STEP TAKEN TO EDUCATE YOUTH REGARDING SEX

Steps towards the eradication of the false modesty connected with the discussion of sex questions effecting the young were taken at a meeting of representative citizens Thursday night at an address given by Dr. W. T. Williamson of Portland. A permanent committee composed of Drs. E. B. Pickel and J. J. Emmens and W. I. Vawter, was appointed to conduct a campaign of education in this city.

Dr. Williamson in his talk dwelt upon the folly of casting a cloud of secrecy upon subjects, the truth of which is vital to the health and happiness of a rising generation. The ravages of ignorance on these subjects, were responsible he said, for much of the suffering of humanity, and left as wide a trail of woe and misery as war.

LONGSHOREMEN STRIKE ON STEAMER NAVAJO

PORTLAND, Or., May 1.—Fifteen members of the office force of the American-Hawaiian Steamship company and the crew of the steamer Navajo were discharging the vessel's cargo today, after efforts to arrange for the return to work of longshoremen who walked out late yesterday because the recently organized Freight Checkers' union was not recognized, had failed. C. D. Kennedy, local agent of the company, issued an ultimatum stating that the union would not be recognized under any circumstances. Whether the longshoremen employed by the San Francisco & Portland Steamship company will walk out hinges on conferences being held between representatives of the union and the company today.

ROOSEVELT NEAR HOME: BULL MOOSERS RALLY

CHICAGO, May 1.—Continued allegiance to the progressive party is pledged by members of the national executive committee of progressives in a cablegram sent last night to Col. Roosevelt at Manaus, Brazil. The message replied to one received during the day from the former president, stating he expected to announce his future plans in a few days. "The central western state chairman meeting with the executive committee here today and rejoice at your safe arrival. Our organization is stronger in faith than ever and hail your return to our fighting forces." The cablegram was signed by William Flinn, Albert J. Beveridge and Jasper Schenk of Iowa.

CRESCENT CITY HARBOR

CONCERNING the Crescent City harbor, the San Francisco Chronicle speaks editorially as follows: "Northwestern California and southwestern Oregon form a district almost unknown to the outside world, but abundantly endowed with natural resources, for whose exploitation the time has now come.

"Crescent City, in Del Norte county, is the natural outlet by sea for that region, but its harbor requires considerable improvement to make it available for an important all-the-year-round traffic, and, up to this time, the internal transportation facilities have not been sufficient to bring to the port a commerce justifying a large outlay for its improvement.

"As a result of a recent survey, the army engineers in charge recommended the construction of a breakwater and other improvements aggregating nearly $2,000,000, including shore work, which naturally belongs to the community itself, but that sum is now recognized as inadequate for what ought to be done, and the board will apparently recommend a new survey for a larger project.

"Within a short time, depending largely upon the money market, Del Norte county will be opened up by rail. At the hearings in this city before the reserve bank organization board, a Southern Pacific railroad official testified that it was the plan of his company to continue as rapidly as possible the line from Eugene in the Willamette valley, which it is building into southwestern Oregon, where it will meet the rails of the Northwestern Pacific, which is to be extended north from Eureka, which it will reach some time next autumn.

"If there comes financial peace, therefore, within a reasonable time, all that valuable but unknown country will be connected with the world, and Crescent City will become a considerable shipping point justifying the construction of an adequate breakwater on the more exposed side of its harbor, and whatever channel work is necessary.

"All this will not happen at once. We do not know that the army board has yet actually recommended the appropriation for the new survey, and congress has certainly not yet appropriated the money. But that is as certain to come as the construction of the railroads now well under way both from the north and the south, and which will be continued to a junction as rapidly as the money can be obtained and prudently expended."

SEX HYGIENE

THE campaign of education of the State Hygiene society, which was opened in Medford last evening, should be most vigorously prosecuted.

Statistics compiled by these societies disclose a most startling prevalence of sexual disorders, due largely to parental neglect and the widespread fallacy that diseases of this character are not dangerous and are susceptible of prompt and permanent cure.

Authentic statistics show that about seventy-five per cent of all blindness is indirectly chargeable to these disorders; that they are directly responsible for seventy-five per cent of the pelvic operations performed on women and that fifty per cent of the population have either had or now are afflicted with sexual diseases.

The subject is not a pleasant one and the average citizen shrinks from any discussion of it, but the appalling waste of human energy and human life call for drastic hygienic measures, and education on this much-evaded subject is best calculated to get results.

AL M'COY ASKS FORTUNE TO MEET BILLY MURRAY

NEW YORK, May 1.—Every boxing promoter from San Francisco to Boston is laughing at the demands of Al McCoy, the Brooklyn middleweight, whose sole claim to fame is the trick he turned when he laid out George Chip with a wallop on the jaw. Chip claims the punch was a lucky one and has offered to bet $50,000 that he can turn the tables if they ever meet again. McCoy, however, has never replied to this offer.

HOLD ROCKEFELLER TO BLAME FOR STRIKE CONTINUANCE

DENVER, Colo., May 1.—Responsibility for the flat refusal of Colorado mine operators to arbitrate the differences with the striking coal miners rests with John D. Rockefeller, Jr., according to union officials here today.

Congressman Foster, chairman of the committee which investigated conditions in the Colorado mining regions, telegraphed Rockefeller last night that William Green, an official of the United Mineworkers of America, had announced that the miners were willing to waive their demand for union recognition and urged him to settle the strike on this basis. Rockefeller immediately forwarded the message to operators here.

Late last night the operators wired Foster, refusing to "enter into negotiations of a character with officers of the miners. The declaration was taken to mean that the operators will refuse to arbitrate on any basis. They insist that they have 10,000 loyal miners ready to go to work when they are afforded protection, and charge that leaders of the strikers directly incited "murderous attacks on mill-towns and mine guards."

District President McLennan of the United Mineworkers of America declared today that Rockefeller's influence was responsible for the refusal of the operators to arbitrate, and asserted they were following his suggestions to the letter.
