PROSECUTOR ATTACKED BY TATTOED BANDIT

MOUNT VERNON, Wash., May 29.—When Charles Hopkins, alleged "tattooed bandit," was arraigned in court today on a charge of murder, he became sullen and refused to enter a plea. As Prosecutor Beagle leaned over the table Hopkins sprang forward and attacked him. The blow went wild, however, and struck Mr. Beagle on the shoulder. Before he could strike again he was seized by guards and taken back to his cell.

The Empress sank in nineteen fathoms of water.

MARKET RECOVERS FROM RECENT DECLINES

NEW YORK, May 29.—The market closed today steady. Such insignificant changes as occurred in the market were recorded in the final dealings, when, without any great activity, prices of leading issues rose to their best. The recovery, it may be assumed, resulted more from covering of short contracts than from any definite influence.

SEVENTEEN BODIES PICKED UP TODAY BY RESCUE SHIP

RIMOUSKI, May 29.—The Lady Evelyn, which returned to the scene of the disaster, reported by wireless that she had picked up 17 bodies at 3 o'clock.

A party of Salvation Army members, en route to London, was almost wiped out; Laurence Irving, son of the late Sir Henry Irving, is among the missing and other prominent persons in the first cabin were unaccounted for late this afternoon. When the rescue ships Eureka and Lady Evelyn reached the scene shortly before daybreak they found nine lifeboats from the Empress all jammed full and many of the occupants wounded. It was still dark. Wreckage covered the river everywhere. The Stortstad, her bow badly crumpled was still on the scene, picking up the living wherever she could. In one of the lifeboats crunched Captain Kendall, commander of the Empress, dazed and greatly shaken. He had leaped from the deck and had been picked up by members of his crew.

Those in the first and second cabins known to have been saved up to 3 o'clock this afternoon are:

G. W. Shenderson, C. R. Burt, Walter Fenton, Miss Alice Lee, Nassau, Bahamas; Miss E. Court, Liverpool; Walter Geringer, (this may be J. Erzinger of Winnipeg), B. Weinruch, Montreal.

When the train arrived here bearing survivors it was a pitiful sight to see them alight. Most of them wore little clothing. Many had to be carried bodily. A woman had a broken leg and shoulder and a man had two legs broken. They were carried to a hotel opposite the station. H. R. O'Hara and his little girl, Helen, were saved, but up to the present no news of Mrs. O'Hara has been received. She probably drowned.

309 SURVIVORS LANDED AT SUBURB OF RIMOUSKI

RIMOUSKI, Que., May 29.—Three hundred and ninety-nine survivors from the steamship Empress of Ireland have been landed here. This leaves 1035 of those on board unaccounted for. It is understood, however, that 360 were picked up by the collier Storstad, cutting the list of missing to 675.

SPONGE FISHERMEN WAR ON FLORIDA COAST

KEY WEST, Fla., May 29.—The revenue cutter Yamacraw, ordered here to prevent further outbreaks between Greek and American sponge fishermen, had not arrived late tonight. No further trouble has occurred since the destruction of the Greek schooners Amelia and Edna Louise and another small boat owned by Greeks. The Amelia was dynamited and one negro sailor is missing. All the other Greek vessels which had been engaged in sponge fishing near here have left it was reported tonight.

Threats of further destruction of the Greek boats had been made by sympathizers of American sponge workers here, who have objected to the methods used by the Greek fishermen, asserting they were taking undersized sponges and soon would destroy the sponge beds.

The Greeks protested to United States officials and to the Greek consul at Washington.

GREAT BRAVERY SHOWN BY CREWS OF RESCUE SHIPS

RIMOUSKI, May 29.—One woman survivor of the Empress of Ireland, who was garbed only in a yest, jumped overboard and swam to the Lady Evelyn. She was so exhausted, however, that she died a few minutes after she was taken from the water. Her identity has not been established.

Both the first and second Mareou operators of the Empress were saved. Edward Bonford, the second operator, was coming on duty when the boat began to sink. He caught the Father Point Mareou station and called for assistance. Bonford was saved by falling into a lifeboat. The other operator, Ronald Fergusson, had to swim for the boat. Both operators came back to the Rimouski port on board the pilot boat Eureka. Passengers were loud in their praise of the captain and the pilot of the Lady Evelyn and Captain Belanger of the Eureka and their crews.

All of them displayed the greatest bravery, it was said. A Mr. McWilliams of Father Point also was active in aiding the rescued. All of the authorities of Rimouski and Father Point joined in caring for the survivors.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription. This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.
