

COLLECTIONS and MERCANTILE REPORTS

We are collecting money every day for a host of satisfied clients—money they had given up as lost. We can do the same for you. It costs you nothing to hand us your slow ones—the doubtful and the bad ones. If we can't collect them it is our loss. If we can it is your gain. As we have fifteen hundred accounts in our files with a complete history of each case, we are able to furnish the merchants and professional men with unbiased and comprehensive reports on all classes of debtors. Current accounts handled diplomatically, delinquents forcefully, dead-beats jarred and shippers traced.
