MEXICAN OFFICER SHOT AT SUNRISE

GUA PRIETA, Sonora, Nov. 25.—All the familiar features of the Mexican execution of melodrama marked the end today of Lieut. Jose Castro of the Sonora state troops, who was convicted by court martial of the murder of Maximiano Montalvo.

Castro, while intoxicated, shot and killed Montalvo last Sunday. Last night the court martial convened and within ten minutes found him guilty, ordering that he be shot at sunrise today before the historic adobe wall of the Agua Prieta Cuartel, where scores of political and military prisoners have been executed during the present Mexican unrest.

Practically the entire population of Agua Prieta knelt in the plaza around the cuartel as Castro faced the firing squad. As a special mark of favor, the lieutenant was permitted to face his executioners and give the signal to fire. After he had smoked the traditional "last cigarette," Castro called a goodbye to the crowd and waved to the squad. He died instantly.

GENERAL ADVANCE IN STOCK PRICES

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A general advance in prices came with the opening of the stock market today. There was unusual activity among the speculative stocks, but the entire list showed a firm tone.

Amalgamated, Canadian Pacific and Mexican petroleum gained a full point, and Reading, Union Pacific, Lehigh and Steel rose almost as much. Almost as much business was done in the first hour as was recorded all day yesterday.

High-class railroad stocks enjoyed a pronounced rise, as did certain popular industrials, particularly steel. Later some of the active stocks showed advances of from 1 to 2 points.

Bonds were firm. The market closed active.
