EVERYONE CAN LIVE TO BE CENTENARIAN

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 8.—Dr. Eugene Smith, 91 years of age, addressed the national conference for race betterment here today. He said the average person should live to be 100 years of age.

"The only reason the average person does not reach the century mark," said Dr. Smith, "is because the forces of evil prevail over the forces of good. Only three out of every thousand persons live to be centenarians."
