

SALMON CLUB TO ABOLISH HEAVY FISHING TACKLE

(By Walter F. Backus.) A new Anglers' club has recently been formed, to be known as the Salmon Club of Oregon. The purpose of the organization is to encourage the use of light tackle in the taking of large game fish.

The following rules adopted by the Salmon club show the radical new style of tackle required: The rods used may be made of any material except solid bamboo cane. They must not be less than five feet in length and weigh not over six ounces.

The line must not be heavier than the standard nine-thread linen line. Any style of reel or spoon may be used and the wire leader must not exceed three feet in length.

Angler Must Do Gaffing The angler must reel in his fish, bring it to gaff unaided, and must do the gaffing himself. If a rod is broken at any time during the struggle with the fish, it will disqualify the catch.

As a reward of merit, buttons will be awarded as follows: For salmon taken on light tackle weighing 20 pounds or over, the angler will receive a bronze button bearing the emblem of the club.

Light Tackle Only While the use of light tackle may seem almost incredible to persons not familiar with big game fishing, it has been used with great success in other sections of the country.

The club has appointed members of the weighing committees in every part of the state where there is any possibility of such a fish being taken. About a month later the main body of salmon reach the upper Rogue river and for 100 miles along this stream salmon may be taken from almost any of the riffles.

The season for light tackle on the Willamette river and all other inland streams will be from January 1 to July 1.

MEARS' DECLARATION IS FILED AT SALEM

SALEM, Or., March 26.—The declaration of Fred W. Mears of Medford for the progressive nomination for congress from the first district is on file today with the secretary of state. His slogan reads: "Social justice legislation; national woman's suffrage; presidential primary; homes protected; Oregon's development."

FAMOUS HINDU IS UNDER ARREST FOR RADICAL VIEWS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 26.—At just whose instance Har Dyal, perhaps the best known Hindu in the United States, was arrested by the immigration authorities on suspicion that he is a politically undesirable alien, was a mystery today.

That the British government would be glad to get him into its hands for trial as an alleged instigator of armed revolt in India against England's rule was admitted. It was not known, however, that it had made any representations to Washington concerning the case.

All that had definitely leaked out was that the immigration department has been making a widespread investigation into the activities of Hindus who, living in the United States, have been preaching revolt against British domination of their own country, and it was said many more arrests were likely.

Dyal was arrested as he was leaving a meeting in Bohemian hall, at which Hindus, who were the evening's speakers, had denounced England's Indian policy in strong terms.

He is an Oxford graduate, widely traveled, brilliant, an able speaker and never has made any secret of his radical views. Formerly he was lecturer on Hindu philosophy at Stanford university, but was allowed to resign because, it was said, of his unofficial comments on social conditions.

His home is in Berkeley. All he said when arrested was that "everything will come out all right."

The grand chancellor is on his return trip from a tour of the leading California towns in company with grand lodge officers of that state and Supreme Keeper of Records and Seal Wheaton. He is one of the best posted and most enthusiastic Pythians in the west and no doubt will give his hearers something worth while.

NEWS FROM COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS By A. C. Howlett

Porter J. Neff and wife, Miss Menley and Benjamin C. Sheldon of Medford and John V. McIntyre, cashier of the First State bank of Eagle Point, and wife took dinner at the Sunnyside last Sunday, and Thomas Abbott of Lake Creek and Miss Lorena Grigsby of Central Point spent Sunday night with us.

Miss Ellen Fox of Lake Creek filled the pulpit for Rev. L. L. Simmons last Sunday night and gave us a rousing lecture on the subject of the use of alcoholic drinks, treating the subject from a scientific standpoint, showing the effect that alcohol has on the human system. Then she told us of the effect its use had on the community at large, giving statistics showing that the expense of the liquor traffic amounted to more than the cost of bread and sugar, and that it took 100,000 of our boys and girls to replenish the ranks of those who die from the effects of its use.

A. H. Horton and wife of Brownsboro were in town Monday. Mrs. O. E. Nichols and her cousin, George S. Downing and wife of Montana took a trip up on Little Butte creek to visit Mrs. Nichols' brother-in-law and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farlow. Mr. Downing is very much pleased with our country and especially our climate, but thinks that the upper Butte creek country is rather rough. They were up as far as the old Farlow place, just this side of the soda springs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tucker of Hampton, Ia., who have been visiting his brothers, E. H. and R. C. Tucker of Brownsboro, since the last of February, started for their home the 15th inst, spent the night with their niece, Mrs. William Morris, at Central Point. They came via Portland and made several stops on their way, visiting relatives and taking in the sights along the route. They are going via San Francisco and spend some time there. Mr. Tucker expects to return in 1915, take in the world's fair and then come up here and settle in this valley, for he is simply delighted with southern Oregon.

Ed Dutton, our new road supervisor, has been changing the road between here and the Antelope bridge and those who have seen his work are singing his praise. He surely is doing some fine work. Tuesday morning's train bore the remains of D. G. Carnes, and there were quite a number of the members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Medford, and also several of the members of the Eagle Point lodge went to Butte Falls to take part in the burial exercises. Rev. L. L. Simmons officiated.

J. P. Alexander, sales manager of the Studebaker cars, was at the Sunnyside for dinner Tuesday; also Irvin Howe and his uncle, George Howe, of Trail. They came out from Trail to bring a lot of mohair for Mr. Ash, the Trail merchant.

Mrs. O. Bell of Brownsboro and her son-in-law, George Brown, were doing business with our merchants Tuesday. A notice calling for applicants for examination in the civil service for the position of postmaster in Eagle Point to meet the examiners in Medford April 11, 1914, is posted in our postoffice. It seems to be the universal desire that the present incumbent, A. J. Florey, will be continued in the position, as a more efficient and accommodating man will be hard to find.

Miss Edna Whitney of Portland, a member of the nurse corps of that city, came down to bring William Von der Hellen's little daughter, Joyce, who has been in a hospital for treatment. Miss Edna is one of our Jackson county raised girls and has quite a number of friends here. Mrs. W. W. Willits and her daughter, Miss Inez, came out from their home, Persist, Tuesday, spent the night with us and went to Medford Wednesday morning.

A number from Phoenix and Medford gathered at W. V. Barnum's Wednesday morning to see the smudging of the orchard. The temperature dropped as low as 27 degrees above, but any injury to the fruit was prevented by smudging. A miniature cyclone of a few minutes duration struck town Tuesday afternoon. D. Steadman's woodshed was moved a short distance and large sheets of paper which were blowing around the streets when the wind began to raise were carried high in the air just outside of town where they sailed in the air for some little time looking like large birds. No damage was done but it set many of our citizens talking of the cyclones they knew of and passed through in the east.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Don't look old! Try Grandmother's recipe to darken and beautify faded, lifeless hair. That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Easy and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2. This plan makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50. Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchial asthma. Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Pinex is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualic acid and other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination. The prompt results from this mixture have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
