EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Saturday, Jan. 24, the Ladies' Missionary society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Childreth and had a regular literary and spiritual feast. The subject for discussion was a trip to Bermuda, and among other papers read was one by Mrs. Buchanan, the wife of the Principal of our school, on "A Trip to Bermuda."

MacCullough of Medford out to talk to us on the subject of state and nation-wide prohibition. He had a large audience considering the kind of a night it was and he gave us a very instructive and interesting lecture, something entirely new in the line of temperance work.

He circulated slips of paper for the voters to sign in which they not only pledged themselves to vote for state-wide prohibition but also pledged to contribute of their funds to carry on the work. I don't know how many signed up but I heard one of the men that collected the slips say that he thought that there was enough votes there that night to carry Eagle Point again and if the feeling manifested here is any indication of the general feeling throughout the state the death knell of the saloon is sounding in Oregon.

Mrs. S. H. Harnish and her daughter, Miss Dottie were pleasant callers at the Sunny Side Wednesday. It was the calculation to have held another meeting in the interest of getting a cannery established here last Monday but as almost everybody was engaged and interested in getting a roof on the Brown store the meeting was forgotten and another date has not been fixed, but will be soon.

Mrs. Mary Campbell recently from Wisconsin, came in Wednesday morning on her way to visit her daughter, Mrs. Seibert of Derby. She expects to build a home and live near her daughter. Herbert Carlton was among us Wednesday and says that he is keeping batch on the old home farm. If I thought that he wouldn't mind it I would suggest that some of the marriageable ladies might do worse than to go into partnership with him and break the monotony of bachelor life.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

(Gold Hill News) Mrs. May Greene, of Medford, is spending the present week at the home of her brother, A. E. Kellogg and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wrisley of Medford, visited with Kansas creek friends for several days the first of this week.

The Rev. Wm. R. Jeffery, Jr., of Grants Pass, pastor of the M. E. church of that city will assist Rev. Coslet, of the local M. E. church in a series of revival meetings, beginning Monday evening, February 9th. Rev. Jeffery is an evangelist pastor and a fine speaker.

The Progressive Bible class, of the M. E. church, entertained at their regular monthly session on Monday evening, serving clam chowder and crackers. Many invited guests were present. The evening's entertainment was directed by the men of the organization, whose turn it was to provide the spread and arrange the musical program. Both were appreciated and heartily endorsed. Joe Hicks, whose art is the concoction of old culinary triumphs, presided at the manufacture of the chowder, of which ten savory gallon were compounded.

Upon lots owned by Dr. R. C. Kelley, at the rear of the M. E. church, Messrs Kelly and Homan, employed at the cement plant, are erecting a dwelling where they will keep bachelor quarters. Ralph Homan is a son of Rev. Homan, the well known president of Willamette University.

For the purpose of raising a fund to equip the organization with uniforms, a musical concert will be given at the opera house next Saturday evening, February 7th, by the band boys. Solos, instrumental and vocal, brass and vocal quartets, readings, duets and special selections by the band will comprise a program that is certain to be very good. Tickets are now on sale.

ALONG ROGUE RIVER

The wind storm last Sunday took off roofs, upset sheds, blew down rail fences, broke off and uprooted trees and twisted some brush out of the ground.

Mrs. Bellows and son Fred took Sunday's train for Ashland and Medford respectively. They have spent some time visiting Eugene Bellows.

Henry French took a ton of potatoes to Eagle Point Monday and shipped them to Mr. Hughes of Butte Falls.

Eugenie Bellows and Jasper Hannah attended the I. O. O. F. lodge and banquet at Eagle Point Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Hannah went to Central Point Thursday. John Foster came over from Eagle Point the first of the week and helped his brother Ed replace part of the house roof which blew off Sunday. He also called on his father, Perry Foster, and sister, Mrs. Henry French.

Grant Mathews and family were shopping in Eagle Point Saturday. Peter Betz is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Betz entertained Mr. and Mrs. Tim Daily Friday night.

The program at the Reece Creek school house for the Sunday school was splendid and over $51 was taken in by the auction of the boxes. Eugene Bellows was the auctioneer. A large crowd was present and a good time was had by everyone.

The friends of Amos Ayres are glad to hear he is doing as well as can be expected at the hospital in Medford where he was operated upon last Tuesday.

Several parties want to rent ranches suited to the raising of hogs and cattle.
