

WORKERS INJURED CEILO EXPLOSION LIKELY TO RECOVER

THE DALLES, Or., April 9.—It was believed today that the six men injured in the explosion of dynamite yesterday near Big Eddy on the Dalles-Celilo canal, in which four others lost their lives, will recover, although two of them were frightfully cut and bruised. The explosion was caused by a steam shovel striking a "missed" fire. First reports were that seven men had been killed. The dead were:

Edward Kandler, steam shovel engineer; Alex. Land, Ed Ryan and C. Oldrich, pitmen.

The force of the explosion was terrific, partially destroying the nearby surface works and almost demolishing the huge steam shovel. Kandler, the engineer, was thrown into the cogs of a big wheel by the force of the explosion and his body ground to bits.

Nearly every bone in the body of Oldrich was broken when a rock car was lifted bodily and dropped on him.

Arthur Eckerson, a powderman, was the most seriously injured. A stone driven by the blast struck his nose and left it hanging by slender threads of flesh. Physicians removed the nose entirely.

SEEK TO SECURE STAY FOR GUNMEN

NEW YORK, April 9.—Attorney Joseph Shay, representing former Police Lieutenant Charles F. Becker, recently granted a re-trial following his conviction on a charge of murdering Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, announced today that he was prepared to file an order before the state supreme court, asking District Attorney Whitman to show cause why a commission should not be appointed to take the deposition of the four New York gunmen sentenced to die April 13 for Rosenthal's murder. If any justice of the court receives such an order it was believed here that the execution of the four men would be delayed.

SCRIPPS SERIOUSLY ILL. PASSES COMFORTABLE NIGHT

PASADENA, Cal., April 9.—William A. Scripps, veteran newspaperman, who is seriously ill at his Altadena home, passed a comfortable night. Early today he was believed to be in no immediate danger, and it was stated that so far as the acute attack of pneumonia is concerned the crisis is safely passed. On account of his prolonged ill-health preceding the attack of pneumonia, Scripps' complete recovery is gravely doubted, however.

Mrs. Scripps and two daughters, Mrs. G. O. Ellis of Detroit and Mrs. F. W. Kellogg of Altadena, have been constantly in attendance upon the sick man.

Mrs. A. R. Eyer of Reymore, Wash., is here visiting one of her old neighbors, Mr. Haverkyde and family.
Edward M. Koenig of Oakland, Cal., a representative of the Building Investment company of Oakland, Cal., spent the night with us Monday on his way to Derby to visit his mother, Mrs. Hill.
C. J. Herron, formerly manager of the Dr. Coghlin orchard, has been here for the past few days, packing his furniture, getting it ready to be shipped to Portland, where he will take charge of a floral establishment.
Mr. Hughes of Butte Falls was with us Monday night on his way to his home in Butte Falls. Mr. Hughes had been out to Medford to put in an order for more goods for his store at Butte Falls. He seems to be quite optimistic with regard to the future of his home town.
Herman Meyer and his son, Herman J., of Lake Creek, were at the Sunnyside for dinner Tuesday.
Last Saturday afternoon Ed Winkle and a man by the name of Wyatt came in from Medford in a rig and soon after engaged in a fist fight on the street and soon found themselves in the lockup or cooler, but were soon released on $10 cash bail to appear before our town recorder, J. V. McIntyre. Monday morning Mr. Wyatt failed to appear, but Mr. Winkle was on hand and at first pleaded not guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct and fighting on the street, but after hearing the evidence of H. O. Childreth he changed his mind and pleaded guilty, and the court imposed a fine of $12.60, including costs, which he paid.

