

LARGE CROWD GREET PROHIBITION ORATOR SUNDAY

J. G. Adams, the temperance evangelist of the Anti-Saloon league, addressed a street crowd of nearly a thousand Saturday afternoon. He is the most unique figure on the temperance platform today.

Sunday afternoon Superintendent R. P. Hutton and Field Secretary George N. Taylor spoke to an audience which compelled the bringing of extra chairs into the First M. E. church. Mr. Taylor is a local man, owning a ranch here and having lived and worked here. He is not the Mr. Taylor who is handling the prohibition party work under its new pseudonym of "Out to Win."

The presence of these men here at this time is a pure coincidence, and they are not in any way connected with the "Out to Win" prohibition party movement. They are not circulating the yellow pledges which are pledges to vote the party ticket.

In common with the W. C. T. U. they are pushing the organization for Oregon dry. This is an initiated measure. No party has any connection with it. It is at the bottom of the ballot, separate from all tickets, and it is not necessary for a voter to vote for the party or sign the yellow pledge in order to vote "Oregon dry."

Oregon is wet, said Mr. Hutton, because three-fifths of the males of voting age failed to vote on either side of the question in 1910. The Anti-Saloon league and the W. C. T. U. are preparing to get this stay-at-home vote to the polls. This county will soon be organized by them and pledges to go to the polls and vote circulated. But at a joint meeting in Portland both these organizations pledged not to circulate the yellow "Out to Win" pledges of the prohibition party. It is planned to hold rallies in every schoolhouse and personally canvass every voter whose name is not on the last poll list.

The league men and the county executive committee of the W. C. T. U. are in conference this afternoon perfecting their plans. Their efforts will be spent principally on the stay-at-homes. The bad citizenship of good people must be overcome. Nearly every stay-at-home is a dry at heart. Registration days will probably be planned for the purpose of getting women to register.

RITCHIE TO MEET WOLGAST IN MARCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 9.—Champion Willie Ritchie announced today that he had accepted terms from Promoter Andrews for a ten round bout in Milwaukee the second week in March with Ad Wolgast. The match was on again when Andrews notified Ritchie by wire that he could guarantee him $10,000 and a privilege of accepting forty per cent of the receipts.

Ritchie will leave with his manager, Harry Foley, for a California mountain resort to begin preparations for training for the match in a few days.

BANK BUSTED BY PRESIDENT'S GAMBLING

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 9.—Its surplus and capital wiped out, with a loss exceeding $300,000, the Mercantile National bank here failed to open its doors today. Its directors announced its insolvency following a Sunday afternoon meeting, at which they discovered its condition.

In their statement they blamed President C. Hunter Raine, who was said to have lost $500,000 speculating in cotton. Raine turned over his personal estate, estimated to be worth still $400,000.

CRIMINALS FLEEING FROM NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The police resumed today their crusade against New York gamblers. Two hundred detectives wearing black masks compelled as many gamblers, pickpockets and suspected crooks, arrested since Saturday night, to run the gauntlet of their scrutiny. In the three weeks of activity against the gamblers, the police have confiscated 326 revolvers, 27 blackjacks and $5000 worth of plunder. An exodus of criminals was in progress today.

They refused to discuss the object of their meeting with the president, but it was understood that the latter promised to back William C. Osborn with the entire power of the New York state democratic committee.

WAUSAU, Wis., Feb. 9.—The Wausau Paper Mill company's $1,000,000 plant at Brokaw was burning this afternoon. Firemen and apparatus were sent from here to aid in the effort to save it. Wires between here and Brokaw were down, so news was slow in reaching here.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

The last time that I wrote for the Mail Tribune I was on my way to Grants Pass and as I was about five minutes late to catch the early morning train, 8:27, concluded to spend my time as profitably as possible, so went into the Mail Tribune office and wrote a batch of Eaglelets for the paper and noticed when it (the batch of Eaglelets) came out that I had omitted one very important item of interest to at least one family and that was that the stork had visited the household of M. D. Duncanson and made Mr. and Mrs. Duncanson happy by leaving a fine 9 1/2-pound girl, so reports Dr. W. P. Holt.

