

NEWS FROM COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

(From the News.)

Mrs. A. A. Flynn of Medford is spending the week in this city with her husband, who is employed as electrician and foreman by the Rogue River Public Service corporation.

Judge C. C. Gall, Sams Valley pioneer and one old gentleman, arrived on Tuesday evening from Jacksonville, where he has been visiting, and is now the guest of his daughter, Mrs. S. T. Hodges.

Mrs. North Eddings and little Miss Grace went to Roseburg Wednesday evening to attend the carnival and visit friend Eddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Spade of the old Zana ranch, in upper Sams Valley, welcomed an infant son to the hills and home on Sunday, the 17th.

Charley Young passed through Gold Hill Tuesday morning, en route to Medford, Douglas county. In the baggage car of No. 44 tugged and strained at their leashes three "War" dogs, which will be added to the accomplished pack of Fred Bateman, whom Charley will visit. They will hunt bear in the fastnesses of Hubbard creek, famed for its black and brown bears.

Exactly one week elapsed, almost to the hour, when the storm of Wednesday evening vied with its predecessor. Electrically, the storm was not so fearsome, although the lightning played frequently for some time, but the quantity of water which fell was equal and greatly beneficial. The storm lasted for two hours, with a continuous downpour which drenched the garden truck, sown up the alfalfa, and generally prepared things for the famous 1914 crop.

George Dunewood, a former student of the Gold Hill high school, and grandson of the late "Dad" Smith, renewed his many acquaintances here on Saturday last. He is now employed in Grants Pass.

A number of friends pleasantly surprised Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Kelsey on Friday evening last, the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary, presenting as a token of regard and a memento of the day, a set of solid silver dessert spoons.

Warden Riley Hammersly returned to his station at Willow Flat Tuesday morning to wash dishes and generally prepare for the visit of William L. Finley, ex-state warden and present head of the biological department. Mr. Finley was to arrive the latter part of this week, escorted by District Warden Sam L. Sandry. He brings with him a motion picture camera, and expects to make films of deer and other fauna of the upper Evans creek wilds, remaining for the week.

Mrs. Leigh Hunt returned on Monday from Portland, where she attended the wedding of C. S. Woody, well known to many in this city and county. Mrs. E. Servey, who acted as usher at the ceremony, returned to this city Tuesday. Mr. Woody was wedded on Saturday to Miss La Vera Stoner, a former classmate of De Pauw, Ind., university. They will make their home in Portland. The groom is secretary of the Beaver Portland Cement company. Many local friends joined in expressions of esteem and well wishes to the fortunate young couple.

While operating a hoist at the Braden mine on Saturday last, George Hammersly sustained an accident to his right hand by catching it between the drum and the cable. Only a quick wrench freed him from serious injury. As it was the drum claimed the end of one drit and badly mutilated the remaining three. George will enjoy a fortnight's vacation. At the neighboring Eagle mine on Kane's creek, Tuesday afternoon, Bill Teeple was the goat for another peril of the game. Teeple was sinking a shaft, and intent upon his work at the bottom, when a large fragment of quartz detached and descended, striking upon his head and rendering him unconscious. That the blow did not result in a fracture is considered remarkable, but aside from a lacerated scalp the victim suffered no other injury.

G. A. R. Program for Decoration Day. The Post and W. R. C. will meet at L. O. P. cemetery at 9:30 a. m. when they will proceed to decorate the graves of all soldiers buried there, will then return to Post hall for dinner. All schools and fraternal orders and military organizations will meet with us at the public park at 1:15 p. m., where the parade will be formed by West Lawton, marshal of the day, and march to the Page Theater where there will be an interesting program by the W. R. C. after which there will be an address delivered by Hon. B. F. Sturkey followed by some remarks by Professor Beveridge. There will be music and readings through the exercises.

F. M. PUTNEY, Commander. D. R. ANDRUS, Adjutant.

With Medford trade in Medford made

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

H. D. Corlies came out last Tuesday to visit his son F. M. Corlies and family, who is foreman on the Knight orchard.

George West and wife, one of the forest rangers came out the first of the week and spent a few days at the Sunny Side and then went on up to Prospect to spend the summer.

J. Stover of Medford was a caller for dinner Wednesday.

As I suggested in my last the Childreth brothers have bought out Fisher & Mathew's blacksmith shop and business, so we now have but one shop in our town, but that is enough for there is not business enough to justify having two shops.

Isaac Smith and his sister, Mrs. Butkewits, brother and sister of the late John W. Smith came in last Thursday morning on the P. & E. to visit their nephews, John Loroy and Lewis Smith, the first time they have ever seen each other. They are from Colorado and are on their way to Canada.

Henry Noyer, recently from Idaho, and an old acquaintance of his boyhood days, R. P. Dopp, stopped here for dinner last Thursday. They are mining men and on their way to the Elk creek country.

