

FOUR CONVICTS AT FOLSOM KILLED TRYING TO ESCAPE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 6.—Jose Lacerien, Earl W. Siprell, Raymond Blade and Norman C. Hair, the four convicts who were killed at Folsom state prison when, with nine others, they made a desperate attempt to escape late Saturday afternoon, were buried today in the prison cemetery. The fifth convict who was shot, Percy Barnes, probably will recover.

Never in the history of the prison was there a more daring attempt at jailbreak. The thirteen incorrigibles had been removed from the solitary confinement ward of the prison, owing to crowded conditions, to the building for the criminal insane, about a quarter of a mile from the prison walls proper. They were placed in a tier of cells which had not been completed, having wooden doors with ordinary hinges. The steel doors had not arrived.

Guard John Auglin late Saturday afternoon overheard the plan of the convicts to escape. He sent word to the prison and Guards T. Squifflet and Edward Weisbach, two crack shots, appeared on the scene with repeating Winchester.

When the convicts began to yell and pound on the doors the guards stood brazen with their guns leveled. Finally the doors gave way. The rifles spoke and nearly every shot fired found a human mark. Five men dropped, four shot through the heart, and Barnes just below the heart. The other eight convicts retreated, begging for mercy. Hair, a desperate youth who headed a prison break a few months ago, did not die instantly.

The verdict of Coroner Gormley was that the four convicts met death at the hands of prison guards, shot in the performance of their duty.

HOW THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER WILL APPEAR IN PART OF HER CHOICE SELECTION OF HER WEDDING TROUSSEAU

MISS ELEANOR WILSON AS SHE WILL APPEAR IN A WHITE CREPE AND NET EVENING DRESS AND AFTERNOON DRESS OF GOLD AND CREPE DE CHINE; PURCHASED FROM J. M. GIDDING AND CO. AS PART OF HER WEDDING TROUSSEAU

The accompanying picture shows how Miss Eleanor Wilson, the President's daughter, who is soon to be married to William G. McAdoo, the Secretary of the Treasury, will appear in part of her wedding trousseau. It shows her in a blue dress and one of all white, which she purchased from J. M. Gidding when she was trousseau shopping in New York. The dresses are quite simple in design. One is a blue dress of an unusual style and is intended for the afternoon. Both the tunic and the jacket back of the blouse are cut in fish tail points. The material is crepe de Chine, in an exquisite old blue shade, with a collar and belt of gold colored crepe. The other is a simple evening dress. This is of ivory white crepe de Chine and silk net, the combination of net and silk being considered one of the fads of the season.

LEACH CROSS STARTS WORK FOR WELSH GO

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 6.—Leach Cross journeyed today to Wheeler Springs, a mountain resort, to begin training for his match with Freddie Welsh at Vernon, April 28. His kit contained gloves and punching bags, and he will vary his mountain climbing with some outdoor gymnasium work.

Welsh was scheduled to reach Los Angeles from San Diego late today. He will take quarters at Doyle's camp and do light work until the week of the battle.

Promoter McCarey's plans for the near future include another "last chance" for Joe Rivers. It is likely that the Mexican will be sent against Jimmy Duffy if the Buffalo lightweight can be brought to the Pacific coast. The winner of this match will provide a July 4 opponent for the winner of the Cross-Welsh bout, unless McCarey gets Willie Ritchie and the Los Angeles fans have faint hope of such joy.

Mr. Bowby is pleased with the progress of the work in the counties that have already begun building permanent roads. Bonds to the amount of $1,605,000 have been voted in the state for good roads and a large portion of the amount will be spent this year. AUTO PLUNGES OVER PRECIPICE, SIRE, SONS DIE

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 6.—P. O. Hilstrom, game warden and deputy sheriff of Clark county, is dead today as the result of the automobile in which he and two sons were riding dashing over a thirty-foot precipice. One son, George, was badly bruised when thrown from the car before it fell, and the other, Stanford, leaped to safety.

Hilstrom was driving and in making a sharp turn in the road brought the car to the brink of the precipice. He stopped the machine, but when he started it again, threw in the gear clutch instead of the reverse lever. The car shot over the embankment. The sons found Hilstrom's body in the bed of a creek under two feet of water, entangled in the steering gear.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 6.—The middleweight championship of the world was claimed here today for Jimmy Clabby by Larney Lichtenstein, his manager.

"Clabby is certainly entitled to the honor by now," said Larney. "He holds decisions over Mike Gibbons and Eddie McGoorty, and besides that he is willing to meet all comers in 20 round bouts. I stand ready to guarantee Chip, Gibbons or Dillon $5000 if they will come to the coast to meet Clabby. There is no question but that they can get more money out here, but they insist on staying in the east for the ten round no-decision game.

"Clabby is willing to defend his title against any middleweight in the world. He will remain here a week or so to watch developments for a return match with Billy Murray or any other middleweight who wants any of his game."

JAP MURDERER OF WOMAN WAS FOLSOM FAVORITE

STOCKTON, Cal., April 6.—Inquests on the bodies of Mrs. Nettie C. Harbert, wife of Dr. Ellis Harbert and I. Katsura, her Japanese house servant, who murdered her in her home here late Saturday and then committed suicide, following a desperate battle with the police in the basement of the Harbert home will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The jury probably will find either that the cause of the murder is unknown or will declare the belief that Katsura was insane.

Katsura was a paroled convict. He killed a Japanese in a fight in San Francisco in 1906, according to Prison Director Neumaller of this city. He was convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to fifteen years in Folsom. There he became Warden Johnson's house servant, waiting on the warden's wife and three children.

Mrs. Harbert is survived by a son by a former marriage, Homer Jennings of Seattle, and by two sisters, Mrs. P. H. Thornton of Colwater, Kan., and Miss Clara Robbins of Los Angeles.

It was explained that the purpose is to outdo by sea and rail, the fastest time now made along the coast and from the coast into the interior. The plans call for the expenditure of many millions of dollars.

Two ships for the coastwise service, it was stated, are now being built at Philadelphia.

The government, Hill sources were authority for saying, will spend $2,000,000 in dredging Tillamook harbor and it was understood that it was to secure federal aid in opening this harbor that James J. Hill's recent trips to Washington were undertaken.
