EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Last Friday when I last wrote, I had so much to tell the readers of the Mail Tribune that I had to have some of it for today...

house was filled to hear J. G. Adams lecture on the liquor question. He held his audience spellbound for an hour and a quarter.

At the close he called for contributions to help along the work and the people responded quite liberally. I did not learn the amount.

W. E. Buchanan, the principal of our school announced Sunday that there would be a program in the school Thursday afternoon...

Mr. and Mrs. Masaul of Lake creek were interviewing Dr. Holt last week.

P. H. Daily of Medford and L. A. Wright, principal of the Butte Falls school were visiting Prof. W. E. Buchanan Saturday.

Lester McDonald of Trail came out last Saturday on the Eagle Point-Perist stage and took room at the Sunny Side.

W. E. Hammel came out to attend the card party given by Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Amy Brown...

John J. Wingham of Trail came out Thursday and brought one five cougar hides taken from the animals he had killed...

But I see that I am making my letter to long again so will have to stop right here and keep the rest of my notes for the next time.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS.
