MIRTH, MYSTERY AND MELODY AT THE ISIS THEATER

Mystery, Melody and Pictures lurk at the Isis this week. The pictures are always there but seldom does such irresolvable mystery visit a vaudeville theater.

That included in the present program which will be shown for the first time tonight is the work of the Pharo's, who are just over from Australia. Their act is a really a Black Art manifestation and the wonderful things that are done within full view of the audience are remarkable. Tables and vases are made to dance about, objects and even human beings are made to appear and disappear at will. Pharo was for a number of years a student of the occult in Egypt, but whether or not his ability to perform the things he does is the result of that study, he will not say.

Baby Pharo's sweet voice and charming manners might well be envied by many a grown-up performer of repute. She has established herself a warm favorite in Medford. In addition to the above four reels of high class pictures will be shown.
