MUSICAL COMPANY AT PAGE SCORES A HIT
 The A. B. Basco Musical Comedy company opened its week's engagement at the Page Theater Monday night, before a large audience, and judging from the applause made a hit with the patrons. Several good voices grace the cast, and Basco himself is a clever comedian with acrobatic and kicking tendencies. The chorus is lively and sings and dances pleasingly. The company will present "The Chinese Ambassador" tonight. Friday night will be chorus girls' night.

WHISLER OFF TO CAPITAL SATURDAY; BOOSTS BOX BILL

Mr. Whisler expects to be gone a month or six weeks, and is backed by the leading fruitgrowers of the northwest. The apple box bill would benefit the entire west.

The latest from London is that Martha Hedman has scored a big success in "The Attack," produced by George Alexander.