Thursday night was rather a remarkable night in our little town. It happened to be the birthday of two different persons, William Hazelton and Miss Mabel Wamsley. So Willie's sisters concluded to give him a surprise party and supper, so they managed to get up a fine supper and invite in a number of their young friends, but Billie had a surprise in store for them, so quietly stayed away, so when the invited guests came and began to look around for the aforesaid Billie he was no where to be found, but the young folks had a good time nevertheless.

Miss Mabel Wamsley happened to have her birthday on the same date so Mrs. Howlett decided to give a supper in commemoration of the event, and also have her annual teacher's gathering at the same time, so she notified Prof. W. E. Buchanan and family, Miss Ethel Siddinger, Miss Mabel Huff, the three regular teachers, and Mrs. George Von der Helten to be on hand promptly at 5:00 p. m. and of course they all responded. She also invited quite a number of their intimate friends and the result was that we had as guests for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. George Von der Helten, Mrs. Wm. Von der Helten, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buchanan, Miss Mabel Huff, Miss Ethel Siddinger, Thomas Riley, Jr., Roy Wilhite, George Wamsley, Miss Mabel Wamsley, Mrs. Rachel Wolery, Mrs. Jonas, Kee Buchanan, Dora Buchanan, Katie Buchanan, Joyce Von der Helten, Hugo Von der Helten, Jr., Donald Von der Helten and Bert Clements. I tried to find out how old Miss Mabel Wamsley was but she gave me no satisfaction, but when I appealed to her father he said that she was born May 21st, 1875. Well of all the times the little folks did have, playing, running, wrestling, jumping and having a good time, and the older ones spent the time in a social and about 9:00 o'clock began to start for home wishing Miss Mabel many returns of such an event.

Friday George Von der Helten and Mr. Young, a traveling salesman from Portland called for dinner and later in the day O. C. King, a traveling salesman for the Medford Grocery company, and wife, Miss Beth Blackford and Mrs. Muerari also called.

Mrs. Roll Smith of Gold Hill was a pleasant caller Friday afternoon. Since I last wrote for the Mail Tribune I have been scattering around some but I find that it is hard to find the people at home some times. I started out last Wednesday and the first place I visited was the Alavista orchard where I found J. H. Holmes and after he had renewed his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune, I went out to the Parton farm and orchard where he has as fine a prospect for a crop as any one could wish, and while he is turning his attention to the orchard and alfalfa, he is also raising some hogs for one of his large fields is fairly dotted with black porkers. While I was there he settled for a year's subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune, I then went to the farm of Charles Pruett but found no one at home. The next stop I made was at the old Peter Britt place, there I met Mrs. J. L. Frink and asked for her subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune and she told me that they were taking it and reading the Eaglelets every week, they get it over the rural route from Medford. Passing on I met W. P. Holbrook cultivating his orchard and he gave me his subscription for the Daily Mail Tribune. Passing on I went to the house of Swan Berquest and learned that he and his wife were out in the orchard, so driving on I found them and he said that he had no money in his pocket but would pay me the first time he came to town, which he did on Thursday. In conversing with him I learned that he had a valuable horse killed during the electrical storm on the 14th. I then steered my course for home, passing I stopped at the farm of Nick Young, but as he is a bachelor and was off to work I did not see him. I find that the Mail Tribune is generally liked and as a rule is generally taken throughout the country.

HINT AT INVESTIGATION OF NEW HAVEN AFFAIRS

BOSTON, May 25.—A special grand jury will be called to consider the testimony of Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, before the interstate commerce commission, if District Attorney Pelletier can find that certain transactions occurred in this country, according to his statement tonight.

He indicated that such a grand jury if called, would investigate not only the acts of Mr. Mellen, but also those of other officials and agents of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine.

Splendid Remedy For Eczema

Also for Salt Rheum, Acne, Tetter, Psoriasis and Other Skin Troubles.

After using S. S. S. for a while, the characteristic marks of all skin troubles change completely. When eczema has become chronic the lower skin loses its power to divert impurities and thus they continue to gather in the weak spots or those already attacked. The action of S. S. S. is that of an antidote, and this fact has been demonstrated time and time again in the most severe forms of weeping eczema.

Its influence in the tissues where the tiny arteries transfer the red blood for the worn-out blood to the veins is quite remarkable and goes off constantly with every tick of the clock—the best of the best.

And new skin is thus caused to form while the germs of irritating influences that cause eczema are scattered and their harmful nature entirely suspended.

S. S. S. has a wonderful tonic influence in the blood because it contains no "drugs," is entirely free of any mineral drugs or any other drugs except the remarkable medicinal effect of the pure vegetable products of which it is made.

Few people realize how harmful are many of the strong, crude ointments that need to be in favor before they learned that S. S. S. is safe, speedy and sure. Ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. Give it a good trial and you will soon see a decided improvement in any form of skin trouble. Write to The Swift Specific Co., 558 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for special free advice and new book on skin or blood trouble.