Well, after writing my Eaglelets I took the 10:22 motor and started for Grants Pass. I noticed that just below Gold Hill that the cement company have been pushing their work right along and have quite a number of buildings well under way and from appearances, from the ear window, they have quite a quantity of rock already out to be used as soon as they get their machinery in place. I noticed but little change in other respects along the road since my visit about December 20.

Last Tuesday night L. B. Warner, Sr., of Medford was a guest at the Sunnyside. He was out canvassing for fruit trees. Also Mr. Ash, our Trail creek merchant, was with us. He came out after another load of goods.

G. B. Conwell and G. W. Manworth were also here for dinner on Wednesday. They had been putting in a transformer and connecting up J. B. Jackson's house with the electric wire that runs to the rock crusher.

Last Tuesday night, February 3, was the regular time for our council meeting but as two of our newly elected councilmen, John W. Smith and George Fisher, were away from home and J. F. Brown did not put in an appearance about all that they did was to meet and adjourn to meet on the evening of the 10th.

Peter Young, one of our prosperous farmers, was in town Wednesday and reports that there has been a new survey made so as to estimate the heavy grade on the hill going from Eagle Point to the Antelope bridge, something that should have been done years ago.

Corbin Edgell, one of our prosperous orchardists, called on your correspondent to insert an ad. in the Daily Mail Tribune for a lost dog, but before I had time to mail the letter the dog was found.

R. R. Minter, our progressive sheep man and farmer, and W. E. Hammel, one of our big land owners of Eagle Point, and John W. Cunningham of Trail were with us Thursday night.

H. R. Lowe of Denver, Colorado, representing the Carewell Horse Nail company, was among us Thursday. W. A. Laidlow of Portland is here looking over his property, the old Dr. Cogle orchard.

Carl Jackson of Butte Falls is here visiting his parents, J. B. Jackson.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

(From Gold Hill News.) Archie Walker, employed at the cement plant, came to grief Wednesday afternoon in a tumble that might have given him serious injuries. He was working upon the slurry tanks, already sixteen feet in depth, when he lost his footing and fell, striking the concrete bottom. Although suffering considerable pain examination proved his injuries to consist largely of contusions and bumps of superficial character.

Earl Fisher, of the hotel cafe, is happy again. During the last two weeks he has been separated from his his pets—a yearling and a three year old doe, taken by Mr. Fisher when fawns and reared to docility and docility. The animals arrived on different days recently, by express from Grants Pass, their former home. The owner has had previous experience in training tame deer, and is now outlining a course of study for his charges. Among other stunts, he proposes to break them to drive.

On Sunday last, at Sams Valley, occurred the marriage of Miss Fay De Ford to O. W. Tresham at the home of the groom's father, Rev. A. C. Howlett of Eagle Point officiated at the ceremony. Many neighbors and friends attended as invited guests, and enjoyed the splendid wedding dinner served following the ceremony. Both bride and groom have many friends in this city and throughout the valley, all of whom unite to bespeak for them much happiness.

Contract for the construction of the 935 foot sewer extension to West Fifth avenue and the high school building, has been awarded by the city council to the successful bidders, Wm. Childers, Tom West, Bert Castle and Ed Simonds, who will complete the job in partnership. The work was taken at 15c per linear foot, and his being rapidly pushed. Intolerable conditions caused by an inadequate septic tank at the school, led to the immediate order for sewer construction, which has long been needed.

Later—After working two days upon the contract, the quartet of successful bidders laid down their picks, declaring that no money could be made at the contract price. New bids will be accepted by the council with proper provision for the fulfillment of contract.

A. L. Penwell, a compositor upon the city's first newspaper, the Gold Hill Miner, reappeared this week after an absence of seventeen years. He informed the News that he found the city much changed and encountered few citizens he recollected—with the exception of the perennial Bill Hayes, whom he gladly greeted as an unchanged landmark. Bill, he said, was much the same. During his long absence Penwell has followed the profession of prospector, and is now putting in a few days among the neighboring hills. When Penwell worked at the case, Editor Roberts was "getting out" the weekly Miner, worrying over the supply of white paper, the dearth of ink, scarcity of news, plenty of prospects, and paucity of advertising. There are other situations, besides Bill Hayes, which have not altered.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy, thick with a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the messy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustrous appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids—Splendid for system.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the juice of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendorous for kidneys and causes no harm.