Our town marshal ran three donkeys into the pound last Monday, but they were taken out Tuesday.
Jeff Brophy of Peyton and wife were in town Tuesday.
Ralph Tucker of Brownsboro brought in his clipping of mohair Tuesday and sold it to Brown Bros. and they shipped it to Salem.
George Lynch of Elk creek also brought in his mohair Tuesday night for the same firm. He was in company of John J. Winingham and they spent the night at the Sunnyside.
I understand that David Cingede has sold his band of sheep to Geo. Brown of Brownsboro and Frank Rhodes, but I did not learn the price paid. I also learned that David Cingede has purchased about fifty head of cattle, but did not learn the particulars. Roy Ashpole, one of hardware merchants, was helping him brand his cattle Tuesday.
S. A. Carlton of Ashland, who has been on his farm, about five miles southeast of here, was in town the first of the week.
Mrs. Katie Walsh came over on Tuesday night to see her little grandson, Lester Messal, who was operated on by Drs. Holt Stearns and Thayer some time ago for appendicitis, is on the road to recovery.

In my last I made mention of the death of Grandma Allen April 3, and promised to give more of the particulars in my next. Mrs. Rachel Allen was born in Lundenburg county, Ky., January 15, 1821, aged 93 years, 2 months and 18 days. She was married twice, the first time to Cyrus Ganes in her native state, and after his death she married Thomas J. Allen in St. Louis, Mo. The dates of the marriages could not be obtained. She crossed the plains in 1864 to Portland, Or., and in 1869 moved to Jackson county, Oregon, where she has made her home most of the time up to the day of her death. She professed religion when she was quite young and united with the Baptist church and lived a consistent Christian life. She leaves two boys by her first husband and three boys and one girl by Mr. Allen. She also leaves two stepsons by Mr. Allen's first wife. She was a woman that was highly esteemed by those who knew her best. She died at the home of her son, John M. Allen, near Derby, where she made her home during the latter part of her life. For several years she was blind and dependent, but the kindly hands of her son's family ministered to her every want. The remains were interred in the Jacksonville cemetery Monday, April 6. The religious services were conducted by Rev. A. C. Howlett.

MARTINEZ, Cal., April 9.—Attorney Thomas B. Johnson continued his argument before Judge Barber here today in defense of Thomas Mooney, one of the men charged with having high explosives in his possession on a boat which touched at Point San Pablo last fall and was raided by the police in its crew's absence ashore. The whole trend of Johnson's talk was to the effect that it was not so much Mooney as organized labor the prosecution was directing its case against. "Organized labor," he asserted, "has dared to oppose the Pacific Gas & Electric company and the company is trying to discipline labor through Thomas Mooney."

He dwelt with special emphasis on the fact, so he said, that Assistant District Attorney Ormsby had practically turned the case over to Attorneys M. R. Jones and J. J. Barrett, who, he declared, ostensibly as special prosecutors, really were representing the gas and electric company.

SAYS LABOR UNIONS REAL DEFENDANTS IN MOONEY CASE

HEALDSBURG, Cal., April 9.—Quite a stiff earthquake shock was felt here about 9:45 a. m. today. People rushed into the streets and for a short time something like panic prevailed. The shock was confined, so far as could be learned, to Healdsburg's immediate vicinity.

ZAPATA FREES BISHOP
INSTEAD OF CRUCIFYING

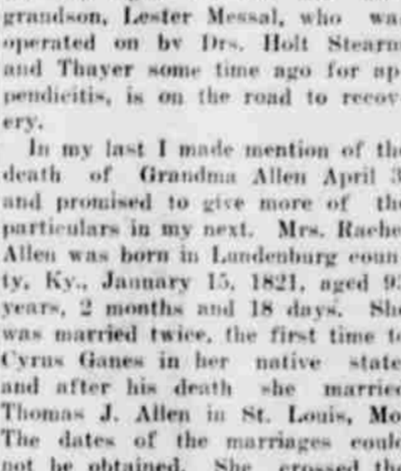

MEXICO CITY, April 9.—Bishop Campos of Chipala, released by the Zapatistas who were holding him for ransom, reached the town of Iguala today. The threat to crucify him, he said, was not made by General Zapata himself but by a subordinate. When the news reached Zapata of the violent feeling it had created throughout the country, he ordered the prisoner released.
