

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

Miss Taylor and Miss Elinor Crowder were shopping in Central Point last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmer and three children of Medford were entertained Sunday at the D. W. Stone home.

Mrs. J. P. Houghland has been visiting her daughter in Gold Hill for several days.

Hog butchering was the program at Seaside Heights orchard Monday, to the tune of eight hogs.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard were house guests of E. T. Neal and family Friday and Saturday.

Messrs. J. W. and R. W. Eden made a shipment of hogs to a more extensive market.

Mrs. William Leathers and her two sons, Ralph and Ray Kelly, returned to their home after spending several months in Virginia. Mrs. Leathers is very much improved in health and the boys claim there is no climate like the Rogue river valley.

Mrs. H. H. Tuttle of Central Point was visiting Mrs. F. Thompsons Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Hershberger was in Central Point doing some trading.

Miss Helen McCumber returned to Ashland to resume her studies in the Ashland high school.

T. C. Low has been on the sick list for several days.

A most entertaining evening was held at the school house on Friday evening, January 9, 1914, it being installation of officers of the Grange. Those present as visitors and assistants in the work were Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard of Grants Pass. Mr. Blanchard's remarks on co-operation were very timely as the grange is formulating plans for the erection of a hall and are in need of co-operation. Many other subjects were brought up and ably answered by our worthy brother. The most elaborate banquet the grange has ever given was served at six o'clock.

FLOUNCE ROCK FLOUCELETS

The protracted meeting at Laurelhurst school house closed Friday night. Throughout the meeting there was good attendance and good attention, but no conversions. Rev. Landahl of Ashland preached Tuesday and Wednesday nights to an appreciative audience.

John W. Grieve returned Saturday from a trip to the valley. He brought home a nice Jersey cow.

Miss Be Little is visiting friends at Prospect and the power plant this week.

Messrs. Ulrich and Sutton, assisted by Ray Davis, took a nice bunch of cattle out Monday.

J. F. Pittsworth and son Gus did some much needed work on the Peyton hill and bridge last week.

Bessie and Ethel Hugginbotham have been ill the last few days and unable to attend school.

Miss Violet Vaughn was also quite ill for several days of last week.

Lucius Kincaid is making a visit to home folks.

Lee Waddell of Prospect is visiting friends in this vicinity.

C. T. Brown and wife spent the week-end at the home of G. W. Kincaid.

A news item in a recent issue of the Mail Tribune speaking of the warm weather, remarks that the county correspondents will be seeing the first robin soon. The robins have not yet left this part of the country. There are great flocks of them around.

J. H. Eyskine made a business trip to Prospect Saturday.

Mrs. Davis spent the past week visiting friends at Peyton.

T. B. Hugginbotham and son Ed transacted business in Prospect Saturday.

BUTTE FALLS BUBBLES.

Roads are blocked by fallen trees, awnings torn, windows broken, and a few out buildings wrecked as the result of a wind storm here Sunday night. While no serious damage was done, it will take some time to clear the roads of fallen trees and to repair some of the bridges. Pioneers say they have never seen any thing like it here before.

Miss Patters who taught near Derby this fall is home again.

Mr. A. M. Ford made a business trip to the valley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boughton have moved into their new house.

Leta Peeler taught for Mrs. Barrot Monday as she was sick.

Delwin Claspill, who with Charles Patton is trapping above here was down last week.

