff lost a valuable horse Thursday morning. The animal was so badly cut by a barbed wire fence that it had to be shot.

Captain Catton has been very sick for the past week.

E. Broms and family recently arrived here from North Dakota on a visit to Mrs. Broms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ager. Mr. Broms is favorably impressed with the valley and may locate.

C. E. Call and family of Medford and Mrs. A. W. Walters of Crescent City were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hill the first of the week.

Mrs. Allen Roberts returned home last week from a three months' visit in her former home in Missouri.

Jay Schurman arrived here last week for a visit with his parents and sisters and will accompany them next week to their new home in California.

The entertainment given last Friday evening by the Parent-Teachers' association in the school auditorium was well attended.

Arthur S. Furry, chairman of the election board, made a trip to Jacksonville Wednesday.

The W. C. T. U. held a special meeting with Mrs. H. Schurman on Monday evening. The gathering took on the nature of a farewell, as Mrs. Schurman is soon to make her home in California.

Charles H. Chadwick of Chicago returned home this week after a short visit to his orchard ranch in North Phoenix.

Dr. J. K. Baillie was in Central Point Wednesday evening and Grants Pass Thursday evening, assisting in the installing of the Presbyterian ministers at the above places.

Captain Catton, a veteran of the Civil, Mexican and Indian wars and an early pioneer of Rogue River valley, died Thursday noon, November 6, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. E. Furry, at the advanced age of 87.

Captain Catton was born in Cayuga county, New York, January 27, 1826. He was united in marriage to Miss Sybil A. Freeman at Norwalk, O., on November 17, 1847. He served through the Civil war, where he received his captain's commission. He took part in many of the historic battles of the war. When the Mexican war broke out he served through that war. In 1857 he crossed the plains and served in the Indian wars. His life was filled with stirring events of which it would take a large book to record. From 1878 to 1881 he served as deputy sheriff in Jackson county. Captain Catton was a man of progressive ideas. During the equal suffrage campaign he wore a "Votes for Women" button and laughingly said that he would be mascot for the local organization. From the time of the Civil war he was a republican in politics. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. E. E. Furry of this place, with whom he spent his declining years and a son, Milo Catton, of Willapa, Wash.; also several grand and great grandchildren. His funeral will be held in Jacksonville, Saturday at 2:30 p. m. A service will be held at E. E. Furry's at 11:30 a. m.

NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that the town council of the town of Phoenix, Oregon, will receive sealed proposals for the purchase of its 1913 Water Bonds to the extent of $2,000.00 bearing 6 per cent interest, payable semi-annually at any time before 7:30 o'clock p. m. on the 10th day of November, 1913. Bids may be mailed or delivered to the town recorder of said town on or before said date and no bid will be considered for less than par and accrued interest and the council reserves the right to reject any and all bids. All bids must be accompanied by a certified check drawn upon some state or national bank of Jackson county, Oregon, for 5 per cent of the amount bid for said bonds.

COFFEE
Now that we have the new process of packing coffee in aroma-tight cans, grinding at home or at the store has lost its only excuse.

But customs die hard. Schilling's Best is properly, cleanly granulated; neither you nor the grocer can do it like that.
