

"BACK TO THE FARM FOR BUD" ASSERTS SPORTING WRITERS AFTER WITNESSING NEW YEAR'S FIASCO

Medford Youth a Rancher by Instinct and Nature, and It Was a Cruel Joke to Make Him a Professional Boxer.

Showing a picture of Bud Anderson taken when a heavy stable hostler, the Los Angeles Times of Jan. 2, remarks "Back to the farm for Bud Anderson. The Medford boy is a rancher by instinct and nature. It was a cruel joke to have induced him to enter the ring as a professional boxer. He is big and strong, but doesn't know even the simplest rudiments of boxing."

Commenting upon the Cross-Anderson fight, Harry Carr says:

Harry Carr's Cruel Satire
"If the Pacific Athletic club really desires to stop boxing in California, it would be simpler to sign one of the anti-fight petitions than to stage any more fights with Bud Anderson as one of the participants."

"This has become a big-league city. Big league prices are charged by the boxing promoters and the public has a right to expect the employment of skilled big-league boxers."

"Bud Anderson is an honest country boy, but as a boxer he is a weird performer. The most amazing sight I ever saw in a ring took place just before the referee signaled for the fight to begin. As the chairs were taken from the corner, Bud Anderson's manager and trainer ducked into the ring in front of him, and, with frantic gestures, showed him the position in which he should hold his hands. Imagine giving a fighter a lesson in the first rudiments of boxing as he prepares to leave his corner."

"Let us pray to be delivered from any more 'promising' beginners. There are plenty of seasoned, experienced, skilled boxers in the ring without invading the hick circuits. To make matches for boxers so miserably lacking in skill as Bud Anderson is simply inviting another Bull Young disaster."

De Witt Van Court's Remarks
De Witt Van Court writes of the fight as follows:

Leach Cross knocked out Bud Anderson in the seventh round of their scheduled twenty round fight at the Vernon arena yesterday.

"It was Cross's fight from the first round on with the exception of the sixth when the cunning New York Jew stalled and made Bud fall for it, then finished strong and had Bud on the run at the finish of the round."

"Leach put Bud down for the count of five in the third round, nearly dropped him again in the sixth, and in the seventh, put him down twice, once for the count of six seconds, and again for the count of two, and finally finished him with a hard right to the jaw that put an end to Bud's chances for good and all."

"It was one of the fiercest contests that ever took place in the Vernon arena, and was full of action from start to finish."

Bud Too Heavy

"It also proved several things. One that Bud Anderson cannot make anywhere near the lightweight limit as has been claimed for him, another that he is not the hitter that he is not the hitter that he has been credited with being, still another, that he knows little of the boxing game from any angle. Leach Cross appeared fifteen pounds lighter than Bud, but Leach made the terrible Oregon farmer look like a rag doll in the clinches. Bud was not able to land a single hard punch in the clinches that did any damage, and he was out-boxed, out-fought and out-roughed by his lighter opponent in every round. In other words, Leach had so much more experience, that he made the Oregon terror look like a mere novice. It was a battle between a strong, game and lion-hearted fellow, against an experienced, seasoned, clever, cunning and tricky boxer. Leach also proved that with his slight build he is one of the hardest-hitting boxers of his weight in the world today."

"Cross fought 100 per cent better than he did when he met Joe Rivers. In fact, he did not look like the same man. Bud had the best chances at close quarters, but he was beaten at every angle of the game at this style or any other he tried."

"Leach sprung the old stalling stuff of appearing groggy and Bud fell for it several times. Leach appeared several times on the verge of going out and once held himself up on the ropes with both hands, inviting Bud to come to him. It was so apparent to Bud at one time that Leach was stalling that he stood off and laughed at him, but the foxy

Jew drew him on later and lambasted the far out of the Medford terror for falling into the trick.

Both Heavy
"Both boys were overweight by two ounces, Anderson weighed in at 160, after being sweated out under a pile of hot towels for nearly an hour. When Bud left the arena to get something to eat he was so weak he staggered like a drunken man."

"Leach weighed in just before the match and was also a couple of ounces over. It looked for a while as though the match would be called off, but Tom McCarey visited the dressing-rooms and squared things between them."

"Cross was the first to enter the ring and was followed several minutes later by Anderson. Leach took the southwest corner and appeared in his street clothes. Bud wore a brown bathrobe and looked tired and drawn. Leach looked fresh and full of confidence."

"Cross was seconded by his brother and manager, Sam Wallace, Charlie Dalton, Charlie Anslinger and Ernie Sroug. Anderson had his manager, Dick Donald, Frank Dopruies, his trainer, Charles Kline and Dave Martin."

"Jimmie Clabby, the middleweight champion, was introduced, and Sailor Petrosky jumped into the ring and challenged him. There was not as large a crowd on hand as was expected. The house amounted to $6811."

"George Blake was the referee."

