

GIANTS WINNERS IN GAME PLAYED IN POURING RAIN

The thanks of the community are due to R. J. Brevard who put up the $1000 guarantee for the Giants-White Sox game, to Sidney Brown, who co-operated with him in the management of the game and to the many others who assisted in making the event a success. That their efforts were appreciated was shown by the good attendance despite a pouring rain. The receipts were approximately $1500, $1250 of which went to the players, the balance goes for advertising and expenses incurred.

The exhibition game as fast and as good as could be expected under the conditions. Five and a half innings were played in a cold drizzling rain, in which players were their coats and one of them an umbrella. Despite sloppy grounds and wet balls, the fielding was as classy as clock work. The Giants started off hitting the ball and when the deluge ended the game, the score was three to nothing in their favor.

Not all the players who have played in the previous games were present. Mathewson, the great and Chief Myers left at San Francisco, Walter Johnson in Texas. At Seattle, Hal Chase, Tris Speaker, Morris Rath, Ray Schalk, Jeff Tesreau and Snodgrass leave. But Medford fans saw nearly all of the diamond stars who originally comprised the two teams, including Thorpe, the amateur all-round athlete of the world, Comiskey the manager of the tour and owner of the White Sox, Mugsy McGraw, Snodgrass the star fielder, Jeff Tesreau, Tris Speaker, Sam Crawford, Hal Chase, James Callahan and Herman Schaefer, the comedian.

McGraw is the man who has piloted the New York Giants to five National League championships, while Snodgrass and Tesreau, not to forget Larry Doyle and Merkle, have been his lieutenants in much of the campaigning.

Tris Speaker is the famous slugging Boston outfielder, while Crawford has a similar distinction in Detroit.

Comiskey's personal party includes Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Comiskey, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Comiskey, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. William Farrell, Thomas E. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Mullen and Mrs. Hugh E. Keogh.

Don Rader, the Medford boy, appeared in a White Sox uniform and received a warm welcome from his home folks. He played with the Sox the first of season and is still a Sox recruit.

Willie pitched a fine game for the Giants, keeping the White Sox from smashing the sphere and fielding superbly. Benz for the Sox was freely hit in the first inning, and again in the fifth.

Following the game the players were served a turkey dinner at the Hotel Medford attended by two hundred fans. Judge Colvig acted as toastmaster and brief speeches were made by the toastmaster Manager Callahan of the White Sox, Herman Schaefer and J. C. Farrell. Holbrook Withington told his Chinese story. R. J. Brevard assured the players that no guarantee was too large for the pleasure enjoyed by seeing such players in action.

During the afternoon the wives of the players were entertained by a committee of Medford women including Mrs. Edgar Hafer, Mrs. Stanton Griffith, Mrs. W. V. B. Campbell, Miss Putnam, Mrs. Gale and Mrs. Simpson.

The ladies of the party included Mrs. C. A. Comiskey, Mrs. J. J. McGraw, Mrs. J. J. Callahan, Mrs. Hal Chase, Mrs. Reb Russell, Mrs. Larry Doyle, Mrs. Jim Thorpe, Mrs. Jeff Tesreau, Mrs. J. R. McAleer, Mrs. Louis Comiskey, Mrs. Joe Farrell, and Mrs. Jim Mullen.

The players departed for Portland on the evening train all expressing their pleasure at the entertainment they received which they pronounced the most cordial received on the trip.

SCENE FROM "STOP THIEF," THE SCREAMING FARCE TO BE SEEN AT THE PAGE TOMORROW EVENING

THE DAUGHTER OF THE KLEPTOMANIAC IN "STOP THIEF" PLEAD WITH THE SERGEANT FOR PERMISSION TO MAKE TEA

Concerning the farce, "Stop Thief," which appears at the Page tomorrow evening, the Seattle Post-Intelligencer says: "Stop Thief" is an incessant laugh. This latest Cohan & Harris farce, which opened to full benches at the Metropolitan last night, makes that clever "Officer 660" seem solemn by comparison. The whole audience last night should have been arrested for rioting. In twenty-three seasons of constant playacting in Seattle I have never before seen a theater crowd so consistently and continuously amused as was the assemblage of last night at "Stop Thief."

