OUR STATE SEAL IN GOLD
Given Away as a Watch Charm to Every Purchaser of Tuxedo

For the benefit of the men of Oregon, the American Tobacco Company has had made a special set of dies from which our state seal is issued in 14-karat gold plated medallion form, suitable for use as a watch charm, either upon chain or fob.

These state seal medallions are beautiful examples of the jeweler's art and will be enthusiastically sought after. Not only are they in the height of good taste for the well-dressed man, but they also symbolize the state pride and patriotism of the man who wears one of them.

The great seal of Oregon shows a shield crowned by the American eagle, surrounded by 33 stars signifying that Oregon was the 33rd state admitted to the Union. Across the shield are the words, "The Union," below which are illustrated a sheaf of wheat, a plow and a pickaxe emblematic of the prosperity and industry of Oregon. Above is seen mountains, an elk with branching antlers, a wagon and the Pacific ocean, on which a British man-of-war is departing and an American steamer arriving. This detail of the state seal is brought out by heavy embossing on the watch charm.

Get your Tuxedo at once, in order to take advantage of this generous special offer. Remember, a 14-karat gold-plated watch charm, representing the state seal, is given with a 6c pouch of Tuxedo.
