NO COURT MARTIAL FOR ARMY AND NAVY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Secretaries Garrison and Daniels of the war and navy departments were understood today to have reached the conclusion that it would be impossible to court martial the army and navy officers responsible for the Caraboa travesty on President Wilson's Philippine policy. It was said the offenders would be reprimanded, however.

BUTTE FALLS BUBBLES.

Mrs. Hildreth left last week for Ashland to spend the holidays visiting friends and relatives. The civil service examination for postmaster, held in the schoolhouse, December 13, was conducted by a Mr. Warner. There were four applicants for the vacancy. A baby was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, but we are sorry to say it lived only a few hours. Their friends here extend to them deepest sympathy. Misses Fredenburg, Wright and Peeler, three of our promising young pedagogues, were seen at the depot Tuesday en route to Jacksonville and teachers' examination. The dance held Saturday night at the Iowa sawmill below here was well attended. Mrs. Cadzow is teaching for Miss Wright during her absence at Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Art Nichols of Eagle Point were in Butte Falls last week. Supervisor Peterson visited the schools in this vicinity recently. Messrs. O. B. Morris and S. M. Clevering are putting in some street crossings in the north and west parts of town. Their work will be appreciated by every one, and especially by those living in the districts mentioned above. Our energetic teachers are preparing for a school fair to be held some time in the near future.

BEAGLE BEAGLETS

Several of our young people attended the dance in Cooper's hall at Sans Valley, Saturday night. George Stacy made a business trip to Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John Higham were Medford visitors, Saturday. The McCreights were in Medford, Friday and also Monday. Clarence Case had business in Central Point Saturday. C. O. Rodgers and daughter Blanche made a trip to Central Point Wednesday. "Grandpa" Houston of Long Branch is here for a time, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Asper Rodgers. Eulu and Milton Houston of Long Branch were guests of C. O. Rodgers and family Saturday and Sunday and attended the dance at Moonville, Saturday night. Several of the Central Point boys passed through here Sunday on their way home from the Willow Platts country, where they had been in camp for some time. Nellie McCreight was thrown from her pony recently and quite badly hurt. She was taken to Medford for surgical attention, and seems as chipper as ever at present. The directors of the Antioch school have engaged Miss Eulu Houston to teach the winter and spring term of school which will begin January 5. We congratulate the district on being able to have Miss Houston back again, which insures them a successful term, and we also congratulate the board for keeping the school in session at a time when the older pupils can be in attendance and when attention and interest can easily be obtained. This is one step forward and now for a new building and a thirty-six week school each year. Good for Antioch, you're not dead, although close by the cemetery. Poor old mountain district, what a sad commentary on civilization. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCreight were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Sweet.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

Dr. and Mrs. Salada left Wednesday for Philadelphia, where they expect to spend the holidays with Mrs. Salada's mother, daughter and son. Another resident has taken up its abode in Willow Springs, a wee infant in the Mc-Cumber family. Mr. Bigham moved to his ranch north of Phoenix, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Herring of Valley View orchard were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stone Sunday. Earl Taylor was in Medford on business Saturday. School program, Christmas tree and other features will be held in the school house, Saturday evening, December 20. J. C. Embry is down from Prospect visiting Central Point and Willow Springs friends. Mrs. O. S. Weicher, one of our grangers, is quite ill in the Dow hospital. We hope for her speedy recovery. Mr. Sisty mixed business with pleasure at the Lewis' home on Kansas creek Monday. W. A. Thompson was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. Manning Thursday evening. Mrs. Wimberly and family and Mr. and Mrs. James of Central Point dined with the Sisty family after which they motored over part of the valley. Don't forget friends, to attend the Methodist supper and bazaar on Dec. 19 and enjoy a good eat and buy some Christmas presents for your friends. During the week Miss Dunton and Miss Eva Norcross were visitors of Miss McNasser.

FLOUNCE ROCK FRILLS

Don't forget the Christmas tree at Laurelhurst school house Christmas eve. Mrs. Stolts, who has been cooking at Grive's road camp the past few months, left Wednesday for the valley in company with Harry Welsh and Mr. Pardue. R. B. Vaughn and daughter Violet, went to Medford Monday to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Sid Nichols. Mrs. Nichols has been seriously ill, but is on the road to recovery now. Charles Manning visited at Evergreen ranch Thursday. R. B. Vincent and Alfred Gordon delivered beef at Prospect and the power plant Saturday. The Persist school is to be equipped with a new heating system and bubbling fountain. T. M. Peeler and H. D. Blanchard finished re-roofing their house last week. They have made quite an improvement on the interior of their house lately, adding two new rooms and putting plaster board on the walls. Mr. Stennard representing the Waterman-Waterbury company, was visiting the school, school ma'ams and directors in this vicinity selling school supplies. Mr. Banta went to the station at Derby Friday for a load of supplies and school furnishings for the Nye school house. There has been beautiful weather the past week, enabling the farmers to do a good deal of their fall plowing. There has been no snow here yet, though Prospect had a fall of several inches in November. R. B. Vincent and family and Alfred Gordon spent Sunday at Frank Manning's on the south side of Rogue river. The Brophy children saw a large gray wolf in their field last week. The boys threw sticks at the animal which showed its teeth and growled. They ran home and reported their find and a visitor at the house went out and took a shot at the wolf, but missed it. Wm. Mooney, wife and son, and Mrs. Hollenbeck left for Medford Friday to spend the holidays. Ed Hollenbeck took them to the station. R. B. Vaughn and wife visited Nelson Nye and family of Plounee Rock Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Grieve of Prospect Hotel made a trip to the valley last Friday, returning Monday. Kenneth Erskine brought home a load of wire fencing from the station the first of this week. Roy K. Vaughn spent Sunday at Evergreen ranch. Kenneth Erskine led prayer meeting at Laurelhurst school house Friday night. Mrs. Blanchard was chosen to lead next week. Miss Rose will sing a solo "Whispering Hope."
