ROGUE RIVER VALLEY
 REAL ESTATE INFORMATION

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

Right now is the best time in the history of the Rogue River Valley to invest in real estate property. Never again in the history of this famous district will values be offered at their present low figure. Numerous authorities have predicted a rapid rise in all classes of property from and after the year 1913.

If you have ever contemplated having a home, either on an orchard, ranch or in the beautiful city of Medford, now is the opportune time to investigate the values offered. You will save money by buying now and you will make money by owning property here.

An orchard is a money-making proposition. It offers an ideal life and the climate of the Rogue River Valley is unsurpassed for fruit culture and personal comfort.

If you are interested and planning to live the free and healthy life of a Rogue River Valley orchard owner, write to this company for a list of the bargains in country and city properties now being offered.

Our list of properties quote all forms of real estate, from the raw land to the bearing orchard. It states the bargain prices and the easy terms, and we personally guarantee the title to all tracts of land sold through our office.

We have had years of experience as real estate operators, mortgage loan brokers and land appraisers in the Rogue River Valley and our business is growing.

Don't forget to write for our price list of Rogue River Valley properties, and DO IT NOW.
