

BOOS BACK FROM CALIFORNIA TOUR FOR GOOD ROADS

Geo. E. Boos, secretary of the Tri-State Pacific County Good Roads association returned yesterday from a successful good roads campaign in California. Mr. Boos says, "The old town looks good to me and I am glad to look in once more. I returned at this time to prepare preliminary arrangements for the second annual convention of the Tri-State association which is to be held at Medford this summer."

"I look for a big delegation from California to this meeting, especially so from the central and northern districts of the state, who are very much interested in the Southern Oregon road building spirit."

"During my campaign, I visited 72 cities and towns, attending many road meetings and when called upon, I emphasized the good road work now in progress in Southern Oregon, and called special attention to the meeting which is to be held at Medford."

"I also made it a point to get as much publicity as possible and every newspaper in these localities gave splendid notices of our association and its next meeting, and I feel satisfied that through these means, Southern Oregon and especially Medford got on the map."

"I will now begin my campaign in Oregon and Washington, although we have already a fair representation in these states. It is my purpose to have our association just as strong in these two states as it is in California. Our association started out last September with less than two hundred members, today our enrollment numbers 1582 and should reach 2000 before the Medford meeting, the date of the second annual convention to be held at Medford will be determined within a few days."

"Governor Johnson of California has agreed that he will appoint at least one delegate from each of the 72 cities and towns which are represented on the association list. He will also attend this meeting in person if possible, being a member of the association and appreciating the Southern Oregon spirit, he is very much interested in the coming meeting."

DAVID GOLDSTEIN TO LECTURE HERE TONIGHT

Mr. Goldstein, who is to lecture at the Page theater tonight on "Christianity vs. Socialism," will arrive on No. 16 today from California points, where he has already conducted a successful campaign. Mr. Goldstein has a good reputation as a speaker and ready debater and should put up a good talk on the subject of hand. The lecture is scheduled for 8 o'clock and is free to all.

O'SHAUGHNESSY TO VISIT UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, May 1.—It was learned authoritatively today that Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy, who has represented the United States in Mexico since Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson's recall, is to return to the United States shortly for a personal conference with President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan.

CHINESE REVOLT GIVEN IMPETUS BY CONSTITUTION

SHANGHAI, May 1.—The new constitution published today, promises to give added impetus to the revolutionary movement throughout Southern and Central China.

Many of the comparatively moderate republicans who have hitherto been holding back on the theory that the federal fundamental code President Yuan Shi Kai was having compiled would limit his powers, will now certainly join the radicals, good judges predicted.

Except that the president is not authorized to inflate laws, no law made virtually absolute, and even in cases where he might be unable to secure enactment of statutes he desires, he is empowered to issue decrees which have the full effect of laws.

Provision is made for a national legislature but its authority is so circumscribed that it can do little more than carry out the president's wishes.

It was the general view that new China will not submit to a regime of this kind without a struggle.

COAST ARTILLERYMEN DROWN IN LEAKY BOAT

FORT STEVENS, Ore., May 1.—Corporal Klempe and Private Price of the Thirty-Fourth company, Coast Artillery Corps, are dead today as the result of drowning when the launch in which they were picking up mines foundered in the lower Columbia river. Musician Hoeng, Private Smith and Private Decker, also occupants of the boat, were rescued with difficulty.

Under orders of Lieutenant Couley, commanding the mine planter, the men put out in heavy weather in a launch that is said to have been leaking. By bailing, the soldiers kept the craft afloat, but when they picked up a distribution box and some heavy cable, it began to settle and finally sank. Sergeant Simmons, in a yawl, reached the scene in a few minutes and rescued Hoeng, Smith and Decker, but Klempe and Price had disappeared beneath the water. Their companions had supported them until weakened by cold, were compelled to relinquish their hold.

ASHLAND CARES FOR THOUSANDS OF HOBOES

(From the Tidings)
Since January 1, the local police have handled 2984 wayfarers, and since the first of November last almost 6000 have passed through Ashland. During the past month 954 have been housed at the police station and passed on. This shows from 20 to 54 have been handled each day during the month.

When these figures are taken into consideration it is considered remarkable that not a robbery of any kind has been reported to the police, no crime of any kind out of the ordinary has disturbed the local quiet.

Chief Porter's men are certainly to be congratulated upon the manner in which they deal with this class of men.

Having rescued the Sacred elephant and restored it to its devotees, Kathleen and her party are captured by the brigands and held for ransom. Kathleen lashed to the cage of a famished tiger with death at her back and facing death, makes a marvelous escape.

The Hopi Raiders, an Indian story, Unveiling the Maine monument, and Andy the Actor (being the fourth adventure of Andy), makes a bill that every one should see. The above will be shown Friday and Saturday at the Isis theatre, Medford's popular photoplay house.

JOHN D. JR., THREATENED TO BRING COLORADO PEACE

NEW YORK, May 1.—A demonstration was held last night before the West Fifty-fourth street residence of John D. Rockefeller and John D. Jr., by men claiming to represent the anti-military league. They walked back and forth carrying placards bearing the inscription "Thou shalt not kill, either in Mexico or Colorado." It is said Rockefeller and son were not at home during the demonstration.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble—Salts fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms lactic acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

CLEANEST PLAY OF SADDER WORLD AT PAGE MAY 4

Coming to the Page theater on Monday, May 4, is Rachael Marshall's stirring new play, "The Traffic," which Ashton Stevens, the eminent critic of the Chicago Examiner, styles "the cleanest play of the sadder world ever written," and such it is.

The splendid courage of it proves its sincerity. Usually nasty subjects are dealt with publicly because of their drawing power when shielded behind high-sounding purposes of performing public duties. Exploiting the salacious under the transparent cloak of reform is an old subterfuge. But here it is different. No "love story" is run through in dramatic palliation; there is no "happy ending," but a true and cruelly masterful end which shows the hopeless road from which there is no turning.

It is a typical instance of the losing fight against need which makes a pretty girl vulnerable for the fall. The smooth member who catches her is a panderer to a chain of bawdy-houses. It is not always or usually the fact that when a girl slips from the main road she finds one of these insufferable rascals in the ditch to take her by the throat. But there are many. And, when they occur, the process is just as "The Traffic" shows it.

Then come the quick steps from chastity to vice, from the tyro to the "regular" from quivering sensitiveness to hardened habit, and you have the painted lady of the dive. Seldom does she have even the faintest opportunity that comes to the victim in this play, where a doctor who wants something, but does not seem to know just what he wants, acts as though he would marry her. She thinks a moment and shakes her head.

"THE SEA WOLF" AT STAR TODAY

The management of the Star theater offers for today and tomorrow Jack London's famous story of the sea, "The Sea Wolf."

This is the first of the Jack London stories to be filmed and no praise can be too high for the settings and for the photography. The spirit of the ocean, which London conjures with such enviable ease, is on the screen and travels from the screen to the delighted audience. The attention to detail in all nautical matters, the characterization of the type of sailors, who sail in the London stories—and we all know they are true enough sailors and always mighty interesting—leave not the least thing to be desired. It is indeed a masterpiece and is very complete, seven reels being necessary for its proper presentation.

Besides the "Sea-Wolf" Abrams & Budnick, singers of more than ordinary ability complete an exceptionally strong program.
