"WHEN WE WERE 21" AT THE PAGE TONIGHT

Tonight "When We Were Twenty-One," is to be produced by the Claman players at the Page Theatre. This is the play that Nat Goodwin and Maxine Elliott made famous some years ago. It tells the story of the love of a man for the young boy who was left in his charge by a dying chum. He raises the boy to manhood, caring for him as if he were his own son and when the young fellow falls into the hands of a designing woman, he sacrifices himself to save the boy. There is a lot of good comedy in the play and as pretty a love story as ever was written.
The Claman's will give a matinee Saturday at which the prices will be ten cents for children and twenty for adults. "My Irish American Cousin" will be the bill and a good hearty laugh is promised to all who attend.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa. — "When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.
"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was no so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."
— MRS. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.
