AMERICAN SOLDIER LOST AT VERA CRUZ

VERA CRUZ, May 8.—Scouts were seeking today some trace of Private Parks, an orderly to Colonel Taggart of the Twenty Eighth Infantry. He disappeared yesterday with two horses, and it was feared he had either fallen into the hands of General Maas or was crazed by the heat and lost his way.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

Mrs. A. L. Vincent and daughter, Mrs. Gullison, spent Sunday with relatives at Trail. Corn planting is in order here. Miss Mae Davidson, of Central Point is visiting at the McBride home. Mrs. Jones of Portland is spending some time here with her daughter, Mrs. Washburn. Will Lydiard of Medford spent Sunday here with home folks, as also did the Misses Helen and Sue. Several of our citizens made hurried trips to Central Point last Saturday to register. Now is the time to poison gophers, squirrels and other rodents, as they are hungry for grain. The machine for planting broom corn arrived Monday and was put to work by our farmers. Several parties picnicked on the rock Sunday. They report that owing to the clearness of the air the view was fine. Weldon Sage Sundayed in Table Rock. At the last meeting of the "Arrowheads" Rose Nealon was elected president. At the ball game here last Sunday between Table Rock and Beagle, the former won the game by the close score of 6 to 5. A large crowd watched the game and both teams took a terrible grilling from rooters, but remained cool throughout it all, playing ball every minute. At the last meeting of the Table Rock Improvement association it was reported that blossom blight had showed up in one of our orchards, accordingly everyone was warned to be on the alert. Letters were read from Senators Hawley and Lane in regard to the weather station at Medford. Among other business taken up was the starting of a fly swatting campaign, naming of our highway, setting a day to work our roads and a campaign against weeds.
