REBELS CAPTURE CITY OF VICTORIA

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Nov. 19.—That 5000 rebels under General Pablo Gonzales had crushingly defeated the federal force of 3000 who were defending Victoria, capital of Tamaulipas state, was confirmed today by official telegrams from Gonzales himself, received at Matamoros, across the border from here. Four rebel officers and forty men were killed, Gonzales stated. He estimated that 3000 federals were slain. According to unofficial reports, the rebels took no prisoners, but shot or cut down all the federals who fell into their hands. Those who succeeded in escaping from the town were hotly pursued by a rebel force under General Margua and General Villareal to the town of Tula, thirty miles to the northeast, where there was another fight and the federals were again completely routed.

Most of the day was devoted to filling the jury box. Former Judge William Oleott was retained today as Schmidt's counsel. At his request court adjourned until next Tuesday to allow more time to prepare his case. Oleott thinks that Schmidt is insane.

Cottage Grove will send a delegation of 12 from her Commercial club, Sutherland has promised 30 and 20 of the more prominent men and women of Roseburg (10 each) will visit every community in Douglas county, and the southern part of this state must be there in full force. Portland will send down a thoroughly strong delegation, going down Wednesday night, December 5th, and spending the entire day of Thursday in Roseburg. The idea of making an exhibit of the products of Oregon at Ashland grows upon everybody as they give it thoughtful consideration and there was even more enthusiasm about it at Eugene last night than at our convention at Grants Pass.
