THWART GRAB OF PUBLIC LAND BY CATTLE BARONS

WASHINGTON, March 19.—What he termed a stockmen's 330,000,000-acre "grab" of public land has been checked, Congressman Ferguson of New Mexico asserted today.

The original plan, he said, was to reserve the government's semi-arid and arid land, under the Kent bill, for grazing purposes and lease it to stockmen, but a majority of the members of the house committee on public lands opposed the proposition.

VAUDEVILLE BILLED FOR PAGE SATURDAY

Manager Gordon of the Page makes the pleasing announcement that on Saturday and Sunday he will offer for the approval of Medford theater patrons the International Vaudeville company, presenting seven high-class acts.

The company is headed by the Peerless Comedy Four, a quartet of no little ability, together with Miss May McDermott, known in vaudeville circles as "the live wire soubrette"; Charles Sargent, a splendid Yiddish comedian; the Aloha trio, a Hawaiian musical act; Miss Grace Marshall, the International Sextette and Miss Edith Vernon, dramatic soprano.

SIX BOYS, ONE MAN, ILLEGALLY FISHING

Six boys and one man were arrested Wednesday by Game Warden A. S. Hubbard for catching fish in Bear creek under ten inches in length. They were Vera Siewing, age 10; Ora Wallow, 13; Vern Quigley, 15; Joe Reynolds, 15; Clarence Jones, 13, and Harold Gray, 15.

PANTORIUM HAS SWELL NEW AUTO DELIVERY

The Pantorium has a swell new auto delivery, with the popular solicitor, Chas. Caldwell at the wheel, that is attracting considerable attention. The engine and running gear are of Ford make, the body is the work of Mitchell's wagon shop and the painting was done by Carl Cotherman, the expert painter.

A NEW POLITICAL PARTY

THAT the "out-to-win" move is really the creation of a new party, an organization seeking money and power, hoping by the capitalization of the "moral movement," to ride the prohibition sentiment to office in indicated by instructions to "Young Emancipators of America" and to "city and precinct chairmen," issued from state headquarters.

Among the "Emancipators," cash prizes are awarded to workers, $5 to the men and women securing the largest number of points during the month. At least 100 points are necessary to secure a prize. But that the money raised is more important than the voters secured, is indicated by the following basis of rating:

Each voter enrolled on the "Out to Win Votes League" counts one point. Each subscription to the Pacific Patriot, the state organ, counts two points. Every dollar raised in cash or pledges counts five points.

According to this, a dollar is worth five voters to the league, and a subscription two voters.

The comprehensive and thorough character of the political work outlined, is shown by the effort made to reach every individual in the state. A master political mind is back of the "Out to Win" campaign, but its purely political character is shown by the following instruction:

Explicit that we are conducting a systematic canvass of the entire state in an effort to enroll 60,000—enough to carry the state. Also that it is in conjunction with the great national movement that is being pushed by the national committee in all the states. Emphasize the fact, if necessary, that in reality we are building a new party and that the affairs of the party will be in the hands of the new enrollment.

AN ANACHRONISM

ELSEWHERE appears a communication, written upon official postoffice stationery, taking the editor to task for expressed opinions concerning "The Menace" and the religious bigotry, intolerance and civic strife its mission it is to create.

There ought to be no misconception in the mind of the public regarding the Mail Tribune and the position it takes on religious, industrial and political questions. It is surely outspoken enough.

The Mail Tribune believes in freedom of conscience and the inherent right of everyone to worship according to the dictates of his or her conscience. It believes that no one has the right to attempt to dictate, least of all by force, the religious beliefs of another. It believes that as religious intolerance has decreased the world has grown better and that in the millennium of the future creed and sect will be forgotten in a universal attempt to literally live the golden rule.

Such appeals to discord and inciters of religious strife as the Menace are anachronisms in this enlightened age. They belong to the dark age of religious oppression—and should be numbered with the rack, the torture chamber, the fires of Smithfield and the horrors of the Inquisition. The world has outgrown them all.

A Defender of the Menace Threatens the Mail Tribune

United States Post Office Ashland, Or., March 17, 1914.

Dear Sir: I got acquainted with you in your editorial of Saturday, March 14, paper, on "The Menace." You showed up in your true light in that editorial and proved that you are one of the pope's dailies in the United States. It shows very plainly that you do not read the Menace or you would have known better than to make such a fool of yourself as to make that time-worn statement about the "pin-headed bigots" who do read the Menace.

You have gotten and will get more free advertising by those remarks than you know. 'Tis more honor to be a "pinhead" than a "toe-kisser." The Menace gains more "pinheads" in one week than your entire subscription list, and each one of 1,378,478 of these "pinheads" will hear of you and your "toe-kissing" remarks in the near future. There are more good, whole-souled people right here in Ashland and Medford who read that glorious little Menace and believe its truths than you have on your list of readers.

You speak of "bigots," of which you are in the wrong. The Menace readers are not "bigots," and if necessary I can prove it. Neither are we cowardly.

You have no doubt been highly praised for your editorial by your local priest, but he is only one praising against several hundred in this valley who have condemned you for it.

The Menace is not fighting a religion in America. It is fighting Romanism, and it has a million and a half of good Protestant people back of it. You are on the wrong foot when you back up the pope of Rome in his devilish-work in America and you will soon realize it. We are all after the cowardly pope-ridden dailies who don't believe in free speech and a free press, and you are among them.

Look at Spain and Peru and Mexico for a sample of your backer's work, and then, for the love of God, cease helping to make the United States as progressive (?) as they. Your daily news jugglers are doing great damage to your country. Print the truth; it won't take up so much space and is a lot better.

I will give you some real dope on this subject if I see any more slush like that printed in your paper. You are cheating your subscribers by printing it. Yours very truly, DONALD M. SPENCER.

Prohibit Paid Circulation of Subscriptions

To the Editor: The more I study the question of prohibiting paid circulation of petitions, the more firmly convinced I become that the present system is wrong in principle and misrepresentative.

The Medford Commercial club wants to help you. Will you co-operate to the extent of a two-cent postage stamp?

Without exaggeration, there have been thousands of visitors to the club's exhibit rooms making inquiry concerning persons who came from their home towns. In most cases the club has not been able to handle these inquiries owing to the lack of information. It wants that information.

An oak card index cabinet file is to be installed in the exhibit building in which to keep a list of the names, addresses and former addresses of the residents of Medford and surrounding sections. The club feels the need of this list. Let it be able to put you in touch with people coming here from your former home. It may prove both agreeable and remunerative to you.

Will each reader kindly assist in this work by filling in the accompanying coupon and mailing it to the Medford Commercial club today.
