ATTENTION FRUITGROWERS.

All owners of orchards are respectfully requested to dig the dirt away from the trunk of their trees to the extent of allowing the inspectors an opportunity of testing the tree near the roots. A large number of orchardists have complied with this request, but we find a number who have neglected this work. In order to make the inspection work thorough it is necessary that the orchardists co-operate in this matter and thereby make the inspection more thorough and complete. J. W. MYERS, County Fruit Inspector in Charge.

WHY?

Last year I added a large number to my list of satisfied customers. During the coming year I shall have a larger working force, a better equipment and a more complete listing of property. I shall conduct an exchange department to handle exchanges of property located in the Rogue river valley and vicinity. I want to be in a position to give my customer the best buy there is in Jackson county. Buy right and hoist will be my slogan. I shall give my special attention to that property for sale for which a quick turn is demanded. If you have property to sell or trade you are invited to call on me or phone 120-3. J. C. BARNES First National Bank Bldg.
