COUNTY COMMISSIONER KLAMATH RESIGNS

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., April 17.—County Commissioner Guy Merrill yesterday resigned and his uncle, Nathan S. Merrill, a former commissioner and founder of the town of Merrill, was chosen to succeed him. In addition, the new commissioner has become a candidate for nomination as commissioner in the democratic primaries. The resignation of Guy Merrill came as a surprise, as it was expected that he would announce his candidacy for re-election today. He says that his business will keep him out of the state.

McKee Rankin is Dead

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 17.—McKee Rankin, the veteran character actor, died here today after several weeks' illness. For years Rankin was identified with Nance O'Neill, in Shakespearean productions.

San Francisco.—Edward Greely, bachelor rancher, applied for a fishing license. Instead he got a marriage license, and his name was carefully inscribed on the official marriage license book. Greely immediately hurried back to correct the error.

San Francisco.—A well dressed man impersonated here the advance agent of the Hells-Flo-to circus. After various merchants had advanced him several hundred dollars he skipped out. Then the real advance agent appeared.

ROGUE RIVER APPLES IN FAR CORNERS

Billy Ware, well known commercial traveler who sells shoes all over the coast and visits Beebe and Kinney of Ashland semi-annually, is in the city and tells a very interesting story of his recent tour of foreign countries. Mr. Ware was particularly interested to find the Rogue river apples in many unexpected places. In Egypt, six hundred miles down the Nile at Assuan, he found apples labeled with a big sign "Rogue River, Oregon, Apples." In many other places he ran across them and wherever he found them they were featured above all others—apparently being considered superior to anything else in that line the trade could secure. At Harod's in London—one of the biggest provision emporiums of the city—he found them featured with signs printed in box car letters and selling at ten cents apiece. He says he bought a sack of them and was tickled to death to get them even at that price, but jokingly told the dealer that out in Oregon he could get them for picking them—Ashland Record.

POOR OLD TOM HAS DREAM HOPES ENDED

(Ashland Record.)
 Next year as the tourist from the east swoops over the Siiskiyou from the chigger-infested sand dunes of California he will not glide through a triumphal arch emblazoned "Gateway City of Oregon," nor be greeted by a splendid edifice capped with towers and minarets flying the flag of every county in Oregon. During the long steps incident to the mountain haul he will not wonder through spacious aisles and admire the alfalfa and the pumpkins and the fruit and the minerals and wild game and timber and livestock of a great state. No bands will play and no movies will fill and no orators will extol the glories of Oregon. Tom Richardson of Portland—incapable booster and builder of empires and air castles—has fallen down. He admits that his beautiful scheme is now split. Poor Old Tom—if he had half as much money as he has exuberance he would be the richest man in the world.

COOLEY MURDER TRIAL UP IN AUGUST

GOLD BEACH, Ore., April 17.—Judge Coke, of the circuit court for Curry county, adjourned the regular April term of court with a night session last night. During the term the grand jury brought in the following indictments: George N. Mayer was charged with manslaughter for the killing of Willard E. Isenhart, of Chetco, while out hunting. Mayer claimed that he had shot Isenhart, mistaking him for a deer. Edmund Eggers, for the killing of John Bush on the Sles river, was charged with manslaughter. Eggers also claimed that he had taken his man for a deer. The Cooley murder case was called, but continued to the August term of the court, as the state's witnesses failed to appear. No jury was drawn at this term of the court, and the three homicide cases on the docket, named above, will be tried at the August term.

Ship Afire at New Orleans

MOBILE, Ala., April 17.—That his vessel was afire and needed immediate aid was the word received here today in a wireless message from Captain Olsen of the Norwegian steamship Alm of the Zeberg line. Fire tugs were sent out from here at once. The steamer was reported in the lower bay.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 17.—"Lee Tong," shouted the municipal court clerk in calling the next case after Andy Matson, arrested for intoxication had been freed with a lecture. "Me leave town?" anxiously queried Matson, "why I've lived here all my life." The mistake was explained. Andy departed happy.

COOK BOOK

Use any cook book you please—the one you have always known, or any new one if you prefer. Merely use wherever the directions say butter or lard, always remembering to use one-third less Cottolene, for Cottolene goes much farther than either butter or lard.

You really have to save money if you cook with Cottolene, for according to chemical laws, a certain amount of flour can only contain a certain amount of shortening. If you were to use as much Cottolene as the recipe called for of butter, you would have too much Cottolene. This might do no harm, except in cakes, which might fall because of being too light and delicate. Yes, this applies to every department of the cook book, even to candies.

For example, just try this:
CODFISH BALLS.
 Take a pint bowl of codfish picked very fine, two pint bowls of raw peeled potatoes, sliced thickly, and boil in cold water until the potatoes are thoroughly done. Drain off the water, mash, add butter the size of an egg, one well-beaten egg and three tablespoons of milk. Flour the hands and make into balls. Put two ounces of Cottolene into a frying pan, and when hot, fry the balls to a nice brown. Or the codfish balls may be fried in hot Cottolene after the manner of fritters.

Our FREE Cook Book, HOME HELPS, will be found a valuable supplement to any books you may now be using. Write for a copy—also order a pail of Cottolene of your grocer.
