ABANDON SEARCH FOR BANK BANDITS

SPokane, Wash., May 21.—Officials of the State Bank of Spangle, Wash., were requested today to come to Spokane to identify if possible a man who was picked up by the local police, as one of the three young men who robbed the bank of $4300 and escaped while the cashier was locked in the bank.

The suspect was armed with two revolvers and had a belt of ammunition. He told the police that he was from Pennsylvania and had been traveling about the country. Search for the bandits in the neighborhood of Spangle was abandoned last night.

FIRST FOREST FIRE OF YEAR DOES NO DAMAGE

The first forest fire of the season in southern Oregon occurred Tuesday afternoon three miles southeast of Ashland. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought that the blaze started from a grass fire set by homeowners in clearing their land. But little damage was done beyond the burning of a few small trees and about an acre of underbrush. The fire started late Tuesday afternoon and was under control by Wednesday.

BUNCOM BREVITIES

The McKees, Bert and Fort, are moving J. M. Dews and family to Jacksonville. Old Polk thinks he will try city life again.
