RITCHIE MATCHED TO MEET MURPHY ON JANUARY 23

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 16,-After hours of wrangling over money Tommy Murphy are re-matched today to meet in a twenty-round contest on the night of January 23. As was expeeted, Promoter Coffroth and Jim Buckley, Murphy's manager, were forced to concede several points, while the champion stuck to his demand for a flat $15,000 guarantee and won out.

If rain falls on the night the fight postponed to the following afternoon. which fall on a Saturday. Buckley five per cent of the gross receipts act. and agreed to divide the receipts with Coffroth after Ritchie's $15,000 and other expenses have been paid.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 16. Ten years in San Quentin penitentiary was the sentence imposed here today by Judge Willis upon Edward Robinson, a linotype operator of Pomona, who was found guilty of appropriating for a joyride an auto- $ mobile he found standing by a curb here. The ear belonged to C. H. Bingham of Albambra.

Robinson was arrested and tried on a charge of grand larceny.

Judge Willis recently announced that he would deal summarily with persons convicted of "borrowing" automobiles.
