

HARRISBURG LOCAL OPTION IS ILLEGAL

ALBANY, Or., Dec. 24.—In a decision today Circuit Judge Ballouay has declared the Harrisburg local option election illegal and void on the grounds that it was not held at the time of a general state election or a regular city election.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

H. E. Webber of Medford has taken up his residence in Willow Springs. The people of this district welcome all new comers and bid Mr. Webber success in his orchard enterprise.

Mrs. J. H. King of Rockford, Ill., mother of Mrs. Ralph Elden arrived on Tuesday to spend the holidays with her daughter.

Mr. Nelson of Central Point has taken over the grain lands of the Braden place and has seeded same to wheat.

The Misses Selma and Gertrude Esping of Geneva, Ill., cousins of Mrs. J. W. Elden arrived Tuesday and will remain about six weeks visiting and touring the northwest.

Mrs. Frank McKee has kindly presented the school library with 27 volumes of Juvenile Fiction, for boys. Also a set of Whittier pictures and a bust of Lincoln.

The Misses Helen and Lea Parker expect to spend Christmas in Grants Pass with their grandparents.

Mrs. I. M. Foss is down from Bend, Oregon to enjoy the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stone of "Apple Heights."

Mrs. McKay, mother of Mrs. O. S. Blackford was unfortunate last Wednesday in having a gate fall upon her arm and breaking the wrist bone. Doctor Dow set the bone. She is improving as fast as possible but she suffers a good deal of pain.

The Christmas tree and school entertainment held in the school building was a decided success. Through the efforts of the school, Literary, Grange and Parent-Teachers' clubs the affair was marked for its completeness. The confectionery was of the choicest. The program without a flaw, the music a treat, and the audience large and appreciative. The decorations in green and cardinal harmonized with the Christmas spirit. Altogether the entertainment was a delight to all.

The turkey shoot at Ray Davidson's ranch was quite a treat to many. Medford, Talent, Grants Pass and Central Point sports enjoyed a big day. The champion rifle marksman was Mr. Pike of Medford, and Lea Ingram champion shotgun marksman.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Mrs. D. H. Stead was hostess to the Recreation club Thursday and all voted it a most enjoyable afternoon. After the regular business meeting a half hour was devoted to the study of Domestic Science. Mrs. H. B. Nye resigned her position as president of the club and Mrs. I. H. Porter was elected in her place.

A rising vote was given in appreciation of the splendid work Mrs. Nye has done in the club and as a further token of esteem and regret her departure she was presented with a beautiful silver gravy ladle.

The guests were invited to the dining room where a most delicious lunch was served. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in decorations and also in the lunch. On account of the holidays the next meeting will be in three weeks in place of two and will be at the home of Mrs. Shout.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Woolverton were Grants Pass visitors Saturday. Mrs. I. H. Porter is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carley of North Dakota who came recently to spend the winter. They are also visiting their daughter, Mrs. Campbell in Medford.

Mrs. W. A. Elliott returned Friday from Medford where she has been spending a few days visiting her son Frank Elliott and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Nye left Monday for Medford and will spend the winter in California. Mr. Nye has rented his ranch to Mr. Robbins of Rogue River. He and his family will take possession at once. Mr. and Mrs. Nye have from the first made the Riverside people feel welcome and helped a great deal by their friendliness and good will. All sincerely regret their departure and hope by the end of the three years they will come back among us.

C. D. Woolverton is doing considerable grading in improving the grounds around his place.

Work is being rapidly pushed in clearing the McDonald place, otherwise known as the Compton place. This completes the clearing of the tract known as the Duffield ranch. In the near future there will be a continuous orchard from Rock Point to the town of Rogue River where but a short time ago was a wilderness of chaparral.

Mrs. Gay, teacher of the Rock Point school, is planning exercises and a tree for Christmas eve. There will be a real live Santa Claus. All are invited to come and help make the children happy.

Mrs. Lewis Hughes of Dawson, Canada, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Martin of Portland are visiting at the home of W. W. Hittle. Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Martin are sisters of Mrs. Hittle.

Mrs. Dinwiddie was a Grants Pass visitor Saturday.

The following were shopping in Medford the past week: Mrs. Gay.
