PINCHOT VICTOR WITH PENROSE IN PARTY PRIMARIES

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Bole Penrose, republican; A. Mitchell Palmer, democratic, and Gifford Pinchot, progressive, will make the fight for United States senator from Pennsylvania in the November election.

Penrose won a sweeping victory over J. Benjamin Dimmick, former mayor of Scranton; Palmer defeated Henry Budd of Philadelphia in a bitter fight, and Pinchot was unopposed.

The democratic nomination for governor was between Vance C. McCormick, former mayor of Harrisburg, and Michael J. Ryan, city solicitor of Philadelphia. Ryan polled a big vote in Philadelphia and in the anthracite coal regions, but returns from the greater part of the state have led the friends of McCormick to claim the victory for their candidate.

Martin G. Brumbaugh, superintendent of the public schools of Philadelphia won the republican nomination for governor, defeating Joseph Cauffman, mayor of Johnstown.

The Washington (progressive) candidate for governor at the November election will be William Draper Lewis, dean of the University of Pennsylvania law school.

ROOSEVELT TO CAMPAIGN

self as strongly opposed to the repeal of the law for the exemption of American coastwise ships from payment of Panama tolls. He said he thought it perfectly right to arbitrate the question if the rights of the country to grant exemption were questioned, but declared that to yield the point unequivocally without arbitration was indefensible, as he was convinced the United States was within its rights in freeing coastwise ships from payment of tolls.

SAVING WOODROW WILSON

ONE of the regrettable results of the recent primary election was the defeat of Judge W. H. Canon of Medford, a veteran party worker and efficient political organizer, as democratic national committeeman by H. M. Esterly of Portland, an attorney who never lifted a finger or spent a penny in behalf of party.

Mr. Canon's defeat is due to the fact that he lives in southern Oregon, while his opponent resides in the metropolis; to the expenditure of a large sum of money in Esterly's behalf in a campaign of slander and falsehood against Canon; and lastly, to the statewide efforts of the newly created federal office-holders' machine, captained by Postmaster Myers of Portland, who induced Esterly to become a candidate.

Mr. Canon was denounced in advertisements in the metropolitan press as a reactionary, the representative of Ryan and Belmont, and the enemy of Woodrow Wilson—and this in spite of the fact that Mr. Canon was the original Wilson man in southern Oregon and made the Wilson campaign.

Literature was sent every registered democratic voter, conveying the impression that approval of the administration could only be expressed by a vote for Esterly, defender of the cause of human progress.

Colonel C. E. S. Wood, the millionaire anarchist, political adviser of Harry Lane and cow partner of Bill Hanley, rushed into print in Esterly's behalf, while in half-page ads the unknown Esterly's picture, almost life-sized, replaced Tom Marshall's alongside of Woodrow Wilson, and big type shrieked forth the fact that Wilson stood for humanity and humanity was in danger, and could only be saved by a vote for Esterly!

Coming events cast their shadows before. It will soon be necessary to save Wilson again. Colonel Wood, inspiration of the Esterly campaign, will discover that as Senator Chamberlain is opposed to the administration's policy of canal tolls exemption repeal, Woodrow Wilson and the cause of humanity are again endangered and must be saved. The only way to save them will be to send Wood's partner, Bill Hanley, to the rescue.

We can expect this fall to see Hanley's picture replace Esterly's alongside of Wilson's in the papers, with the legend that a vote for Hanley is a vote for Wilson, and the only way to uphold humanity's cause is to vote for Bill Hanley for United States senator!

RAT CAMPAIGN NEEDED

SWATTING flies is a commendable occupation, but a little of the energy spent on the flies can well be devoted to a campaign of extermination against the rats. A few years ago rats were unknown about Medford. Last year they became so common that Professor O'Gara wrote a series of articles upon them in the Mail Tribune, their origin and habits, calling attention to the necessity of exterminating them, as they are a common carrier of disease germs.

Since then the rats have multiplied tremendously. Sections of Medford are overrun by them, and unless measures are taken at once to exterminate them they will overrun the entire valley. Already they have become pests in many poultry yards.

Great care should be exercised about putting poison out, lest dogs be killed. Poisoned grain does not seem to affect rats injuriously. They are, however, easily trapped. A simple way to get rid of them is to place concentrated lye in their holes. They lick the lye off their feet and are killed. Cats are also effective exterminators.

The slaughter houses are rendezvous for rats, and from them they have spread all over the neighborhoods. But as every canine in the country also visits the slaughter pens, other means than poisoning should be resorted to.

Rats are the most obnoxious of all rodents and the most destructive. They multiply as fast as guinea pigs and are a real danger to the community.

SUFFRAGETTES TRY TO BURN ROYALTY

ALDERSHOT, England, May 20.—A great brush fire, declared by the authorities to be the work of militant suffragettes, encircled today the Royal Pavilion in Lang Valley, where King George and Queen Mary are in residence in the center of a great army of British troops.

Water is plentiful in the vicinity, but the swords of the cavalymen proved a better means of extinguishing the fire, as with the men cut down and beat out the blazing underbrush. As their majesties left the royal pavilion today, two women dashed in front of their carriage with waving banner with the words "Votes for Women."

SMOOT SAYS TARIFF BREEDS CALAMITY

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Armed with tables of figures, Senator Smoot of Utah today told the senate that the total loss to the commerce of the country in the month of April as a result of the passage of the Underwood tariff law had been $63,000,000. He lashed it, he said, on reports as to increased importation and decreased exportation. He said this was at the rate of $700,000,000 loss a year.

QUIMET LOSES TO BRITISH GOLFER

SANDWICH, England, May 20.—Francis Quimet, open golf champion of the United States was eliminated as a contender for the British amateur championship today. He was defeated with apparent ease by "Young" Tubbs, a boy player from a nearby course at Littlestone-on-sea.

A great crowd watched the match, including a large delegation of Americans. Quimet got into difficulties on the fourth hole, taking seven strokes, while Tubbs made it in a clean four. The Englishman was never in danger thereafter, although Quimet made a sensational three to his five on the eighth hole and fought desperately all the way in. At the turn Quimet was one down and Tubbs finished the round with two up and one to play.

The defeat of Quimet cast gloom over the American contingent, but the cloud was partially dispersed shortly afterward by the brilliant victories of Frederick Herreshoff, New York and Harold Weber, Toledo. Herreshoff beat J. B. Platt of the Royal North Devon club by four up and three to play. Weber beat K. M. Carlisle of Sunningdale, by seven up and six to play.

EX-AMBASSADOR SHARPLY CRITICISED BY SENATOR STONE

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Criticism of Henry Lane Wilson, former American ambassador to Mexico, was made in the senate today by Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, when Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan had read a letter from Mr. Wilson, expressing his views on the Mexican situation.

The letter was ostensibly to correct a date in Senator Smith's recent Mexican speech. The former ambassador, in calling attention to the error, told of urging the recognition of General Huerta, and said adoption of that course would have averted the bloodshed which had occurred.

Senator Smith said the former ambassador deserved the highest appreciation of the nation.

"Oh, I don't think he is entitled to the grateful consideration of the American people," insisted Senator Stone. "For myself, I have very little consideration or respect for the former ambassador to the republic of Mexico."

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't stay gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur deters hair so naturally that nobody can tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it deters the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly, and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.
