

PROBE EXISTENCE OF LOBBY AGAINST REPEAL OF TOLLS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 10.—Investigation of charges of the existence of a lobby to block the resolution for repeal of the exemption clause of the Panama canal act, was ordered this afternoon to start Thursday by Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina, chairman of the senate lobby committee. Clarence DeKnight of Washington will be the first witness.

A technical correction in the tolls repeal bill was made this afternoon by the house commerce committee. Repeal was ordered of the second clause of the canal act which, it was pointed out, might possibly be construed as giving the president authority to exempt American vessels. The vote on the correction stood 14 to 12 against, with several committeemen absent.

HURL FLOWER POTS AT ENGLISH SUFFRAGETTES

GLASGOW, Scotland, March 10.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was arrested last night at a suffrage meeting St. Andrews hall, after a fierce fight with the police in which a score of women were hurt and several constables bruised.

Mrs. Pankhurst had just declared that the women had ample justification for fighting for their rights as the men ever had, when the police with drawn clubs entered. Anticipating trouble the suffragettes stretched a network of barb wire across the platform.

The wire concealed by flowers proved efficacious with the aid of masculine supporters using flower pots, chairs and anything they could seize in holding the police a few minutes.

When the police finally stormed the platform, several women produced clubs from under their cloaks and used them vigorously. During the fighting several blank cartridges were fired and miniature bombs exploded.

Many women fainted. The police seized Mrs. Pankhurst, dragged her off the platform through the hall to the street. Here desperate efforts were made to rescue her as the police forced her into a taxicab and drove to the police station.

STREET SCENE IN NEW YORK CITY DURING LAST WEEK'S BIG SNOW STORM

CARS STALLED AT HERALD SQUARE, NEW YORK CITY.

Rivalling the famous blizzard of 1888, New York is just emerging from the worst storm that it has suffered since that period. Borne on the wings of a gale that raged with a velocity that at one time reached eighty five miles an hour, the latest installment of the cumulative blizzard gripped the city for many days. Business, so far as deliveries are concerned, was practically at a complete standstill; street cars and even whole trains in the outlying sections were snowed in; the great railroad systems making their terminal at New York and Jersey points practically discarded their schedules; telegraph, electric light and trolley wires were reported down from all points; the schools were practically deserted; shipping was at a standstill, tying up immense quantities of fuel and food, and the Street Cleaning Department is facing the crisis in its career.

Many deaths from the severe elements were reported and the suffering in the thickly populated east side section was intense. The whole city was practically tied up and with a scarcity of foodstuffs poor persons endured much hardship.

CHILDREN FOUND IN GRANTS PASS SCANDAL

PORTLAND, Or., March 10.—Detectives yesterday turned over to Donald H. Smith of Grants Pass his two sons who had been spirited from home, said to have been at the instance of their mother, who is facing a statutory charge at Grants Pass.

The officers found the lads on a ranch near Vancouver, Wash., where they had been taken when the mother learned her plans to have them taken to Chicago were discovered. Mrs. M. E. Boyd was caring for them. It is alleged that Mrs. Boyd had been instructed to place the lads in a Pullman compartment, the mother to join them when the train pulled into Grants Pass.

Mrs. Smith was arrested in company with Calvin Allen, formerly employed at the government hatchery. Smith is a prominent ranchman and an expert in irrigation matters.

NAUGHTON, SPORTING EDITOR EXAMINER, DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 10.—W. W. Naughton, sporting editor of the San Francisco Examiner and one of the best known fight critics in the United States, died here this afternoon of heart disease.

Naughton was found dead in bed shortly after noon by a member of his family. He was a victim of heart trouble, superinduced by an attack of acute indigestion with which he was stricken last week. At that time he was removed to St. Mary's hospital, but he appeared to recover so rapidly that after a few days' stay there he was removed to his home.

CHILDREN BEFORE JUVENILE COURT

Gold Hill gossips, whose tongue-wagging brought a 15-year-old girl before Judge Tou Velle of the juvenile court this morning, on delinquency charges, will be forced to appear and testify, if further complaints are made. The girl was turned over to her stepfather, a Mr. Nicholson, there being no evidence that the little miss had done any wrong. Complaint was made to Principal Adams of the Gold Hill schools, a clique desiring to have her expelled, it is said.

Three children of G. Woolfolk, living on a homestead with their father on upper Evans creek, were before the juvenile judge on complaint that they were ill-cared for and kept out of school; that he was divorced from their mother, and that owing to eye trouble he was forced to give up his machinist work. He promised to put them in school. The charge that they were ill-cared for was unfounded.

BANK LOOTED OF $2000 BY SEVEN MASKED BANDITS

SUMAS, Wash., March 10.—The bank at Abbott's Ford, B. C., was held up and robbed of $2000 in gold and currency at about 10 o'clock this morning by seven masked men. Three of the desperadoes waited outside the bank just after it had opened while their four companions with revolvers went in and forced the cashier and a clerk, the only persons in the bank, to surrender the money.

One of the bandits covered the clerk and another thrust his revolver into the face of the cashier. A third man walked into the teller's cage, where the money had been placed when the bank was opened shortly before, and seized the loot.

After taking the money the bandits joined their waiting companions and ran toward the outskirts of the city, where it is believed they had an automobile in waiting. Poses were organized in Abbot's Ford and Sumas and are in pursuit of the robbers.