"This play should be taken for just what it is, an out-and-out, non-sensical farce. 'Officer 660,' which itself last season lifted the laughing trophy held for ten years by Rice & Wise in 'Are You a Mason?' is a more legitimate comedy; there is more body to it as a play, but it is not to be compared to 'Stop Thief' in the number or rapidity of laughs, which crackle through the audience like the staccato operation of the machine gun in 'The Round-Up.' The farce turns out screams just about as fast as a film camera man turns out pictures. 'Stop Thief' is indeed a motion picture of mirth."

The following was the score: The victory by the Giants put them one game ahead of the White Sox on the present world tour series.

WAREHOUSE LEASES NOT RENEWED

There have been rumors for some time that the leases on the warehouses along the right-of-way of the Southern Pacific between Main and Sixth street in Medford had been renewed and there was no hope of having these eyesores removed.

Mr. Rosenbaum, the genial Southern Pacific agent, introduced a committee from the civic section of the Greater Medford club to John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific and H. A. Hinshaw, general freight agent who came here to see the ball game. Mr. Hinshaw assured the committee that there was no truth in these rumors and that there have been no requisitions to have these leases renewed nor would they be renewed for any reason whatsoever. Any such requisitions would have to pass through Mr. Hinshaw's office and he assured the ladies of the civic section that no renewals will be made on these leases.

APPLE DAY IS GENERALLY OBSERVED THROUGHOUT STATE

PORTLAND, Nov. 18.—All over the union, the apple today is exalted as the "king of fruits." For this is "Apple Day," proclaimed officially by Governor Oswald West, and honored by the Oregon Development League and Chambers of Commerce and Commercial clubs throughout the land.

Almost every hotel in the state and all the larger hostleries of Washington and California have fallen in line with the idea originating in Portland. Besides, reports have been received from hotels in far distant states that they will serve apples in every form, in fritters as sauces for meats, as jellies in pies dumplings as elder in soups, and even the homely apple Jack solace of many a weary farm hand is to be dignified into an appetizing cocktail.

Portland's celebration took on a quiet but general form. The Northern Pacific sent forth a great motor truck fitted up like a dining car, from which colored waiters tossed thousands of apples to the populace. Several civic clubs held special apple luncheons at which the apple was served and lauded in song and story.

Every train that left Portland with a dining car attached carried with it dozens of boxes of apples which were served to diners in almost every conceivable way.

The "Apple Day" idea originated with the idea of stimulating the popularity of the fruit all over the nation, incidentally widening the market of the Pacific northwest.

EXPLORER STEFANSON SUPPOSED TO BE LOST

SEATTLE, Nov. 18.—Advices received by cablegram from members of the Canadian Arctic exploration party at Collision Point, Alaska, say Vilhjalmur Stefansson, famous Arctic explorer, probably has been lost with the steamship Karluk, which was last sighted on August 14 off Flaxman island. Search for the Karluk has been made since the extreme weather began along the Alaskan coast early in October, but no trace of her has been found. Whalers say it is extremely unlikely that she will ever be discovered.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Will taste better if prepared in "Wear-Ever" Utensils

"No! They are not all the same."
"Wear-Ever" Aluminum Utensils are different.

Of course, aluminum is aluminum; but utensils may differ in purity, in thickness, in handles, in finish.
Purity. "Wear-Ever" utensils are 99 per cent. pure.
Thickness. They are made thick enough to prevent denting readily; thick enough to guarantee a lifetime of satisfactory service.
Handles. The handles of "Wear-Ever" utensils are made of the best tinned steel. Aluminum handles would become too hot—wooden handles would burn off or break. The handles of "Wear-Ever" utensils are gripped to the utensils by aluminum rivets with large heads. The heads are not sunk into the side of the utensil—the side remains of uniform thickness, strong enough to hold the handle on firmly for years.
Finish. The outside is polished. The inside is hardened by an electrical process which makes the metal harder, smoother, less liable to be discolored by food or water containing alkali or iron, and more easily cleaned than would be possible if the utensils were not so finished.