TWO WOMEN NEARLY DROWN IN BEAR CREEK

(Ashland Tidings)
Mrs. J. S. Razor and her daughter, Miss Edith, had a narrow escape from drowning in Bear creek Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Razor and Miss Edith, who is a popular clerk in Minkler's Cloak and Suit House, were on their way to the Razor ranch across the creek after church Sunday. In attempting to ford at Mountain avenue they drove into a deep hole which had been washed into the bed of the creek by the big water and were washed out of the buggy. Luckily the current carried them into shallow water and they succeeded in getting out on this side. Help was summoned and the horse was finally gotten out after having been in the water over an hour. The animal had floundered through the deepest water and had got where it was not over its back, but was anchored solidly to the submerged buggy. Neither Mrs. Razor or her daughter are the worse for their January ducking.

ASHLAND AUTOISTS TO JOIN LICENSE FIGHT

ASHLAND, Jan. 6.—A paper is being circulated in Ashland preparatory to an organization of the auto-mobilists of Ashland to fight what they term an illegal tax on automobiles. They state that the law placing a heavy license on the autos is double taxation, in that the autos are taxable according to their value in addition to the license tax.

It is understood that the Ashland automobilists will act in conjunction with those of Medford and other places in the county, in making a test case in the matter.

ART TREASURES OF WORLD GATHERED FOR PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION; SUPERB SCULPTURE AND MURAL PAINTINGS TO ADORN GREAT COURTS

Manifestations of the artistic phases of man's progress will be extraordinarily diverse at the Panama Pacific Exposition. Sculpture has come into greater use at each exposition and at San Francisco in 1915 will be employed to far greater extent than Seretore. In the Palace of Fine Arts there will be displayed from Europe many of the famous paintings of the old masters. Many national and private galleries will contribute loans and many works never permitted to leave Europe will be shown. Already 350 world famous paintings have been promised. The masterpieces of the greatest artists of today also will be shown. Several hundred thousand dollars have been appropriated for mural paintings, the preliminary working sketches for most of which are completed. Included in the list of mural painters are such celebrated names as Frank Brangwyn, Child Hassam, William D. I. Dodge, Frank Du Mond, Edward Simmons, Robert Reid, Arthur F. Matthews and Charles Halloway. Many of the panels will be 100 feet in length, some even larger. Some of the most marvelous works of art to be shown will be those presented from the Orient. All the paintings will carry out one grand exposition color scheme.

MAYORSHIP NO JOB FOR WOMEN SAYS MISS MUNSON

WARRENTON, Ore., Jan. 6.—"I have reached the conclusion that mayorships are no positions for women. I will not state my reasons, not wishing to become involved in controversies with those who believe differently, but they appear good and sufficient to me."

This was the statement today of Miss Clara Cynthia Munson, who on January 1 retired to private life after enjoying for one year the distinction of being the only woman mayor in the west. George Schmitz, a mere man, succeeded her. Miss Munson's constituency was more than satisfied with her administration, but she could not be induced to make the race for re-election. "Although my term in office was pleasant in the extreme, and the city council over which I presided treated me with the greatest respect, no persuasion could make me take an office again. I refused even to run for the city council."

"I had no trouble whatever during my term, not even with the liquor interests. I am not a believer in prohibition as it is being handled today, and did not believe it incumbent upon me to interfere with the local saloons so long as they were conducted in accordance with the laws of the city, county and state. When the government severs its partnership with the liquor interests by refusing to issue licenses then, and only then, will prohibition prohibit."

While she was mayor, Miss Munson acted as city attorney and chief of police also, having dispensed with the services of those dignitaries as soon as she assumed office. The money thus saved was used for civic improvements. She was not, however, called on to make any arrests. When in need of legal advice, Miss Munson appealed to the mayor of Astoria. Miss Munson suet her girlhood and young womanhood in a lighthouse on the Oregon coast, and her knowledge of political affairs, which is quite extensive, was gained through discussions with her father during the long periods when the beacon was isolated by storms.

"The time I spent in the mayoralty chair was not altogether without its compensation," concluded Miss Munson, "for during that time I received nearly a score of marriage proposals from men as a result of the publicity given my being the only western woman mayor."

GRECIAN EARTHQUAKE DOES GREAT DAMAGE

ATHENS, Jan. 6.—A severe earthquake did great damage today in the vicinity of Pyros. It was feared many lives were lost, but as communication was interrupted few details were available.

FIVE SURVIVORS OF OKLAHOMA RESCUED FROM LIFEBOAT

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The rescue of five more survivors from the lost tank steamer Oklahoma was belatedly reported by wireless today from the Booth liner Gregory. The men were:

Fred Booth, storekeeper; George Johnson, wiper; Wm. Hanst, seaman; John Kossich, messboy; Jacob Swanson, oiler.

