against the three in the circuit court today and that a grand jury investigation would be begun immediately.

Police officers and the private detective employed by the mayor began today digging up the floor of the cellar in the Winters' home with the hope as they expressed it of finding either the body of the girl or evidence of how the body had been disposed of. It was said if no traces were found in the cellar, other parts of the premises would be dug up.

Described Sweater Found Mrs. Winters, following her arrest, was questioned regarding the clothing worn by Catherine on the day of her disappearance, March 29, 1913, and the police said that, among the other effects she described the sweater which was found last night.

It was said Dr. Winters probably would be taken to the jail in Medford, so that he could not communicate with either his wife or Cooper.

FORBES ROBERTSON MAY PLAY HERE

A letter has been received by the Drama league in response to an appeal to J. Forbes Robertson, the great English actor, to appear in this city, that reads as follows, and shows it is probable, but not possible, that the noted player will appear in this city:

"Harris-bourne Manor, Bushey Heath, Herts.

"My Dear Madame:

"I thank you all heartily for the kind and flattering letter you have sent me. I fear that your request is impossible. My western tour was made up some months ago. However, if it is possible, I will play at Medford and Eugene. With my good wishes, Very truly,

"J. FORBES ROBERTSON."

TURNER FINED $100 BUT FINE SUSPENDED

Clemency was extended by the court to G. H. Turner of Gold Hill, convicted Thursday of contributing to the delinquency of Alma Britt, aged 14 years, Friday afternoon when a fine of $100, the same suspended, pending good behavior was administered by the court. Turner is a well known resident of Gold Hill, highly respected, and friends assert that the odium of the conviction is a punishment worse than a prison term. He was convicted almost entirely upon the testimony of the girl. The jury for hours was in doubt, the poll standing at one time 10 to 2 for conviction.

SALVATIONISTS PRAY FOR LOST COMRADES

NEW YORK, May 30.—At Salvation Army headquarters here, 799 delegates from all parts of the United States assembled to sail today on the Olympic to attend the international convention in London, held an almost continuous prayer service for their comrades who perished in the Empress of Ireland disaster.

Messages received by Commander Eva Booth from Lieutenant Governor J. M. Gibson of the province of Ontario, confirmed reports that few of the Canadian delegates aboard the Empress of Ireland, probably not more than 20, were rescued. Commander Booth sent messages to Salvation Army officers in Quebec to make every effort to identify the dead and report the names of the survivors.

ENGLISH COAL MINERS KILLED BY EXPLOSION

LEEDS, England, May 30.—Eleven coal miners were killed and a number of others injured today by an explosion of gas in the Silkstone colliery at Wharfedale.

3:27.31, a new record for the distance.

Boillot had wrestled the lead from Thomas at the 350 mile point with about a quarter of a lap to spare. Duray was in third place, about two laps behind. The time was 4:13.29, as compared with the former record of 4:27.15, made by Dawson in 1912.

At 400 Mile Point Fifteen cars were left in the race at the end of 400 miles. Thomas was again in the lead, three laps ahead of Duray in the second place, followed by Guyot. The time for the distance, 4:52.02 marked another low record. Boillot who was fighting for first place with Thomas, had trouble with the rear wheels of his car and was forced out in the 147th lap.

Strayed. One black horse, four years old, no visible brands, wire cut on left front foot. Jumped into my enclosure at the Valley View orchard. Owner call and pay charges and take property. C. J. Gear.

Men Wanted

In the next 10 days we want 200 men in Medford and surrounding territory—men who have not yet found that to be a real part of the community in which they live that it is necessary to be within reach of all others in the community—to have their names in the Blue Book of the community, to be listed in the telephone directory along with the other 2000 men in Medford who find the telephone so indispensable. The cost is so small—installed in your residence for only 2 cents a day (no other charge)—and then assign for your personal service a competent, intelligent, quick and courteous operator, always at your command, day and night, ready and willing to do for you those things a thousand times greater in value than the amount you pay for it. The Blue Book goes to press June 10. Let your name be written in it.
