

JACKSON COUNTY EXHIBIT AT LAND SHOW MAKES HIT

Oregon State Exhibit United States Land Show, Coliseum, Chicago, November 29th, 1913.

Medford Commercial Club, Medford, Oregon.

Gentlemen: The Jackson county apples loom up in fine shape in the Oregon exhibit at the Chicago Land Show. Just across the aisle we engaged a special space for Mr. Lowe to install his One Farm exhibit and incidentally are advertising the whole Rogue River valley.

Mr. Lowe is on the job early and late, from morning until night, only being away to deliver lectures. He even eats at the booth. Throngs of people stop in front of his booth. It would be hard for you to send any one who could do more for your section than a practical farmer like Mr. Lowe. His affability, willingness to give information, and his knowledge of farmers and their ways have been of invaluable help to the state.

Medford and Jackson county are liberally represented on both sides of the aisles as we have over twenty Jackson county tags like the enclosed in the main booth and about the same number from Ashland.

The cooperation given us by Medford has been invaluable toward the success of the Oregon state booth and we tremendously appreciate it.

Yours cordially,

C. C. CHAPMAN.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES.

A. Corbin, the owner of the old Bradshers orchard, in addition to his many improvements has put in a pumping plant on the bank of Little Butte creek to force the water up the hill a distance of about half a mile into two large tanks that will hold about 3,500 gallons each, and intends to take the water from there to irrigate his orchard, and when he gets the pumping system perfected will be able to show the orchardists how to raise fruit to perfection.

Harvey Stanley of Brownshoro was doing business in our town last week.

By some hook or crook we are not always favored with trains on time and on one occasion at least the train was until near 11 o'clock p. m. before it reached our depot, and the school children who go from here to school were quite late getting their supper.

Miss Mabel Bruell, who has been afflicted for some time past, has so far recovered as to be able to attend the dance Thanksgiving night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Peachey, who were recently married and went to Ashland to live, returned last week to spend a few days with the bride's parents and friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McKinney, also of Ashland, a brother-in-law of Mr. Peachey, came with them. Mrs. McKinney was partly raised here and taught in our school for some time. Her father also with us for two or three days at the same time. He is engaged selling Ward's medicines and extracts. He put in a part of his time visiting old time friends.

The protracted meeting is progressing finely and there seems to be considerable interest manifested. People who have not been in the habit of attending church services at all now come regularly and the leaders of the meeting seem to be greatly encouraged. Rev. Lindblad had to return to Ashland Sunday afternoon to fill an engagement but expects to hold services here every night this week. His sermon that he preached Saturday night on the origin and work of the devil, and the one he preached Sunday morning on the "Resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth," seemed to make considerable impression on the minds of those who have been skeptical on these subjects.

Miss Lorene Grigsby of Central Point and Thomas Abbot were in attendance at the Thanksgiving dance.

The W. C. T. U. met at the church Saturday afternoon and an announced, had a prayer and song service before the business meeting began. The regular business was taken up and disposed of, and when it came to the time for the formal admission of new members Mrs. Buchanan Frome was added to the list, and the question was raised why the pastor of the church was not enrolled on the list and the suggestion made that he join. He remarked that there was one difficulty in the way and that was he was minus the dollar, and just then the treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Grover, remarked that the Union owed Brother Simmons a dollar and made a motion to take him in and keep the dollar, which was carried unanimously and he was admitted as an honorary member of the Union.

After the business part of the meeting was through and I was about to start away, a lady requested me to remain, as "this is the secretary's birthday," and so I settled down and soon a plate with a sandwich and two pieces of cake and a cup of tea was handed to each one. After the feast was over Mrs. L. L. Simmons received some very nice little tokens of friendship and wishes that she may live to see and enjoy many more birthdays.

R. F. Fike, representative of the Warren Construction company, was in Medford the first of the week.

ASHLAND GIRLS' CASE TO BE TRIED AGAIN

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 3.—That a stenographer is not a fellow servant with an elevator operator employed in the same building by the same employer, is the opinion of a majority of the supreme court rendered today in the personal injury case of Mabel Putnam of Ashland against the Pacific Monthly company.

While going to work for the Pacific Monthly at its office in Portland, Mabel Putnam was injured while ascending in the elevator. She brought suit and obtained a favorable verdict allowing her damages. The company appealed to the supreme court and in a decision written by Justice Burnett the case was reversed, several points being raised, one of which was that the plaintiff was a fellow servant with the elevator operator.

The case was given a rehearing by the court, which today modified the former opinion but reversed and remanded the case to the lower court for a new trial. The opinion is written by Chief Justice McBride, while Justices Burnett and Moore dissent. The opinion holds that an employee injured while using the elevator on her way to work, and before the time when her hour to begin her labors has arrived, is not injured while in the employ of the defendant, and she is entitled to the same consideration as any other passengers using the elevator.

THREE ARE NAMED FOR REGISTRATION BOARD

The council last night appointed M. A. Rader, W. T. York and F. M. Jordan for the registration board for the city election January 13. The applicants for the place were Charles Gay, Ed Pottenger, Roger Bennett and H. M. Clark, besides those named.

COTTOLENE
CONTAINS NO HOG FAT
USE 1/3 LESS

Here is what Marion Harland said in 1906 about Cottolene

"Many years ago, I discontinued the use of lard in my kitchen and substituted for it, as an experiment, Cottolene, then comparatively a new product. Since my first trial of it I can truly say that it has given complete satisfaction. I honestly believe it to be the very best thing of its kind ever offered to the American housekeeper."

—MARION HARLAND.

Cottolene makes biscuits that are tender when they are cold—that is a sure test of a good shortening. Try it yourself. Make the biscuits like this:

Won't you follow the example of famous cooks and make Cottolene THE fat for all your cooking?

Order a pail from your grocer; also send to us for the valuable FREE Cook Book, HOME HELPS.

BAKING POWDER BISCUITS
2 cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons Cottolene, 3/4 cup milk. Sift flour, salt and baking powder together; rub in Cottolene; mix lightly and quickly; mixture should not be dry; roll out on board, cut into small biscuits, bake ten to fifteen minutes in hot oven. To make biscuits richer, mix with cream. Whole wheat, graham or rye biscuit may be made in the same way.—Edith L. Clift.

Coffee
Breakfast comes but once a day; will you spoil it to save a piece of a penny?
Spoil it how?
Poor coffee instead of fine.
Is that all the difference?
That's all. Schilling's Best, about 1c a cup; you can't trim that much, even with trash.
1 lb, 2 lb and 2 1/2 lb aromatics; cleanly granulated—moneyback.