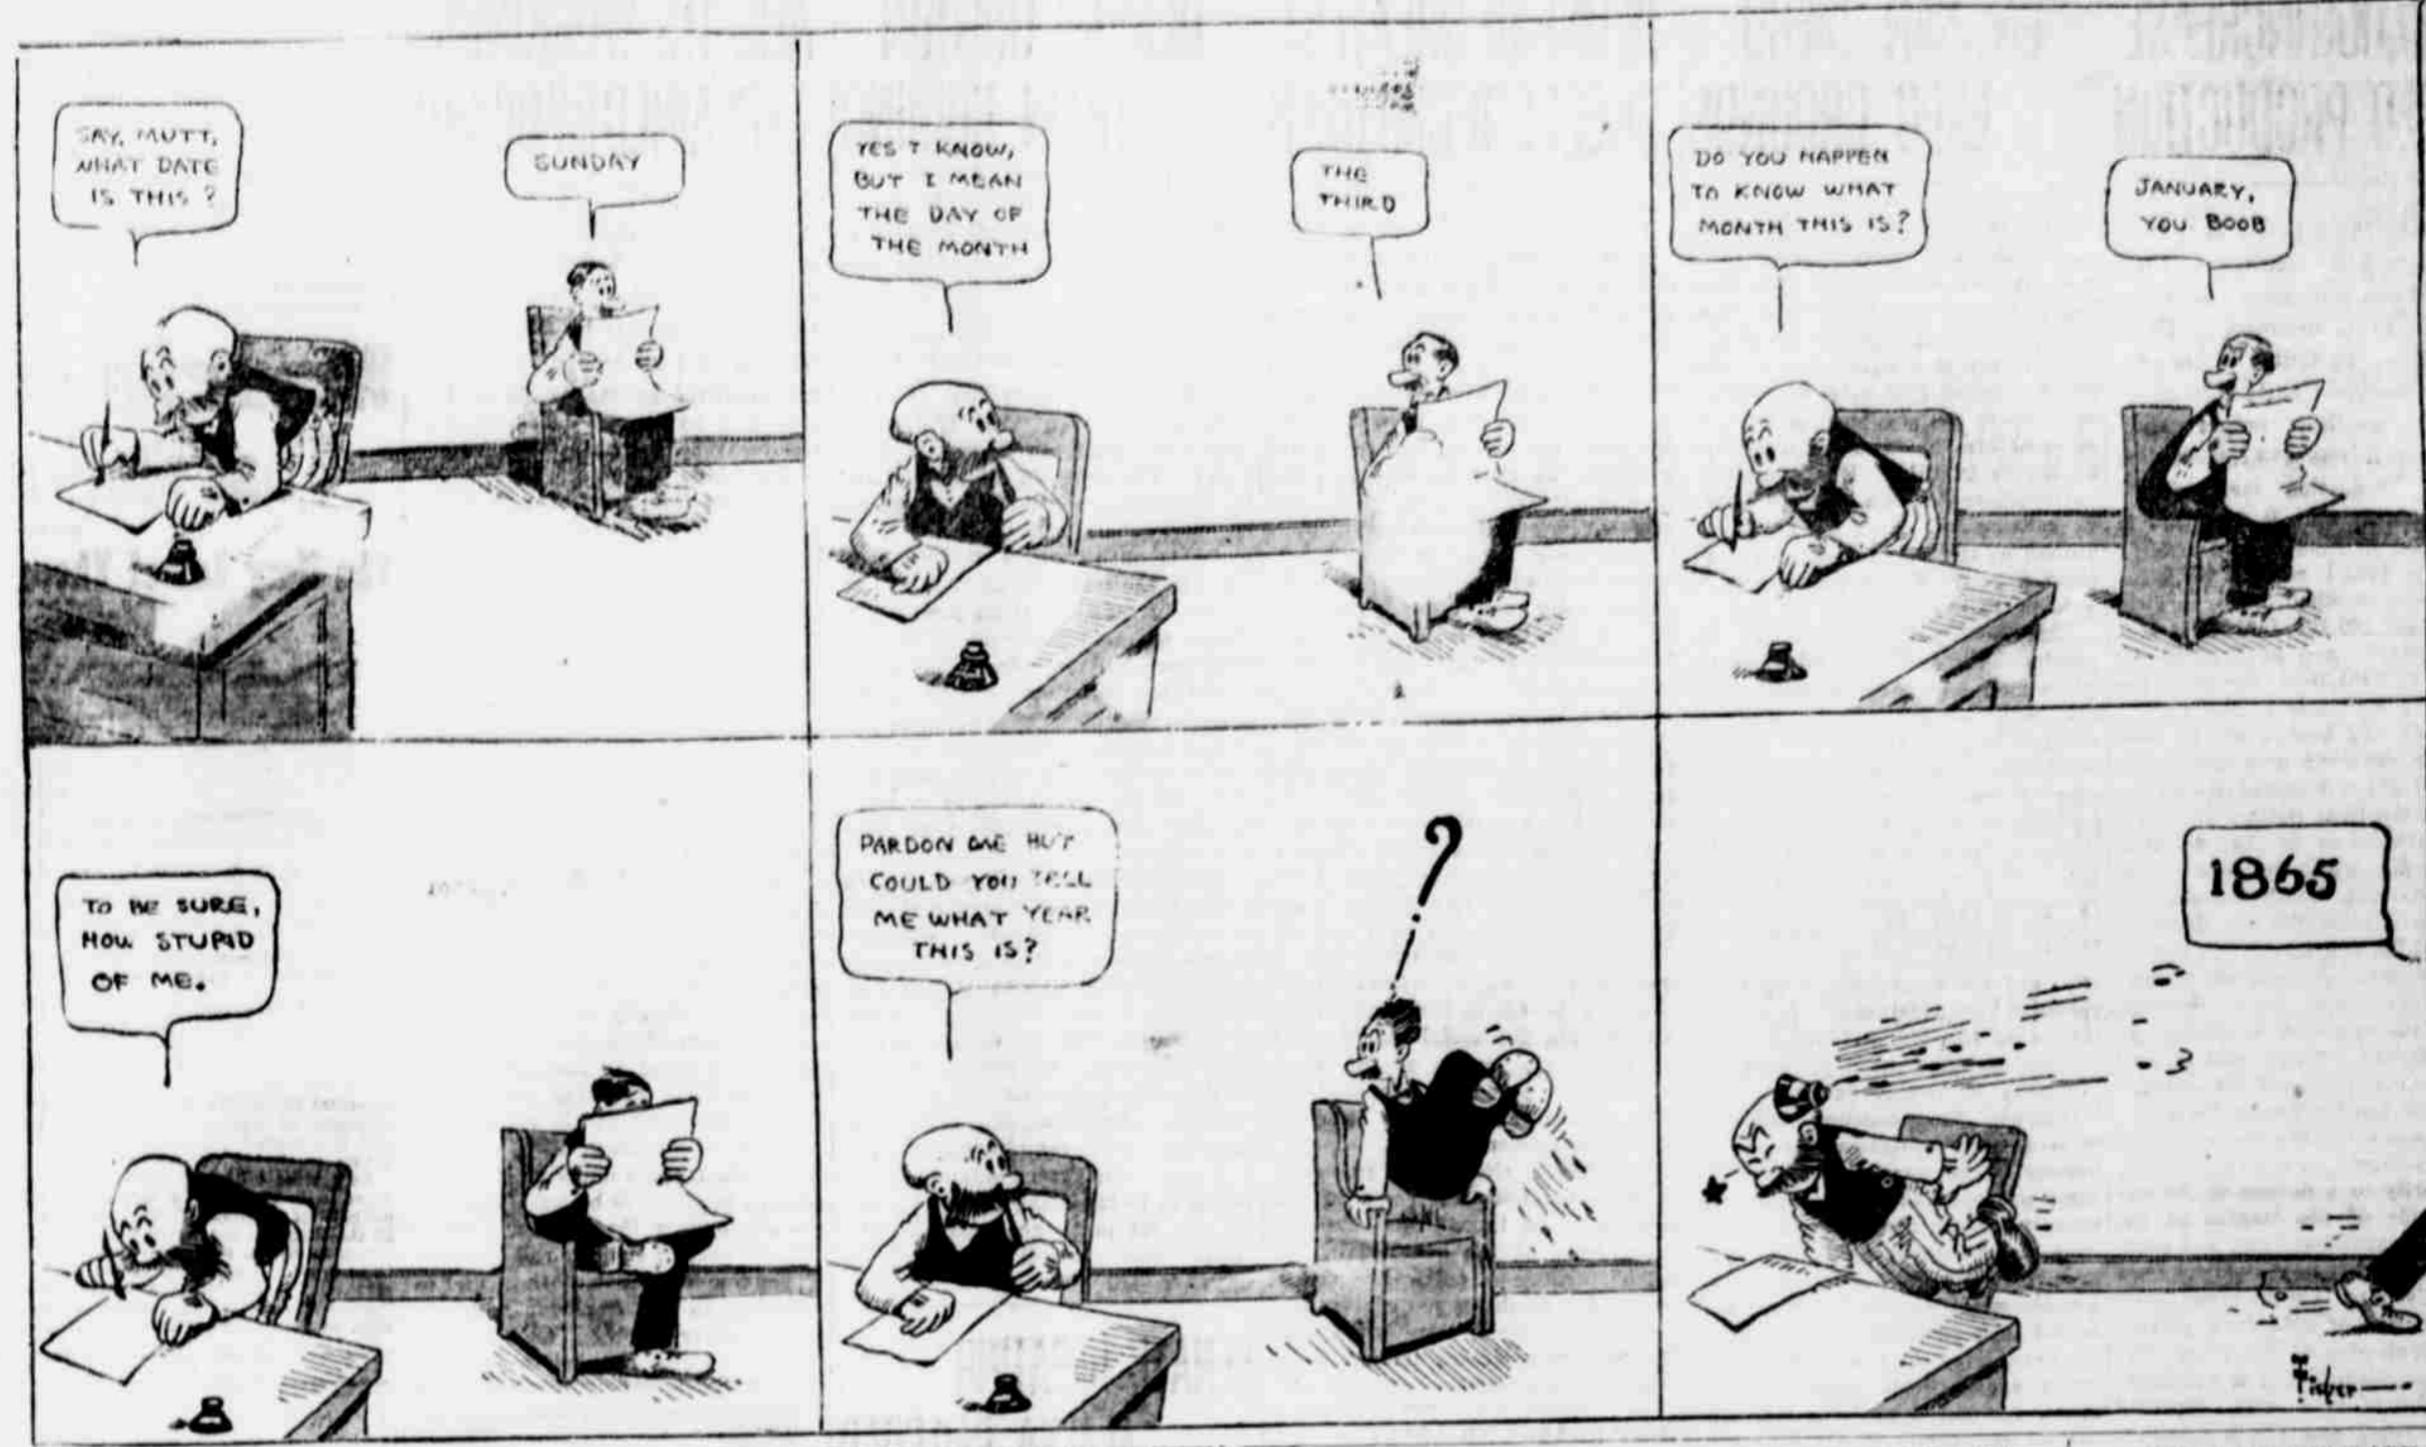

A Miss Barberback of Medford is visiting Mrs. Jones this week.

Mr. Moor and family and Mr. Dooms and family have returned to Butte Falls after an absence of several months. We cannot deny that some people leave Butte Falls but we have the satisfaction of seeing them return sooner or later.

PHOENIX PHYLERS

The Firemen's cornet band gave a delightful open air concert Friday evening as a prelude to their play.
