TERRANZA'S ARREST CAUSE OF TROUBLE

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 12.—The arrest by Mexican rebels in the British consulate at Chihuahua City of Luis Terranza, Jr., son of the Mexican multi-millionaire was thought likely here today to develop into a decidedly unpleasant diplomatic incident.

The vice-consul was said to be showing no disposition to let the affair drop, but, backed by the other foreign representatives in the city, was insisting on an explanation of the invasion of his premises. He also demanded young Terranza's return to him. At last account he was still in jail, pending arrival of a ransom from his father.

Rebels at Juarez professed to have word that Terranza was only recaptured by the federals after the rebels had evacuated it; that they were compelled to do this because their men were needed elsewhere, and that they will retake the town soon. It was admitted, however, that the city guard, left to police and protect the city of Torreon, was wiped out.

The Bread Line

The bread line leads to a long path of jubilant health when the bread, pastry and other foods are made with

Cottolene

This pure cooking fat is easily digested, and owing to its low melting point, produces foods of exceptional tenderness and lightness.

Here is a recipe for delicious nut bread made without kneading:

NUT BREAD
Sift 2 1-2 cups of flour with 3 teaspoons of baking powder, 1 teaspoon of salt and 1-3 cup of sugar. Beat an egg well and add 2-3 of a cup of milk to this. To the sifted flour add 3-4 cup of sliced or chopped nuts. Then pour in egg and milk, add 2 tablespoons of softened Cottolene, mix thoroughly, place in loaf pan, let stand 10 minutes, then bake in a moderate oven 40 minutes.

The above is only one of many valuable recipes contained in our FREE Cook Book, HOME HELPS. Send for your copy, also order Cottolene from your grocer today.
