LAKE CREEK FUED AIRED IN COURT

A new angle in the Cool-Chapman-Daley row, which has been in progress in the Lake creek district for eighteen months, came to light today when Judge F. M. Calkins of the circuit court, upon application of Attorney W. J. Carlton, issued a temporary restraining order prohibiting W. S. Chapman from maintaining a fence that blocks the path that leads to irrigation ditch gates that furnishes the water for the Cool farm. The hearing on the injunction will be held in a day or two.

It is alleged by the Cools that the fence is part of a persistent effort that is being made by the pioneer families of the Lake creek community to run them out of the country, as the result of a feud that started when W. C. Daley, a pioneer, was hit over the head with a shovel in the hands of Mrs. Cool during a fight eighteen months ago. Cool and his wife were tried on charges of assault and acquitted, but this did not smother all the bitterness.

The Cool farm lies between the Daley and Chapman tracts. They are Portuguese, and Sergeant Pat Mego acts as interpreter.

FEDERALS EVACUATE TOWN OF SALTILLO

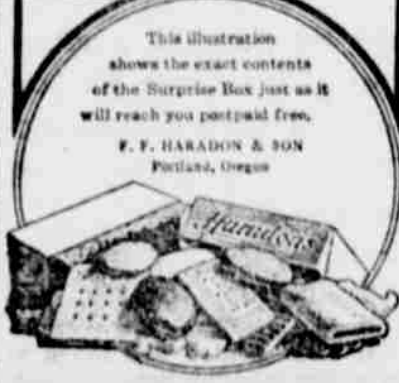

EL PASO, Texas, May 5.—Rebels at Juarez were predicting today that their forces would occupy Saltillo and Tampico within five weeks. Official dispatches from Monterrey tended to confirm earlier reports that the federals were evacuating Saltillo and falling back upon San Luis Potosi. General Carranza telegraphed to General Caballero, the rebel commander before Tampico, to enter into an armistice under no circumstances.

Several trainloads of uniforms, shoes and cavalry equipment were rushed today from Juarez to General Villa at the front.

"Simply collect 12 ends from six packages of 'Supreme' baked goods and if your grocer cannot supply you with a Surprise Box, mail them direct to Harrison & Son, Portland, Or. and they will be sent at once by parcel post, absolutely free." "It is an unconditional offer they are making to further introduce the rare quality of Supreme Sodas."