Their rescue brought the total of those saved up to thirteen and reduced the number of lost to twenty-seven. The quintet, with six others, got off in a lifeboat and had been toiling six hours at the oars when picked up by the Gregory south of Sandy Hook. Twice before this the boat had capsized. The first time this happened the men succeeded in righting the boat and all eleven scrambled back on board. The second time, though, the boat was righted, six of its company, stiff with cold and exhausted by the struggle they had undergone, sank.

The Oklahoma broke in two, according to Hanst, when a mountainous sea fell on its decks amidships just as it was bridged on two other waves. There were two boats left Hanst said, and as the ship broke everyone on the after part rushed on deck and jumped into one or the other of them. How many got into the other boat, the steamer did not know. It was full, however, he said.

Money Saved by Making Your Cough Syrup at Home
Takes But a Few Moments, and Stops a Hard Cough in a Hurry.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It keeps perfectly. You will find it one of the best cough syrups you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold usually within an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and the taste is pleasant.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and other healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This plan for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ASKED BOARD TO CHANGE LAWS TO AID POACHERS

Showing customary brilliance, fishermen of Josephine county circulated a petition to the state game and fish commission requesting the commission to permit the sale of steelheads in Josephine county, despite the fact that the state laws forbade it. Several hundred signatures were secured and the secretary of the board replied as follows:

"As much as the board would like to acquiesce in their (the petitioners') wishes, after perusing the contents of chapter 384 laws of 1913, find that section 4 thereof makes it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, barter or exchange any rainbow, steelheads or other trout taken from the waters of Rogue river, and the board, therefore, has no discretion in the matter. The only manner in which such concessions could be granted would be by a special act of the legislature. I am forwarding, under separate cover, a pamphlet copy of the fish and game laws of this state, and would respectfully call your attention to section 92, subdivisions a, b, c, and d thereof, which covers the matter fully."

10,000 STRUGGLE FOR $5 DAY JOBS ON FORD AUTOS

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 6.—Ten thousand men, some ragged and others prosperous looking, today fought for places in the line before the employment window of the Ford Automobile company. Under the company's new profit-sharing plan, announced yesterday 4000 additional workmen will be employed at a minimum wage of $5 daily.

"We believe social justice begins at home," said James Couzens, secretary of the company. "We want those helping us to produce and maintain this institution to share in our profits and prosperity. We want them to share our present profits."

"Thrift, good service and sobriety will be encouraged and recognized. We hope to do still better by our employees in the future and want them to be our real partners."

Couzens announced the profit sharing plan would not cause any increase in price of the company's products.

An experiment station for the study of flax cultivation and manufacture was organized recently in Moscow.

TEACH LUNATICS THREE R'S JUST LIKE NORMALS

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 6.—Insanity experts in many sections of states are watching with great interest Ohio's experiment of its Massillon state hospital, where 300 inmates are attending school studying reading, arithmetic, geography, music and other branches just like normal folk. Stimulation of mental effort in the sub-normal brain is the object of the school. Pupils are not allowed to be unoccupied for a moment during study hours on the theory that idleness produces melancholy.

Mathematics appears the most difficult study for the inmate pupils. Teaching is done by the system of object lessons. Cows, horses, dogs, cats and people are subtracted, added and multiplied in lieu of mere figures. Mental activity produces strength, according to Dr. M. C. Eymann, superintendent, who declares that many cures may be almost wholly attributed to the "insane" school work.

When a patient shows an interest and adaptability in the work he is advanced to the more recreational classes, which include pool, billiards, bowling, tennis and baseball, and all these are a part of the regular curriculum. They provide healthful enjoyment, excite mental interest, arouse energy and stimulate activity to the physical and mental benefit of the patient.

CALL MASS MEETING FOR PACIFIC HIGHWAY

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 6.—A mass meeting, called at the instance of the board of governors of the Commercial club will be held tomorrow night to consider the advisability of calling a special election to vote $800,000 for road improvement in Marion county. The plan is to complete the improvements by or shortly after the opening of the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Men Welcome Mother's Friend

A Duty that Every Man Owes to Those who Perpetuate the Race.

It is just as important that men should know of progressive methods in advance of motherhood. The suffering, pain and distress incident to child-bearing can be easily avoided by having at hand a bottle of Mother's Friend.

This is a wonderful, penetrating, external application that relieves all tension upon the muscles and enables them to expand without the painful strain upon the ligaments. Thus there is avoided all those nervous spells; the tendency to nausea or morning sickness is counteracted, and a bright, sunny, happy disposition is preserved that reflects wonderfully upon the character and temperament of the little one soon to open its eyes in bewilderment at the joy of his arrival. You can obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend" at any drug store at $1.00, and it will be the best dollar's worth you ever obtained. It preserves the mother's health, enables her to make a quick and complete recovery, and thus with renewed strength she will eagerly devote herself to the care and attention which mean so much to the welfare of the child. Write to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 129 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their valuable and instructive book of guidance for expectant mothers. Get a bottle of Mother's Friend to-day.
