

BISHOP SCADDING OF OREGON DEAD FROM PNEUMONIA

The late Rt. Rev. Charles Scadding, Bishop of Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore., May 27.—The Right Rev. Charles Scadding, Episcopal Bishop of Oregon, died here shortly after midnight this morning. He was stricken with pleural pneumonia last Thursday and broke down while presiding at the diocesan conference. He was born in Toronto, Ontario, November 25, 1861, and was the author of various books and tracts.

DENMARK ASKS TREATY EXCEPTIONS

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Secretary Bryan asked the senate foreign relations committee today to approve certain exceptions Denmark desires to make in the new treaty for the arbitration of all disputes including those involving national honor. Denmark would except copyright and international labor disputes.

Some opposition developed to the quest. Senators declared themselves opposed to the principle of exceptions. Mr. Bryan did not discuss the Colombian treaty to pay $25,000,000 in connection with the partition of Panama.

MINERS' WIVES TELL OF LUDLOW MASSACRE

NEW YORK, May 27.—The hearings before the federal industrial commission of industrial relations were varied today by the appearance of two wives of miners of Colorado. Mrs. Peter Jolly described conditions in the Ludlow tent colony. She said the war was one against women, not against men. Mrs. Jolly paid a tribute to the Greek miners who constituted about one-fourth of the colony. "Had it not been for the Greeks, we would not be here now," she said.

KIME ON TRIAL FOR KILLING MAN INSTEAD OF DEER

The trial of Wilbur Kime of Griffin creek, charged with having killed George Bigham of Oregon City in a burn near Trail, by mistaking him for a deer, during the open season last fall, began in the circuit court at Roseburg this morning. The charge against Kime is criminal carelessness. He has lived for many years in the valley.

W. C. Bigham of Trail, brother of the dead man, George Wynn, who was with the party, and residents of the Trail district, on the scene immediately after the shooting, were subpoenaed Monday by Prosecutor Brown of Douglas county, and left this morning to testify. All the evidence adduced at the coroner's inquest has been sent to Roseburg for use in the trial.

The basis of the trial was the second fatal hunting accident in this section last fall. Evidence showed that Bigham was in the brush that fringed the "burn," and Kime was on a side hill. It was brought out at the coroner's hearing that Kime had fired at a noise in the brush, the bullet striking Bigham in the abdomen, causing almost instant death. Other testimony introduced tended to show that Bigham was seated upon a log when shot.

Kime since the shooting has been laboring under a severe mental strain worrying over the shooting.

The shooting occurred on the Umoona divide near Trail, just over the Jackson county line in Douglas county, a fact that caused the transmission of the case to the latter circuit court.

SEATTLE LOGGER'S HEAD SPLIT OPEN

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—Jack Minte, a logger, aged 60, was found murdered in his shanty on the southern waterfront today, his head having been split open with an ax that lay nearby. The police arrested Jacob Conturi, a logger, aged 35, who had been drinking last night with Minte, and who is charged with the murder. Conturi, according to a bartender, came into the latter's saloon last night and talked incoherently of killing a man, but was so drunk that no attention was paid to him. After his arrest today Conturi said he killed Minte because the latter had stolen fish from him.

He said that his party, with 120 men as porters, traveled 5000 miles and passed through the country of Livingston and Stanley, even meeting two guides who recognized Stanley.

JUDGE LINDSEY AND WOMEN OF THE STRIKE REGIONS OF COLORADO WHO APPEALED TO PRESIDENT WILSON

JUDGE AND MRS. LINDSEY, ON THE LEFT, AND PARTY AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Accompanied by his bride and women and children of the strike region of Colorado, Judge Ben R. Lindsey, of Denver, called at the White House and appealed to President Wilson to force John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other mine owners of Colorado to submit to arbitration of their differences with the strikers. Mrs. Mary Petrucci, a pale, wan little woman in black, went to tell the President that she had seen her three little children burned to death when the State militia of Colorado fired on the miners and their families in the battle at Trinidad. Others in the party included Mrs. H. H. Thomas, another miner's wife, who had with her two children, six and four years old, respectively, both of whom had been under fire in the Trinidad battle, and Mrs. Pearl Jolly, "the heroine of Ludlow." After seeing the President the party proceeded to New York in the hope of obtaining an audience with John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

MOORE DELGARES ARBITRATION OVER CENTURY OLD

MOHONK LAKE, N. Y., May 27.—John Bassett Moore, presiding at the opening session of the twentieth annual Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration here today, declared that arbitration treaties were backward steps. As far back as 1794 he found the United States and Great Britain admitting to arbitration in a sweeping manner certain points which would be subject to exception or restriction under the treaty with Great Britain today.

Mr. Moore spoke favorably of the pending "Bryan peace treaties." "In all," he said, "fifteen treaties based on the 'peace plan' have been signed. It is understood that none of the agreements thus described has been submitted to the senate, so that their fate cannot as yet be foretold; but it may be remarked that, with the exception of a very small number of all inclusive treaties of arbitration, they represent an advance beyond previous arrangements in that they propose to submit to investigation all questions in dispute, of every nature whatsoever which diplomacy may fail to adjust."

STEENSTRUP SAYS HUPP CAR WINNER IN SOUTH AMERICA

P. S. Steenstrup, formerly of Medford now in Buenos Aires as resident export representative for the Huppobile in South America, reports an interesting reliability run in which the Hup was victorious over a field of fifteen entries, many of which were French cars of high power, according to advices received by Court Hall, local distributor of Huppobiles. The run was of exceptional serenity on account of the frightful road conditions and the difficulties caused by rivers and other obstacles. Not the least interesting feature of the event was the resourcefulness displayed by the Hup driver, Senor Sanchez.

The run was from Buenos Aires to Mar del Plata, a distance of 400 miles. The roads in some places were so heavy it took hours to go a single mile and the strain on the cars was a thorough test of their durability. At one point the contestants had the choice of making a long detour across the river San Porondon on a bridge or being towed across the river, which at this place is 500 feet wide. The Hup driver, however, accepted neither alternative. Mr. Sanchez wrapped the carburetor and magneto in oil paper and plunged into the water, driving across the stream safely and triumphantly under his own power. In this way the Hup gained about one hour on its competitors and it finished the 400-mile run six hours ahead of all others.

GIRLS RUN AWAY FROM HOME TO GRANTS PASS

Ruth Mark and Myrtle Crofoot, two 14-year-old girls living in this city, held in Grants Pass, were brought back this afternoon by Probation Officer Charles Gay for a hearing before Probation Judge Tom Velle. The girls, who attended the public schools, became dissatisfied with school life and decided to join the carnival company, and walked the entire distance to Grants Pass. They disappeared Monday afternoon. The father of the Mark's girl is a mechanic at the Madden & Hanley cannery at Wrangell, Alaska.

This is the second case of young children running away from home this week.

DOYLE PRESIDENT LYNCHING BEE FOR SUFFRAGETTES

NEW YORK, May 27.—Sir Conan Doyle, the British novelist, accompanied by Lady Doyle, arrived at New York today on the White Star liner Olympic.

Mr. Doyle said England had stood all it could from the militant suffragettes and he anticipated "a wholesale lynching bee." "The English government," he said, "follows public opinion, and thus far public opinion has not demanded the entire suppression of the suffragette. But it is on the point of doing so, and when the English mob is thoroughly aroused it is not a respecter of sex."
