SCANDINAVIANS PLAN MIDSUMMER FEAST

The damp weather yesterday somewhat dampened the Scandinavian mass meeting at Smith's hall, as far as the number in attendance was concerned, but not the enthusiasm.

Some earnest, patriotic speeches were made by John Arnell, Emil Andren, Dr. T. Malngren and others. The former called attention to the fact that the Scandinavians had always proved to be the most loyal citizens to their new countries.

O. N. Nelson was elected temporary chairman; and Miss Elsa Broth secretary. A Scandinavian Society of Rogue River Valley was organized. The following were elected as officers for the year of 1914: Emil Andren, president; O. N. Nelson, secretary; A. J. Anderson, treasurer.

MRS. REDDY REFUSES ALL PRIZES FOR ROSES

To the Editor: Saturday evening I was informed that several people hesitated about joining the Medford Rose society because my rose garden, being larger than theirs, I would take all the prizes.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, at their next regular meeting on June 3, 1914, for a license to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors at retail at his place of business at No. 2, North Front street, in said city, for a period of six months.

A PROPHECY FULFILLED

WHEN the Mail Tribune last week predicted that it would be but a short time before the sponsors for the campaign of misrepresentation and slander waged against Judge Canon and in behalf of H. M. Esterly for democratic national committeeman, would be openly fighting the re-election of George E. Chamberlain for United States senator, it knew whereof it spoke.

NOT IF THE COURT KNOWS HERSELF. We hasten to defend the political acumen of Colonel C. E. S. Wood against the derogation of the Medford Mail Tribune. It is quite true that this has been done because the Medford paper and The Oregonian joined hands in an effort to procure justice for the democrats of Southern Oregon in the election of a National committeeman.

In discussing the lamentable result of the democratic primary our Medford contemporary remarks: "Colonel C. E. S. Wood, the millionaire anarchist, political adviser of Harr Lane and cow partner of Bill Hanley, rushed into print in Esterly's behalf, while in half-page ads the upstart Esterly's picture, almost life-sized, replaced Tom Marshall's alongside of Woodrow Wilson, and big type shrieked out the fact that Wilson stood for humanity and humanity was in danger, and could be saved by a vote for Esterly!"

The political wisdom of the Oregonian, shown by the foregoing, received a sudden jolt by the actual fulfillment of the Mail Tribune's prophecy within a few days of its utterance. What the Oregonian styled "unthinkable" and "bereft of political sense" has "come to pass," as shown by the following editorial from the Oregonian of May 24:

We told you so! If you want the real political news, read the Mail Tribune!

Bad Watering Cause of Poor Lawns

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25.—Bad watering is the cause of almost as many poor lawns as droughts, according to the landscape gardener of the U. S. department of agriculture. Frequent watering of merely the surface of the grass makes the roots of the grass grow near the surface, and these roots should be made to grow down as deeply as possible in order to secure a fine lawn that will resist the hottest weather of summer.

True Education

By Joseph Lee, M. D. President, Playground and Recreation Association of America. Our schools must call out the creative instinct, the instinct to shape material in obedience to imagination, that causes the child to make mud pies and palaces, and that later finds satisfaction in composition of all kinds, whether in words or tones or colors—even in the building of hypotheses—the instinct that is the germ of all creative work, without the exercise of which the creative soul of man cannot itself be born.

QUIET TIME FOR BABIES PROMISED AT BABY SHOW

Because of the commencement exercises at Corvallis, Prof. Peck, who is to be one of the judges of the rose show could not be in Medford this week. This and the fact that the weather is very unsettled has led the executive board of the rose show and Better Babies contest to postpone the show until Friday and Saturday, June 5th and 6th.

Probably not a mother in Medford would care to enter her baby in the better baby contest if the conditions were such as prevailed last year. Every housekeeper is aware that at the appointed hour 120 lock up, confusion is sure to follow. But if those guests are babies! Well, one has but to think back to the howling Fourth of last year, and remember the frightened babies who were entered for the contest to know what would happen. Crying, crowding, confusion.

Are you familiar with the Holland hotel? The beautiful, large dining room is to be used as a reception room for the babies and their attendants. Fortunately this room is on the cool side of the house, so old Sol will be fairly beaten there.

Keep the Kidneys Well

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Medford People Know How to Save It. Many Medford people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help.

The following statement leaves no ground for doubt. Ezra Arnold, Applegate road, Jacksonville, Oregon, says: "My back bothered me for five or six months. I had a dull pain through my kidneys and the kidney action became irregular. I had to get up at night on that account. I was told to try Doan's Kidney Pills and did so with fine results. They soon rid me of all the ailments. My kidneys have bothered me very little since."
